MGA OFFICERS

Ede Rice,
MGA President

As president, Rice leads the executive committee and board of directors in developing policies and programs of the MGA and appoints chairs to the organization's committees. She has been actively involved in amateur golf administration since becoming the first woman elected to the MGA Board of Directors in 1994. Rice is a passionate advocate for caddie scholars at the University of Minnesota Chapter House of the Western Golf Association's Evans Scholars program. She has been a WGA director since 1995 and was the first woman elected to the WGA Board of Governors in 2010. Rice is an accomplished competitive golfer having won the Minnesota Women's (and Senior Women's) Amateur Four-Ball championships in 2006, and earning the distinction of MGA Senior Women's Player of the Year. She was recognized with the MGA Warren J. Rebholz Distinguished Service Award in 2012 and continues to devote her time as a tournament volunteer and rules official. She was also awarded the 2022 USGA Joe Dey Award, honoring her meritorious service to the game as a volunteer. Rice and her husband Jack live in Edina and belong to Edina Country Club and Woodhill Country Club.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

For more than a century, the Minnesota Golf Association has been a steward of the amateur game in our state. What began in 1901, with seven member clubs and a goal to identify the best amateur player, today encompasses nearly 35 state championships, national qualifiers and numerous regional and club competitions.

Minnesota consistently ranks at or near the top in golfer participation and represents an industry that means $2.3 billion annually to the state's economy. Clearly, we are passionate about playing the game and take seriously our role as its steward.

In association with 15 allied organizations representing those who make a living from the game to those who see the game as a way to improve the lives of others, the new MGA is a year-round non-profit organization that serves the game for all golfers in Minnesota. The MGA actively supports, financially and otherwise, a diverse number of organizations like the Western Golf Association's Evans Scholars program and a number of other organizations that promote the game to disabled golfers, disadvantaged youth and groups that have traditionally found challenges in their paths when it comes to the game of golf.

The reason the MGA is able to give back to the game is first and foremost because of the more than 83,000 associate members and the more than 400 member golf clubs who choose to join in and support the MGA. Our exceptional staff, board members, ambassadors and volunteers turn this support into programs and services on behalf of the game in our state.

Thanks, everyone. Your support is so greatly appreciated. Together, let's make 2023 a great year for the game that we all love so much!

Paul Meierant,
Vice President

As vice president, Meierant fulfills the duties of the president when the latter is absent or unavailable to perform the office. He has been actively involved in amateur golf administration since his election to the MGA Board of Directors in 2009. Meierant has served as chairperson of the MGA's Marketing and Communications Committee and as a member on the MGA's Handicap and Course Rating and Regional Affairs committees. For the past six years, he served the association as an officer in his role as an MGA Regional Vice President. Meierant has a background in retail management and executive leadership at several leading local retailers including the Target Corporation, Hammer Made and SuperValu. Originally from St. Louis, Mo., he lives in Edina with his wife Rachel and two daughters.

Jerry Rose,
Secretary/Treasurer

As secretary/treasurer, Rose is responsible for the financial affairs of the MGA. He was elected to the MGA Board of Directors in 2020, but has been actively involved in amateur golf administration for many years. Rose has served on the MGA Rules and Competition Committee and is currently a member of the Executive Committee. For the past seven years, he has served as the tournament chair of The Resorters at Alexandria Golf Club, where he recently completed his fourth year as club president. Rose attended Brigham Young University where he played on the golf team. He is an accomplished competitor, having won the MGA Senior Players' Championship twice and the MGA Senior Men's Player of the Year honor four times. After retiring from General Electric in 2012, Rose became an independent consultant in business strategy and leadership, and is currently a board advisor for Ark Electronics in Irvine, Calif. He lives in Alexandria, Minn., with his wife, Judy, and winters in Sarasota, Fla.

Mike Malone,
Past President

As past-president, Malone remains actively involved in the MGA as chair of the nominating committee and as a tournament volunteer. He has been involved in the golf industry for nearly four decades, including serving as the head golf professional at Waseca Lakeside Golf Club, the Dahlgreen Golf Club, and he is the owner and director of golf at the Ridges of Sand Creek in Jordan. He serves on the board of the Midwest Golf Course Owners Association, was a past president, and is also a former board member of the Minnesota Section of the PGA. Malone, who played college golf at Broward College, in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., was named the Minnesota Section of the PGA Golf Professional of the Year in 2007. He lives in Edina.

THE MGA STORY

The Minnesota Golf Association, founded in 1901, is a nonprofit organization dedicated to upholding and promoting the game of golf and its values for all golfers in Minnesota. The MGA currently serves more than 400 member clubs and 82,000 amateur golfers throughout the state which makes the MGA one of the largest golf associations in the country. The MGA, through its programs and services, strives to preserve the integrity of the game to make golf more enjoyable for all.

Effective December 31, 2016, the MGA merged with the Minnesota Women's Golf Association (MWGA) and the Minnesota Women's Public Golf Association (MWPGA). The merger has created more playing opportunities for all female MGA members, some 17,000 throughout the state.

Seven golf clubs founded the Minnesota Golf Association in 1901, creating an organization designed to foster, promote and conserve golf within the state. In the more than 120 years since its inception, the MGA has produced a long list of services oriented towards the golfer, the golf course and the game itself.

The first of those services was the competitive golfing event, the Amateur Championship. First played at the conclusion of the MGA's inaugural meeting, the Amateur is one of the oldest and longest running sporting events in the state. It has become a popular tradition with over 700 golfers competing annually. The growth of golf has prompted the addition of events to the MGA's championship schedule. There are now 23 MGA amateur championships for golfers of all ages and abilities.

For the younger golfers, the MGA has the State Junior Boys' and Girls' Championships. Along with junior championships, there are also Junior Girls' Clinics, and the MGA provides opportunities for junior golfers to play golf for $5 or less through the Youth on Course program.

Golfers interested in supporting the MGA can join the MGA's Membership Program through member clubs by contacting a club directly or through the MGA Join Online Program. Members receive a regularly updated Handicap Index® and MGA publications including the Minnesota Golfer magazine and the MGA eNewsletter, and have the opportunity to compete in MGA championships and events. Associate Member dues are the primary source of funding for the MGA's services.

For the golf courses in the state, the MGA offers club memberships. With a tradition founded on service, the MGA offers golf courses a unique network of information and assistance. An extensive course rating program keeps MGA member clubs' ratings up to USGA standards. This ensures that every member handicap accurately reflects a golfer's potential ability. MGA member clubs also receive club rosters, tournament schedules, course rating posters and dozens of other important pieces of literature each year. An MGA golf calendar informs golfers about various club events and tournaments that occur around the state. The MGA compiles these dates every spring and sends the calendar to all Associate Members on its mailing list – more than 55,000 households.

In addition, the MGA actively monitors state legislation to ensure the best interests of the game of golf are pursued. Any changes that will affect MGA member clubs are quickly passed along.

With the Rules of Golf being an integral part of the game, rules education and dissemination are an important service offered by the MGA. This includes selling Rules of Golf and Official Guide books, managing the Rules Hotline and presenting Rules Seminars, both in-person and virtually.

"One Hundred Years of Minnesota Golf," by Loyal H. "Bud" Chapman was commissioned by the Minnesota Golf Association to celebrate the MGA's Centennial in 2001.

It captures in wonderful detail the people and historic events over the years in Minnesota.

ALLIED ASSOCIATIONS

The MGA along with its allied associations work together to promote and serve the game of golf for all golfers in Minnesota.

Minnesota is fortunate to have several golf associations that serve the game of golf in a variety of ways and the MGA is privileged to work with its many allies. To ensure the health of golf in Minnesota, the MGA supports other state allied golf associations through administrative and financial support and resource sharing. The golf industry's direct impact to Minnesota's economy is $1.6 billion annually

($2.3 billion including indirect impact), so the golf industry's health is vital to many Minnesota citizens.

An Allied Association is an organization that is golf-related and has a mission or vision that is consistent with the MGA's mission. The MGA and allied associations work to support each others' mission or visions while respecting each association's unique role in fostering the game of golf in Minnesota. A complete list of MGA Allied Associations, their mission statements, as well as contact information follows:

MGA SERVICES

ADVOCACY FOR GOLF IN MINNESOTA

The MGA monitors the state capitol for legislative issues that might impact golf in Minnesota.

Over the last several years, the MGA and its allied associations have worked with legislators on a number of issues including creating legislation ensuring the regulated use of phosphorus by golf courses, developing proportional property taxes for Minnesota golf courses, management of vital natural resources such as water, and working with Governor Tim Walz and the Minnesota Department of Health to develop operations protocols to open Minnesota's golf courses quickly and safely during the COVID-19 pandemic.

In general, golf in Minnesota annually provides $480 million in golf tourism, $743 million in wage earnings (24,933 jobs), and $64 million in funds raised for charity. Minnesota golf is part of a larger $84 billion U.S. economy (World Golf Foundation).

The MGA and allied associations commissioned an Economic Impact Study of the Golf Industry to articulate the contribution of golf to Minnesota's economy and establish the golf industry as a significant business sector. In 2016, the size of Minnesota's direct golf economy was approximately $1.6 billion (or a total of $2.3 billion, when the effects of golf dollars from other linked industries are factored in). The golf industry is on a par with several other important industries: dairy products ($1.6 billion) and professional spectator sports ($742 million).

COMMUNICATIONS

Minnesota Golfer

The award-winning Minnesota Golfer, the official publication of the MGA, is distributed four times per year to a primary audience of 83,000. Readers include MGA Members, golf industry decision makers including golf professionals, club managers, golf course superintendents, course owners, club officials, sales representatives and the news media. A digital version of current and recent issues also appear online at mngolf.org.

The Minnesota Golfer is an effective tool for advertisers to help achieve their marketing goals with the most avid golf audience in Minnesota.

The MGA's website, mngolf.org, features a hugely popular course search engine and is an exceptional resource for information. This site displays key member club information such as telephone numbers, green fees, directions, course amenities, yardage and par as well as the course and slope ratings of all MGA member clubs. MGA Members are able to sign up for MGA events and programs via the website. While players, visitors and the media are able to view Minnesota golf news on a daily basis and "Live Scoring" during most MGA championships, in season news and stories on the local golf scene are updated nearly daily on the MGA website throughout the year. The MGA also has a mobile friendly web design for the convenience of MGA members and visitors using smartphone technology.

For more information on marketing opportunities with the MGA, please contact our account representative, Connie Van Housen at 612-723-2901 or cvanhousen@mspcommunications.com.

HANDICAPPING

Handicapping enables golfers of differing skill levels to play equitably together- a vital and important component in the overall golf experience. As the authorized golf association and central handicapping authority in Minnesota, the MGA strives to uphold these values:

- Peer Review - Golf clubs issuing Handicap Indexes® must have a minimum of 10 members, and members must have a regular opportunity to play golf together.
- Score Posting - Each golfer will post every acceptable round for peer review.
- Rules of Golf - Golfers must follow the Rules of Golf when posting scores for handicap purposes.
- Frequency of Revision of a Handicap Index - Golf Clubs issuing Handicap Indexes® must follow the MGA's score-posting season. A player's Handicap Index will be revised and updated the day after a score is posted.
- Handicap Chairperson - Golf Clubs issuing Handicap Indexes® must have an appointed Handicap Chairperson to work with all handicap-related issues.
- Club Licensing - All member clubs and clubs affiliated with the MGA for handicap administration purposes are required to attend an education seminar and complete a quiz demonstrating knowledge of the new Rules of Handicapping.

WORLD HANDICAP SYSTEM

In 2020, the World Handicap System (WHS) was launched to serve golfers across the world. The United States Golf Association (USGA) along with six other handicap governing organizations across the world have collaborated to make golf an equitable game for golfers of all skill levels around the globe. The World Handicap System aims to bring the game of golf under a single set of handicapping rules and provide a more consistent measure of players' abilities throughout different regions of the world.

The MGA is the authorized golf association and the central handicap authority, to administer and implement the World Handicap System in Minnesota.

MGA Members can track their Handicap Index® by receiving the MGA eNewsletter via email, sent out on the first and fifteenth day of each month.

The MGA issues approximately 83,000 handicaps annually, including reduced-rate handicaps for juniors. It only takes 54 holes to establish a Handicap Index®. Minnesota's active season is April 1 to October 31. Once a handicap is established, it can be verified via the MGA's website, mngolf.org, or at ghin.com. The MGA has a full-time staff that provides superior customer service to all MGA member clubs and Associate Members who have questions relating to GHIN or the Handicap System.

FREE GHIN MOBILE APP

GHIN Mobile is available to all MGA Members. It offers a personalized mobile experience that allows you to manage and follow your game.

Download the free app by searching for "GHIN Mobile App."

Key features include:

- Score Posting - Total Score, Hole-by-Hole Score and Hole-by-Hole Score with Stats
- Stat Tracking - Number of Putts, Greens in Regulation and Driving Accuracy
- Score History
- Golfer Lookup
- Course Handicap™ Calculator
- 3D Color Map Imagery
- Touch Point GPS Distance
- Distance to Center of the Green

Enhanced GPS Features*

- Distances - To Front & Back of Green
- Ability to Set Hole Location
- Shot Tracking
- Approach Heat Map
- Putt Break Map

COURSE RATING & MEASURING

One of the responsibilities of the MGA as the central handicap authority for Minnesota and authorized golf associations is to provide course rating and measuring services to its member clubs. MGA member clubs are usually rated three times in their first ten years of existence. More mature courses are re-rated every five-to-seven years. This ensures the accuracy and effectiveness of the Handicap System® for all MGA member clubs. New and reconstructed courses are a top priority at the MGA. Nearly all courses within the United States have been measured and rated using the Course Rating™ System Rating guidelines. This allows golfers to report their scores from any of these courses in the country for handicapping purposes. The use of the Course Rating™ System makes the Handicap Index® portable from course to course. MGA course raters have attended calibration seminars and training sessions to qualify for their positions. Each year the MGA's two course rating teams measure and rate approximately 100 golf courses in Minnesota. Laser measuring and strict adherence to specifications ensures accurate ratings at all MGA member clubs. The MGA rating teams are among the top rating teams in the United States.

FOR THE GOOD OF THE GAME – AND ITS FUTURE SUCCESS

The MGA is proud to support programs such as the Evans Scholars Foundation, the Fairway Foundation, the Minnesota Minority Junior Golf Association, the Physically Limited Golfers' Association and The First Tee. See our list of Allied Associations on pages 9-11 of this Media Guide.

In addition to the recognition as allied associations, the MGA publishes an annual golf calendar helping to raise awareness of charitable golf tournament fundraising at MGA member clubs.

GROWTH OF THE GAME & JUNIOR GOLF

Join Online

"Join the Club" was launched as a way to allow golfers to locate MGA clubs seeking new golfers. At mngolf.org, golfers can search and locate a golf club in their area which will allow the golfer to join the MGA online for $45 and establish a Handicap Index®. This program has successfully linked unaffiliated golfers to MGA member clubs.

Youth on Course

A Youth on Course membership entitles members to play at participating courses in Minnesota and over 1,700 courses nationally for $5 or less per round. By registering, juniors will receive full membership benefits with the Minnesota Golf Association including a Handicap Index®, subscription to the Minnesota Golfer Magazine and eligibility to play in various events.

Visit mngolf.org/youthoncourse to join and see a complete listing of participating Minnesota courses.

For more information please contact Joel Comstock at 952-345-3968 or joel@mngolf.org.

National Youth on Course Scholarship Program

High school seniors across the nation have the opportunity to continue on a path to success through higher education that might otherwise be out of reach.

Since the inception of the YOC Scholarship Program in 2008, they have had the honor of awarding over $2 million total to outstanding high school seniors to support their pursuit of higher education.

In 2022, two MN Youth on Course members (pictured below) were awarded scholarships, Jack Taggart, Lakeville and Kalani Yang, St. Paul.

To apply for the Youth on Course Scholarship Program, visit youthoncourse.org/scholarships.

Minnesota Golf Association Foundation

The Minnesota Golf Association Foundation (MGA Foundation) is the charitable affiliate of the Minnesota Golf Association. The MGA Foundation is a 501(c)(3) charitable corporation and contributions are tax-deductible. It assists the golf industry in Minnesota by providing charitable support for the administration of the Minnesota Youth on Course Program and two scholarship programs, the Evans Scholars program and the MGA Foundation Women's Scholarship program.

There are several ways you can help the MGA Foundation succeed in its mission to better the game of golf in Minnesota including, becoming a sustaining donor of the MGA Foundation, making a donation to MN Youth on Course or the MGA Foundation Women's Scholarship and purchasing a Minnesota Golf License Plate.

To donate to the MGA Foundation, visit mngolf.org/foundation.

Minnesota Golf License Plate

The Play Golf Minnesota specialty license plate is on sale through the Minnesota department of public safety and select DMV locations. Golfers who pay the $30 plate fee will have the peace of mind of knowing that proceeds will be directed toward for-good-of-the-game programs, such as junior golf and player development, designated by a joint Minnesota MGA/PGA committee.

To order your golf license plate, visit your local county DMV office.

MGA Club Trade-In Program - Sell Your Clubs, Give Back to the Game

If you're in the market for a new set of sticks, now you can turn your old golf clubs into cash and donate to the MGA Foundation at the same time. Powered by the 2nd Swing Value Guide Technology, simply select your golf equipment and its condition, choose a payment option (you can choose to donate a portion or all of the transaction to the MGA Foundation).

To trade in your clubs, visit mngolf.org/Sell_Your_Clubs#/product-search.

Minnesota Golf Association Foundation Women's Scholarship

The Minnesota Golf Association Foundation Women's Scholarship (previously known as the MWGA Scholarship Foundation) was established in 1998 and supports young women in their collegiate ventures. The Foundation has committed more than $800,000 in scholarships to 76 recipients. The criteria for judging applicants are based on their academic excellence, financial need, quality of character, and interest or involvement in golf. The 2022 recipients (pictured below) were Julia Besonen, Menahga High School, and Kaylee Campbell, Tracy Area High School.

For more information and application, visit mngolf.org/MWGA_Foundation.

Junior Golf Championships

The MGA offers the Minnesota State Junior Boys' & Junior Girls' Championships. The MGA also oversees United States Golf Association qualifying for the U.S. Junior Amateur and U.S. Girls' Junior Amateur Championships. Juniors who qualify locally compete at the national championship. The MGA helps defray the travel expenses so juniors from Minnesota can attend the event every year.

EVANS SCHOLARS – COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIPS

The MGA, in association with the Western Golf Association, provides Evans Scholarships to deserving caddies. Scholarships are awarded to caddies with financial need who have demonstrated outstanding scholastic performance and community service. Scholarships include tuition and housing. Currently, there are forty-two active scholars at the University of Minnesota, eight of whom are women. Since 1930, when the first two Scholars enrolled at Northwestern University, more than 11,000 Evans Scholars Alumni have graduated from college, including more than 700 from Minnesota.

For more information, contact Anne Mullen at 952-345-3969 or anne@mngolf.org.

2022 Chick Evans Scholarship Recipients

Five Minnesota caddies (pictured below) were awarded the Chick Evans Scholarship, following a final selection interview on February 1, 2022 for fall 2022 enrollment at the University of Minnesota.

Caddie Development in Minnesota

The MGA promotes caddie programs via a statewide network of MGA golf clubs by disseminating information, such as best practices and support materials, and assists member clubs in the recruitment of youth caddies. The Caddie Development Manager, as liaison between the MGA and the Minnesota Caddie Committee, perpetuates the Evans Scholarship by identifying and developing qualified applicants for the Evans caddie-scholar program.

For more information contact Jack Mendesh, MGA Caddie Development Manager at 952-345-3960 or caddie@mngolf.org.

GUEST SPEAKER BUREAU

The MGA provides a speaker service for club meetings or special gatherings to discuss MGA services, programs and other related topics.

HOLE-IN-ONE CERTIFICATES

The MGA recognizes holes-in-one made by MGA members on our website and in a comprehensive database available at mngolf.org. MGA members can enter their “ace” information online including telling a story about their perfect shot and uploading a photo. Recent holes-in-one are featured on the homepage. Once a hole-in-one has been recorded online, a player may print out a handsome certificate recognizing their accomplishment or request the MGA staff to send out a printed certificate. In 2022, 461 holes-in-one and double eagles were recorded by MGA Members. Simply go to the homepage of mngolf.org and look for the highlighted area recognizing holes-in-one. You can see recent hole-in-one stories and photos, explore the searchable MGA hole-in-one database and record your own hole-in-one!

INTERNSHIPS IN GOLF ADMINISTRATION

The MGA conducts a P.J. Boatwright Jr. internship program that provides education and training in all areas of golf administration. In 1991, the USGA established the P.J. Boatwright Jr. Internship Program, in honor of P.J. Boatwright Jr., a past United States Golf Association Director of Rules and Competitions. Each year, the USGA perpetuates a memorial tribute to P.J. Boatwright Jr. through funding of internship programs for regional golf associations throughout the country, including the MGA. This program is designed to give experience to individuals who are interested in pursuing a career in golf administration, while assisting state and regional golf associations, as well as other non-profit organizations dedicated to the promotion of amateur golf, on a short-term, entry-level basis. Interns help conduct tournaments, junior golf programs, membership services, and other general activities that promote the best interests of golf.

MEMBER DAYS

This popular and growing program allows our MGA Members to play outstanding golf courses around the state. Primarily an MGA Member benefit, these events of fun golf and camaraderie are also an opportunity for MGA member clubs to host a full field of avid golfers eager to experience a championship-quality event. There is a nominal fee for the golfer, which includes green fees, prizes, food and fun.

For more information visit: mngolf.org/MemberDays.

INFORMATIONAL MEETINGS/ EDUCATIONAL SEMINARS

Informational meetings provide an opportunity for golf course officials and MGA members to meet and discuss various topics with MGA staff and directors as well as provide great networking opportunities for those attending. The purpose of these meetings is to educate attendees along with enhancing communication between the MGA, member clubs and individual members. Meetings are held throughout the state each year, providing local club officials the opportunity to meet and discuss how the MGA is serving the needs of local clubs and members and to discuss issues that are specific to the local area.

VOLUNTEERING

More than 300 volunteers dedicate their time and talent to work on a number of different MGA committees making possible all the programs and services that make the game of golf better in Minnesota. MGA Volunteers help to conduct MGA championships and qualifiers, USGA qualifiers, allied association events and the MGA junior golf program. Volunteers participate in a variety of roles and are vital to the overall success of the MGA.

Annually, the MGA celebrates active volunteers with a brunch and special day of golf at the MGA Appreciation Day.

If you would like to join the MGA Volunteer family, visit: mngolf.org/Volunteers.

RULES OF GOLF

The MGA coordinates and conducts sanctioned Rules of Golf workshops throughout Minnesota that are open to the public.

For a complete schedule of Rules education, visit: mngolf.org/Rules_of_Golf.

The MGA office also monitors a “rules hotline” to answer questions on the Rules of Golf during the evenings and weekends as an additional benefit to MGA member clubs, 1-800-642-4405, ext. 965 or 952-345-3965.

SENIOR TOUR

In 1996, the MGA Senior Tour began as a series of 18-hole events to provide senior golfers of all playing abilities an opportunity to participate in competitive MGA events. Over 700 senior players participated statewide in 2022. The program is eligible to golfers with an active MGA membership meeting the age requirement of 55 years and older for men, and 50 years and older for women.

There are six sections each with their own schedule of events along with additional All Section events. Net and Gross competitions are offered at each event including divisional age categories (Senior and Master). A Super Senior section is available for men, 70 years and older, featuring shorter tees, and the newest section, the Gross section, is for men looking for gross only competition with longer tees.

For more information visit: mngolf.org/SeniorTour.

TOURISM

Golf-related tourism is an important industry and vital to the state's economic engine.

The golf industry accounts for more than $480 million annually in golf-related revenues.

The MGA supports golf tourism efforts through its joint partnership with the Explore Minnesota Golf Alliance and Explore Minnesota Tourism. The MGA's website, mngolf.org, provides a search engine of member club information enabling locals and out-of-towners to quickly access information ranging from phone numbers, green fees and directions to yardage, par, slope and course ratings™ for all MGA member clubs.

USGA LIAISON

The MGA, as the central handicap authority for Minnesota and an authorized golf association, is designated by the USGA to administer and implement the Handicap System™ License Program. In addition, the MGA monitors national issues of importance to member clubs, processes amateur status reinstatement applications, and conducts qualifying competitions for all USGA championships.

The MGA offers Informational Meetings and Educational Seminars throughout the year providing an opportunity for golf course officials and MGA members to meet and discuss various topics with MGA staff and directors.

Schneider received the MGA Warren J. Rebholz Distinguished Service Award at the 2022 MGA Annual Meeting for her substantial contribution to the game over the years.

MGA AWARDS

MGA CLUB OF THE YEAR

Burl Oaks Golf Club is the 2022 MGA Member Club of the Year in recognition of the facility's support of the MGA Associate Member program and willingness to host MGA championships and qualifiers.

The club receives a plaque and is featured in the 2023 Directory issue of Minnesota Golfer, the official publication of the MGA.

The Burl Oaks Golf Club has its origins in 1970 when Russ Wenkstern, a Tonka Toys executive with a passion for golf began construction of a nine-hole semi-private golf course on a 200-acre parcel of wetlands and forest in Minnetrista. Wenkstern added an additional nine holes in 1973, and six years later the course changed ownership when it was purchased as a member-owned private golf club. In 1991, the members built a new $1.2 million clubhouse on a rise overlooking the layout. Less than a decade later, a master plan was developed which called for a redesign of nine holes, major bunker, green and tee renovations, better drainage and a more-challenging routing that brought additional water obstacles into play. In 2006, the practice facilities were expanded and improved, and a major bunker renovation was completed in 2015.

Since the early 1980s, Burl Oaks has hosted numerous amateur championships and qualifiers including a dozen MGA Senior Tour and Member Days, five USGA qualifiers, three MGA Senior Amateurs, the Minnesota State Junior Boys' and Junior Girls' Championships, and most recently, the 2022 MGA Women's Match Play and Players' championships (men's match play). In the former, Taylor Ledwein defeated Leah Skaar, 1 up, and in the latter, Cecil Belisle defeated Ryan Conn, 5 and 4.

Currently, Burl Oak's actively supports the MGA's non-profit mission through its MGA Associate Member program (470 active members) using the GHIN service.

MGA GILES KOBILKA AWARD

More than 300 volunteers dedicate their time and talent to make it possible for the MGA to provide all the programs and services that make the game of golf better in Minnesota. Volunteer assignments range from working at MGA events and on committees to acting as a liaison with member clubs through the MGA Ambassador Program.

In 1999, the MGA started a Volunteer of the Year Award recognizing volunteers annually who showed exceptional commitment to the MGA and amateur golf, through volunteering efforts, such as the number of days and hours worked, ability, willingness to do required assignments, initiative, and attitude.

This award has since evolved into the MGA Giles Kobilka Award.

Named in honor of a longtime MGA volunteer, the MGA Giles Kobilka Award recognizes those individuals whose dedication and outstanding accomplishments have made an important contribution to the amateur game of golf in Minnesota. It is awarded to an MGA volunteer whose career includes not only several years of service volunteering with the association, but also includes exceptional and meritorious contributions aligned with the mission of the MGA.

Giles Kobilka, gave over 49 years of service to the MGA and was highly regarded by volunteers and competitors alike not only for his personable nature, but also for his unwavering commitment to the volunteer ethos.

Dick Goodspeed is the 2022 MGA Giles Kobilka Award recipient.

Goodspeed, 88, of Mendota Heights, has been actively involved with the MGA for more than two decades. After retiring from a career with 3M in 1996, Goodspeed began his second career as an MGA volunteer in 1998. During that time he served on the MGA Board of Directors, from 2008 to 2014, and would ultimately spend 22 seasons as an MGA tournament volunteer, contributing more than 125 volunteer hours on an annual basis. While his primary roles were that of a starter and rules official, he has also frequently served as a site captain for MGA Amateur and MGA Players' (match play) qualifiers around the state. For his efforts he was awarded the MGA President's Award as the MGA Volunteer of the Year in 2005.

MGA FRITZ CORRIGAN EVANS SCHOLAR OF THE YEAR

The MGA Fritz Corrigan Evans Scholar of the Year Award is bestowed annually to the Evans Scholar from the University of Minnesota chapter house for outstanding achievement in academics, leadership and community service.

University of Minnesota Evans Scholars Chapter House President Josie Larson was named the 2022 Minnesota Golf Association's Fritz Corrigan Evans Scholar of the Year.

Larson, 21, of Little Canada, is a senior at the University of Minnesota majoring in mathematics, with a minor in statistics. She carried a perfect 4.0 GPA for five of the past six semesters. Larson caddied at Midland Hills Country Club in Roseville before establishing an outstanding record of leadership within the Evans Scholars program. She has participated in annual blood drives, volunteered at Feed My Starving Children and mentored fellow scholars in mathematics and statistics. In 2022, Larson was elected president of the Minnesota Evans Scholars Chapter, and this past summer, completed a 10-week internship with the Travelers Insurance Company in St. Paul. She plans a career in actuarial science following graduation next spring.

THE WARREN J. REBHOLZ DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

The Warren J. Rebholz Distinguished Service Award was established in 1994 to honor individuals who, through their actions, have exemplified the spirit of the game at its highest level and who have made a substantial contribution to the game in Minnesota, or on a national or international level. Individuals may come from any golf-related area or discipline.

The award is named in honor of Warren Rebholz, the longtime MGA executive director (1972-1992) and former "Commish" of the popular MGA Senior Tour.

Cheryl B. Schneider is the 2022 Warren J. Rebholz Distinguished Service Award winner.

Neither the numerous caddie-scholar graduates of the University of Minnesota Evans Scholars chapter house, nor the members, guests and tournament spectators who have walked the grounds of Hazeltine National Golf Club (HNGC) would be surprised by the MGA bestowing her with its highest service honor, the MGA Warren J. Rebholz Distinguished Service Award.

As chair of HNGC's Equal Access committee in the mid-1980s, Schneider was instrumental in enabling women membership status equal to their male counterparts. This not only expanded equity access for women at HNGC, but also positively impacted access for women at many golf clubs in the Twin Cities and beyond. Schneider would work diligently behind the scenes on every major golf tournament that visited HNGC, from the 1983 U.S. Senior Open to the 2016 Ryder Cup Matches. During that time, she would become the first female chair of HNGC's golf committee and eventually the first woman elected president of the club in 1992-1993.

Since 1991 when her time on the MGA Board of Directors expired, she has remained an active alumni director serving on the Centennial Gala Committee, on the Evans Scholar Committee, on the MGA Merger Committee (with the MWGA and MWPGA), and she has been a steadfast tournament volunteer to the present day.

2022 MGA Fritz Corrigan Evans Scholar Award recipient, Josie Larson

2022 MGA Warren J. Rebholz Distinguished Service Award recipient, Cheryl B. Schneider

In 2003, Cheryl was elected a director of the Western Golf Association whose Evans Scholars Program has been the beneficiary of her prodigious energy and can-do spirit. She has participated on the Evans Caddie Committee, served on the 1916-2016 Chick Evans Century Gala Committee, and continues to serve as general chair of the annual Chick Evans 7 Club Fundraiser (2004 to present).

In the words of one of Cheryl's nominating recommendations, "she has been a volunteer for the game of golf" for nearly four decades, and truly embodies the spirit of the Warren J. Rebholz Distinguished Service Award.

MGA-PGA MINNESOTA GOLF HALL OF FAME

The MGA-PGA Minnesota Golf Hall of Fame was established in 1987 to recognize Minnesotans for their outstanding contributions to the game of golf. A task force meets annually to review nominations. The MGA-PGA Minnesota Golf Hall of Fame is housed at Bunker Hills Golf Club in Coon Rapids and is operated and supported by the Minnesota Golf Association and the Minnesota Section of the Professional Golfers' Association of America.

There were no inductees in 2022.

MS. & MR. MINNESOTA GOLF

The annual Ms. & Mr. Minnesota Golf Award was created in 2016 to recognize the outstanding male and female high school senior golfer based on their performance on the golf course, academic achievement and strength of character. Finalists are chosen by a committee of high school coaches and amateur golf representatives. The awards are announced and presented at a banquet in June of each year. All nominees and their families are invited to attend.

Isabella McCauley and Nate Stevens,

Minnesota's top-ranked high school golfers, were named 2022 Ms. and Mr. Minnesota Golf.

McCauley, Simley High School and University of Minnesota commit, medaled at 10 events and never finished worse than second during the 2022 regular high school season.

Shooting over par at just two events in the 2022 regular high school season, Stevens, Northfield High School and Notre Dame University commit, finished on top of the leaderboard on 11 occasions.

NATIONAL AWARDS

USGA JOE DEY AWARD

The Dey award is given in recognition of an individual's meritorious service to the game as a volunteer, and it is named for Joseph C. Dey, Jr., who served on the USGA's executive director from 1934 to 1969, and who was later inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1975.

The United States Golf Association awarded Ede Rice with the 2022 Joe Dey Award, June 15, 2022 at the Harvard Club in Boston, Mass.

Rice, a member of Edina and Woodhill Country Clubs, is the president of the Minnesota Golf Association. She was the first woman elected as a director in 1994, and has been an active board member from the beginning, including serving in numerous committees, as a rules volunteer and ultimately being recognized with the Warren J. Rebholz Distinguished Service Award, the MGA's highest honor. She is a past president of the Minnesota Women's Golf Association and was instrumental in guiding that association's merger with the Minnesota Golf Association in 2017.

Certified as a Rules of Golf expert, Rice has volunteered at more than 39 USGA championships, including the men's and women's U.S. Open and U.S. Senior Open, U.S. Amateur and U. S. Senior Amateur championships, and two Curtis Cups. She has served on numerous USGA committees including the Women's Committee, 2006-2010, the Senior Women's Championship Committee, 2008-2011, the Joe Dey Award Committee, 2016-2019, and the Regional Affairs Committee, 2012 to present. Rice was General Chair of the 4th USGA Women' State Team Championship contested at Woodhill Country Club in 2001, and later served as Minnesota's women's team captain at the 5th USGA State Team Championship in 2003.

As a passionate advocate for the caddie scholars at the University of Minnesota Evans Scholars Chapter House, Rice has had an impact on virtually every Evans scholar for the past 25 years. She became an WGA director in 1995 and was the first woman elected to the WGA Board of Governors in 2010. Typical of Rice's commitment to the program, she assumed numerous leadership roles within the Minnesota chapter, including serving as State Chair from 2010 to 2016. She played a key role in the building of the new U of M Scholarship House in 2003, which enabled for the first time a coeducational setting for deserving young women and men caddies under one roof and into a home for all Minnesota Evans Scholars.

In 2021, Rice was awarded the WGA's Donald D. Johnson Lifetime Achievement Award, in recognition of her exceptional commitment, dedication and devotion to the WGA and the Evans Scholarship Program.

John Brellenthin, The Minikahda Club, from the greenside bunker at the par-5 first playoff hole during the 2022 MGA Senior Amateur Four-Ball Championship, at The Jewel Golf Club. Brellenthin and partner Tim Peterson finished tied for the lead at 4-under par 69-69-138 and won the championship with a birdie on the second playoff hole. Brellenthin would go on to win the 2022 MGA Senior Player of the Year Award.

MEN'S

Caleb VanArragon

VanArragon, 21, of Blaine, is a member of Bunker Hills Golf Club in Coon Rapids. He missed finishing in first place twice this season, and by the same margin – 1 stroke, at the Minnesota State Open, where he earned low-amateur honors, and at the MPGA Public Links Championship. VanArragon reached the semi-final round at the MGA Players' Championship, before losing to Ryan Conn, 1 down, at Burl Oaks GC, and he tied for 13th place at the MGA Amateur Championship at Olympic Hills GC in Eden Prairie.

This is VanArragon's first MGA Player of the Year honor, and his second title overall.

John Brellenthin

Brellenthin, 58, of Minnetonka, is a member of The Minikahda Club in Minneapolis. He birdied the second playoff hole to win the MGA Senior Four-Ball Championship with partner, and 2021 MGA Senior Men's Player of the Year, Tim Peterson. He finished runner-up in the MGA Senior Players' Championship where he played against fellow Minikahda Club member, Pat Smith, in the final match. Brellenthin finished in fourth place at the MGA Senior Amateur Championship, the tournament he won on his home course in 2021, and finished as the low senior in the Minnesota State Open.

This is Brellenthin's first MGA Senior Player of the Year honor, and his second title overall.

JUNIOR BOYS'

Sam Udovich

Udovich, 15, of Inver Grove Heights, is a member of Southview Country Club in St. Paul. He won the individual title at the MSHSL Class AA Boys' State Tournament at Ridges at Sand Creek in Jordan. Udovich finished tied for ninth place at the MGA Amateur Championship at Olympic Hills GC in Eden Prairie, and qualified for the U.S. Junior Amateur at Bandon Dunes Golf Resort in Bandon, Ore.

This is Udovich's first MGA Junior Boys' Player of the Year honor.

WOMEN'S

Taylor Ledwein

Ledwein, 25, of New Prague, is a member of New Prague Golf Club. She earned two first-place finishes this year, carding a 3-under-par 68 and the low round of the championship at the MGA Women's Amateur at Rochester G&CC; and she defeated Leah Skaar on the 18th hole to claim the MGA Women's Match Play Championship at Burl Oaks GC. Ledwein qualified for the match-play portion of the U.S. Women's Amateur and advanced to the round of 32 at Chambers Bay in University Place, Wash. She also qualified with partner Megan Welch for the U.S. Women's Amateur Four-Ball for the second consecutive year.

This is Ledwein's second MGA Women's Player of the Year honor.

SENIOR WOMEN'S

Leigh Klasse

Klasse, 63, of Cumberland, Wis., is a member of the University Golf Club in Falcon Heights. She won the MGA Women's Senior Amateur Championship and finished runner-up in both the MGA Women's Mid-Amateur and the MGA Women's Senior Four-Ball championships, the latter with partner Lynn Anderson. Klasse, with partner JT Johnson, was the senior division champion at the MGA Mixed Amateur Team Championship, she reached the semi-final round of the MGA Women's Senior Amateur Match Play, and she also qualified for the match-play portion of the U.S. Senior Women's Amateur Championship at Anchorage Golf Course in Anchorage, Alaska.

This is Klasse's 11th MGA Senior Women's Player of the Year honor, and her 15th title overall.

JUNIOR GIRLS'

Kathryn VanArragon

VanArragon, 17, of Blaine, is a member of Minnesota Youth on Course. She won the MSHSL Class AAA Girls' State Tournament individual title for a second time at Bunker Hills, while tying the tournament record-low score of 9-under par. VanArragon also won the Minnesota Girls' Junior PGA Championship, her second consecutive win in this event, and she earned two second-place finishes at the MGA Women's Amateur Championship and the Minnesota Women's State Open, hosted by Rochester G&CC and Rush Creek GC, respectively.

This is VanArragon's third MGA Junior Girls' Player of the Year honor.

Professionals End MGA's Streak at Cup Matches

By Nick Hunter (May 24, 2022)

STILLWATER, Minn. – Falling to the amateurs from the Minnesota Golf Association at seven consecutive MGA/PGA Cup Matches, the professionals from the Minnesota PGA turned the tables with a commanding 27.5–12.5 performance at StoneRidge Golf Club.

The win for the Minnesota PGA is the first since a 22-18 victory in 2013 at Indian Hills Country Club, extending its overall advantage at the championship to 28-15-2.

The twosome of Jeff Sorenson and Derek Stendahl were the first to put points on the board for the Minnesota PGA, sweeping all four possible points from the team of Jesse Larson and Joel B. Johnson.

Sorenson, a teaching professional at The Minikahda Club, and Stendahl, the general manager at Rush Creek Golf Club, won six consecutive holes early during their four-ball match with Larson and Johnson and never looked back, cruising to the victory, 7 and 5.

"You don't want to come out and lose," Stendahl joked afterwards. "I think [Minnesota PGA tournament director Tone Pulido] was ready to break the streak, so it's exciting to get a couple on the board for us. Jeff made a good par on one and then we birdied the next six holes. He made a couple; I made a couple and the next thing we knew we were up six."

"We were rolling the putts really good," Sorenson said after his round. "The greens were so pure, obviously, we were reading them pretty good."

A welcome change of fortune for the Minnesota PGA came from the team of Kellie Hoiness and Kristi Meyer, who claimed all four points against the twosome of former University of Minnesota golfer Paige McCullough and former University of Wisconsin-Stout golfer Rachel Hernandez, the largest output of points by a female team of the Minnesota PGA since 2010.

The performance by Hoiness, the director of golf at Oak Ridge Country Club, and Meyer, a teaching pro at Rochester Golf and Country Club, also marked the first time a female has secured points for the PGA since Angie Ause defeated amateur Leigh Klasse during her singles match in 2017. Since 2013, ladies from the Minnesota PGA combined for a total of two and a half points.

"As a female team, we always get a bad rap for not putting up points, so I think we squashed that today," said Meyer.

With each team winning a hole through five during their four-ball match, Hoiness and Meyer won the next seven holes to take a sizable lead after 12 holes. McCullough and Hernandez tried to claw back into the match by winning the 14th, but Hoiness and Meyer slammed the door by winning the 18th to secure the victory, 7 and 6, and added an extra two points with their respective wins in singles.

"We were great teammates today," Hoiness said. "We played good when the other was out of the hole."

Former Gopher golfer Thomas Campbell and partner Johnny Schwaller helped the Minnesota PGA's cause by sweeping all four points from 2021 MGA Four-Ball champions Matthew Norgaard and Nick Jarrett.

The MGA team before the 45th Annual MGA/PGA Cup Matches at StoneRidge GC on Tuesday, May 24th. The MGA team was defeated by the Minnesota Section of the PGA by a score of 27 ½-12 ½.

Newly crowned Twin Cities Open champion Andy Smith paired with Scott McDonald to down the team of Justin Burleson and Geoff Klein to contribute four points for the Minnesota PGA, as did the twosome of Don Berry and Mike Barge.

A bright spot for the amateurs was the twosome of Taylor Ledwein and Jacqueline Santopietro, who defeated professionals Savannah Smith and Catherine Wagner, 5 and 4, during their four-ball match and swept the singles matches to earn four points for the MGA.

"I think I hit every fairway we played, so I hit the driver really well," said Ledwein, who won the 2021 MGA Women's Amateur Four-Ball Championship with partner Megan Welch. "Didn't putt very well and didn't get many to drop, but it was a fun day with a good group and the course was great. Some very tough pins, but I was happy to pull out some points for our team."

Teammates Ryan Conn and Paul Meyer managed three and a half points during their respective matches against professionals Grant Shafranski and Eddie Wynne as Conn chipped in for birdie on the final hole to squeeze out a half point in his singles match.

Dean and Peterson Edge Anderson and Klasse at MGA Women's Senior Four-Ball

By Nick Hunter (June 6, 2022)

PEQUOT LAKES, Minn. – In perfect partner fashion, Adele Peterson began the final round of the 2022 Minnesota Golf Association Women's Senior Amateur Four-Ball Championship with a pair of birdies during her front nine, while Christine Dean hit the shot of the tournament on the final hole to help the twosome secure a two-stroke victory at Whitefish Golf Club.

Dean and Peterson shared the opening-round lead with four-time champions Lynn Anderson and Leigh Klasse after both teams posted an even par 72 during the opening round, but Dean and Peterson surged on the final day, firing a 3-under 69 to claim the win.

"I don't want to use the word bookend because it's not over yet, but to win as a junior and then 35 years later as a senior is pretty incredible," said Dean, whose last MGA victory came in 1987 at the Minnesota State Junior Girls' Championship at Tartan Park Golf Club.

"I've never won a team event before—it's so much fun," Peterson said. "I told [Christine] we need to play with some heart on the last three holes, then I didn't play with much heart on the last hole, but she came through."

Dean and Peterson birdied the final hole of the opening round before Peterson kicked off the scoring on the opening hole of the final round, rolling in her birdie opportunity from eight feet to take the outright lead at 1-under.

Sinking her putt from eight feet at the fifth, Dean put her team at 2-under and Peterson would counter by sinking at 15-footer for birdie at the sixth to put her team up by three shots at 3-under for the tournament.

Climbing back into contention with birdies at the eighth and ninth, Anderson and Klasse moved within one shot of the lead before Peterson's birdie putt from 12 feet fell at the par-3 12th to get to 4-under. Dean and Peterson's lead shrunk to one with their second bogey of the championship at the 13th.

Following an Anderson-Klasse bogey at the 17th, Dean and Peterson again took a two-stroke lead before Dean's second found the left rough at the par-5 18th. With Peterson staring down at least bogey on 18, Dean breathed a sigh of relief after she feathered a low punch shot that rolled onto the green and stopped inside of 10 feet.

"I had a branch in front of me and had to hit it low. That was one of my best shots ever," said Dean, who two-putted for par on the final hole to close out the championship.

The win for the former LPGA Tour player Peterson is her second state win after she claimed the 2020 MGA Women's Senior Amateur at Woodhill Country Club.

Continued

"Today's round was a lot more fun," Peterson said. "We were dropping more putts today."

"The biggest key was just hanging in there. I started out on the range today not hitting the ball well, but there's been so many times where I've played good after hitting the ball bad on the range."

Dean and Peterson joined forces for the first time last season, posting back-to-back rounds of 73 at Burl Oaks Golf Club to finish two shots back in fourth place.

Anderson and Klasse posted a 1-under 71 to finish in second place by two strokes. The two combined for four consecutive wins at the event beginning in 2015.

Betsy Aldrich and Barbara Miller, winners in 2020, carded a final-round 74 to place third at 5-over 149.

Following their opening-round 71, Sally Deyak and Lynnnda Scott posted an even par 72 in the final round to claim a four-stroke victory over Mary Flynn and Lili McMillan in the First Flight.

In the Second Flight, Colleen Boerboom and Joan Frie bettered their opening-round score by five strokes, carding a 2-over 74 to edge Debbie Enger and Joan Hasskamp for a one-stroke victory at 9-over 153.

A round of 78 helped the twosome of Theresa Dehn and Beth Ripley to a one-stroke victory in the Third Flight, edging the team of Robin Goetz and Tracy Reilly at 14-over 158.

Melanie Jaeb and Emi Sako combined to shoot a final-round 78 to earn a one-stroke victory in the Fourth Flight, defeating the twosome of Jill Fedo and Kay Rasmusson and the pairing of Karla Ryshavy and Mary Williams at 20-over 164.

A final-round 79 helped the team of Janice Barstad and Jeri Meola to a five-stroke victory in the Fifth Flight, while Deb Hockett and Terri Knutson earned top honors in the Sixth Flight, shooting a 36-over 180 to claim a one-stroke victory.

MGA MID-PLAYERS' Championship

Format: All Championship players are guaranteed three matches. The first three matches are a "round robin" format within a "pool" of players determined by seedings. Each match will be worth one (1) point for a win or a half (½) point for a tie. The players with the most points from each pool will advance to the round of 8, with the championship transitioning to single-elimination match play at that time. In the event there is a tie following pool play, there will be a hole-by-hole playoff to determine who will advance.

Eligibility: Must be 30 years of age by the first day of the championship and qualify or have an exemption.

Handicap Limit: 6.4 at the time of entry.

- A. 2022 MGA Mid-Players' Champion
- B. 2022 MGA Player Point List – The 6 highest ranking players to enter from the prior season's Men's Regular Points list, excluding the Defending Champion.
- C. MGA Mid-Amateur Champions from the last two years.
- D. Host Club Exemption (1)

Hanstad a Winner Again, Downs Conn for MGA Mid-Players' Title

By Nick Hunter (June 15, 2022)

LAKE ELMO, Minn. – Carding five birdies during his first nine holes at Royal Golf Club was more than enough to help Bryce Hanstad claim his first victory in 14 years, defeating Ryan Conn, 5 and 4, to claim the 16th Minnesota Golf Association Mid-Players' Championship.

"It's been 15 years [since my MGA Amateur win], so this win feels really good," Hanstad said. "My game has really come around in the last four or five years. I found some interest in the game again and put some more effort towards it, so it's good to see some fruits of that labor."

"The putts just started falling. Rolling in a birdie at [No. 2] and seeing something drop was helpful. I feel like I was under reading greens all week and tried to make an adjustment. Wish it hadn't taken so long."

During the final match, Hanstad struck first by sinking a 4-footer for birdie at the second to take the early lead and extended his lead after a three-putt bogey by Conn at the fourth. He extended his lead to three when he dropped his birdie look from 10 feet at the sixth and took command of the match when he sank a 20-foot bender from the fringe for birdie at the seventh to go up by four.

Missing the ninth left, Hanstad pitched his third inside of four feet and converted his birdie to turn with a commanding 5-up lead. A bogey by Conn at the 10th extended Hanstad's lead, but Conn would card his second birdie of the round at the 11th.

Hanstad and Conn halved the par-4 14th to give Hanstad the victory, 5 and 4.

"I feel like drove the ball well. I didn't get in much trouble or give many holes away, so I didn't put a ton of stress on myself," he said. "Ball striking was definitely improved over where I felt a couple weeks ago."

Hanstad began with week with a slim, 1-up, victory over Joel B. Johnson before defeating Jeff Stebbins, 5 and 4, during the second round of pool play. He advanced to the quarterfinal round with a conceded victory over Will Hickey.

He would then knock out two fellow MGA Amateur champions, Dave Carothers, 2 and 1, during the quarterfinals and then 2008 champion and two-time MGA Mid-Players' champion Trent Peterson in 21 holes to reach the final match against Conn.

"It was hard to have a thought process ahead of the final match—it was a 15-minute turnaround from the playoff with Trent," the 35-year-old Hanstad said. "You get a little numb at the end of the week, in a good way, to kind of free you up a bit."

Smith Defeats Brellenthin at MGA Senior Players' Championship for First State Victory

By Nick Hunter (June 15, 2022)

LAKE ELMO, Minn. – A pair of early bogeys put Pat Smith behind in the final match of the 23rd Minnesota Golf Association Senior Players' Championship at Royal Golf Club, but Smith charged back with two consecutive birdies to recapture the lead on his way to victory over John Brellenthin for his first state championship win.

Smith made an improbable comeback earlier in the day, holing out for eagle on the final hole of his semifinal match against 2020 champion Jay Gregory to force a playoff, where he would prevail with a par on the first playoff hole.

Birdies at the fifth and sixth holes during the finals against Brellenthin put Smith back in front with the only lead he would need, closing out the match on the 17th hole with a birdie to defeat the defending MGA Senior Amateur champion, 3 and 1.

"First win in the MGA, so I'm really excited," Smith said following his win. "I plan on playing some more competitive golf; my schedule is finally allowing me to do that."

"I drove the ball well and putted pretty well this week—those two things probably saved me."

Wedging his approach to 12 feet at the fifth, Smith again drew even by sinking his birdie chance and rolled in another from 15 feet on the following hole to take the lead for good.

Smith watched as Brellenthin rolled in a 20-footer for birdie at the 10th and countered by sinking his 18-footer for birdie maintain a slim, 1-up lead.

"Those two early birdies definitely turned the tide, but the biggest swing was on 10 when I made my birdie on top of his," Smith said. "I was able to keep my lead and then extend it over the next few holes."

Back-to-back bogeys by Brellenthin at the 11th and 12th put Smith up by three, but Brellenthin revived his chances by winning the 13th with a par. Up by two with two to play, Smith birdied the par-5 17th to finish off the championship for his first state win.

"I've played with John previously at a couple of social events, but playing him today, I figured I'd have to be at even par or a couple under," said Smith, a fellow member of The Minikahda Club along with Brellenthin.

"He made a few mistakes that he doesn't normally make, and I was fortunate to benefit from those."

Opening the pool play portion of the championship, Smith defeated Tim O'Neil, 5 and 3, before taking down the defending MGA Senior Men's Player of the Year Tim Peterson, 4 and 3.

Advancing from his pool undefeated following his third win of the week over Ron Eskierka, 5 and 4, Smith cruised through the quarterfinal round with a victory over Bruce Hegland, 5 and 4.

Posting a perfect 3-0 record during pool play this week, Brellenthin edged 2016 MGA Senior Men's Player of the Year John Anderson during the quarterfinal round. He got the better of David Anderson by carding two birdies against one bogey to advance to the championship match, 5 and 4.

Belisle Wins Rare Rematch, Defeats Conn Once Again at MGA Players' Championship

By Nick Hunter (June 22, 2022)

MINNETRISTA, Minn. – Never in the 44-year history of the Minnesota Golf Association Players' Championship have two players met for a second time during the championship match.

Cecil Belisle cruised to victory over Ryan Conn, 5 and 4, in 2020 at Hastings Golf Club, and in a moment of déjà vu at Burl Oaks Golf Club, Belisle emerged victorious over Conn once again by the same margin.

"That was just a coincidence," Belisle smiled following his win. "It was meant to happen because I'm holding the trophy, but what happened in the past is in the past."

"I played solid, especially the final round—no bogeys. Ryan started off hot and had a couple mistakes here and there. I was steady, focused and determined. In match play, it's grind-mode. I grind when I practice; I grind when I work out and I grind in school. That's what this tournament is and why I think I do well."

Beginning the championship match on the 10th hole, a patient Belisle took advantage of back-to-back bogeys by Conn at the 14th and 15th holes to take a 2-up lead before a third bogey by Conn at the 17th.

Conn rolled in a critical birdie putt from 18 feet at the par-4 18th to pull within two of Belisle through nine holes.

But an unrelenting Belisle continued to get up-and-down for par and smother any momentum Conn could muster.

Back-to-back bogeys for Conn at the second and third gave Belisle a 4-up lead and the 2019 MGA Junior Boys' Co-Player of the Year would claim his second Players' Championship win by sinking his birdie chance from four feet at the fifth to win, 5 and 4.

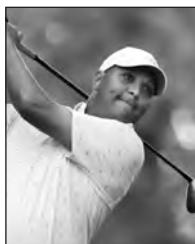

Walking six rounds in three days in high temperatures took its toll on the 21-year-old Belisle, and his foot, this week.

"I'm proud of how I stayed in the moment," he said. "It didn't matter how much my foot hurt, I don't know what's wrong with it, but it hurts. Not letting that, or the blisters get to you. Ignoring that and keeping it steady—the want and the will."

This result marks yet another close call for the soon-to-be 40-year-old Conn, whose only state victory came at the 2019 MGA Amateur Four-Ball Championship with partner Hunter Rebrovich at The Classic at Madden's.

"Another good week," Conn said following the final match. "I'm a mid-am golfer and Cecil is just better. I played great this morning—I was 4-under and played all 18 holes and that was the kind of round I needed again this afternoon. Instead, I was 2-over."

"Against good players, on the days you make mistakes, they're going to cost you. I didn't get on the green fast enough today and didn't apply enough pressure when I needed to throughout the day. I usually win matches by not making mistakes, so it's a little disappointing to make a couple and lose today."

Since his win in 2019, Conn has accumulated nine top-5 finishes.

Conn opened the championship with a win over Max Ullen, 3 and 2, before cruising during his Round of 32 match against Lucas Ferterl, carding eight birdies over his first nine holes. Conn edged Casey Nelson, 1-up, to reach the quarterfinal round where he would defeat Josh Galvin, 5 and 4.

Conn jumped out to a big lead early against defending Twin Cities champion Caleb VanArragon, up by four through six holes, but had to hold off a surging VanArragon to reach the finals for a second time in three seasons with his win, 1-up.

"I give myself a lot of credit—I turn 40 next week," said Conn. "I started playing a lot of competitive golf in 2018 and won [the MGA Amateur Four-Ball] in 2019 and I've had a ton of great finishes. I've been high in the points for three or four years running, so the consistency is there."

"This is what it takes to win in golf. You have to be in the hunt a lot because only one person wins."

MGA WOMEN'S AMATEUR MATCH PLAY Championship

Format: Players in the Open Division will play an 18-hole qualifying round the morning of the first day, to establish the Championship and flight brackets. The top fifteen (15) players from the qualifying round will join the Defending Champion (who will be seeded #1 if entered) to complete the Championship Flight. Any tie for the 15th and final spot will be played off on the course on a hole-by-hole basis.

If the Defending Champion is not entered, the top 16 players will advance to the Championship Flight. All other players will be assigned to a flight (of 8) based on qualifying score. Ties for the final spot in a flight and/or seeding positions will be broken by using a score card playoff following the USGA recommended procedure.

Eligibility: Entries are open to any female amateur golfer, who is currently an Associate Member of the MGA. There are no age or Handicap limit requirements for this tournament.

Ledwein Escapes Late Push by Skaar at MGA Women's Match Play

By Nick Hunter (June 23, 2022)

MINNETRISTA, Minn. – Surviving a late charge by North Dakota State University golfer Leah Skaar at Burl Oaks Golf Club, Taylor Ledwein hit the shot of the tournament from a bunker on the final hole to claim her second Minnesota Golf Association Women's Amateur Match Play title.

Ledwein built a 4-up lead through 11 holes but needed a critical up-and-down at the 18th to preserve her victory, 1-up, for her first individual title since the 2018 championship.

"This means a lot because I showed myself that I can still compete," 24-year-old Ledwein said following her win. "I feel like I'm almost at the top of my game. Because I don't have as much time as I did, my practices are purposeful now and what I'm doing is getting the job done. It feels great."

Skaar grabbed the first lead of the match at the par-3 after Ledwein missed a 6-footer for par. Ledwein countered by sinking birdies at both the fourth and fifth holes to go up by one.

Trouble for Skaar began at the par-4 sixth where she would card three bogeys over her next four holes to trail Ledwein by four with nine holes to play.

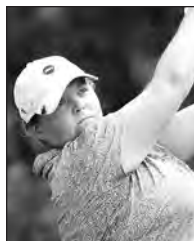

Skaar began to build momentum by rolling in her birdie putt from 10 feet at the 10th, and though Ledwein would match her with a birdie of her own at the 11th, Skaar played her final nine holes in 1-under par.

A three-putt bogey by Ledwein at the par-4 14th trimmed her lead once again to three before the former Bradley University golfer went out of bounds with her approach at the 16th, conceding the hole to Skaar, who moved within two.

Following a three-putt bogey by Ledwein at the 17th, Skaar dropped her par putt from four feet to pull within one of Ledwein heading to the final hole. After both players found the water off the tee, Ledwein's third came to rest in a greenside bunker, short of the 18th green, where she would hit out to within two feet and hold on for the victory, 1-up.

"In those circumstances that was one of the best bunker shots I've ever hit," Ledwein said.

"My goal was to hit fairways and greens and force [Skaar] to make birdies to either win or tie the hole. I was always expecting her to make her putts, because that's what you have to do in match play."

When her struggles began late during her back nine, Ledwein admittedly had flashbacks to the 2020 Minnesota Women's State Open, where she squandered a seven-stroke lead through 11 holes at The Jewel Golf Club, falling to Kathryn VanArragon by one shot.

"I need to find a better way to relax and just hit the shot when I'm up like that. Be more in the present and know that nothing else matters," Ledwein said. "As much as you say I'm over it or that it's not going to happen again—once you've done it and start doing it again, it's hard not to think, 'Why can't I finish?'"

The finish marks Skaar's best finish at a state championship since she placed third at the Minnesota

State Junior Girls' Championship in 2019 at Valleywood Golf Course. The 20-year-old Skaar improved on her performance from a year ago where she won two matches before falling during the quarterfinal round at Dellwood Country Club.

"I wanted to keep playing the way I had been and not put too much pressure on myself," Skaar said after the final match. "Hoping to compete with someone who has a really good record. I don't have a lot of match play experience, so I think the work I've put in on my chipping and putting really paid off."

"I thought I finished pretty strong and had some birdies after things got a little shaky. I was focusing on hitting good shots and getting looks at birdie. I got up-and-down and made some good par saves. The match could've been over at 15 if I didn't make my par putt."

Peterson Wins Third State Title, Defeats Williams at MGA Women's Senior Match Play

By Nick Hunter (June 26, 2022)

BECKER, Minn. – Riding momentum from her victory at the Minnesota Golf Association Women's Senior Amateur Four-Ball Championship with partner Christine Dean earlier in the year, Adele Peterson defeated Brenda Williams at Pebble Creek Golf Club to claim the 2022 MGA Women's Senior Amateur Match Play Championship.

Peterson built a big lead early over Brenda Williams during the championship match and held on to win, 6 and 5, to collect her third state victory over the past three seasons.

"This is awesome—I haven't won a match play event since I was an amateur at the [Oklahoma Golf Association State Junior Golf Championship]," Peterson said following her win.

"I was driving the ball well this week, which helps. Driving is usually one of my strengths and playing shorter courses is an advantage for me."

Back-to-back bogeys by Williams at the second and third holes to begin the final match led to a quick lead for Peterson, who would then sink a 15-footer for birdie at the par-5 fifth hole to increase her lead to three.

Winning three of the final four holes with par to close out the front nine, Peterson was in full control of the final match, but Williams would win the 12th to pull within five.

Needing to win the 14th to keep the match alive, Williams did just that with a par to trim the lead to four, but the two would halve the par-4 15th, giving Peterson her first Women's Senior Amateur Match Play title, 4 and 3.

"I probably should've been more tenacious in closing the match," said Peterson, who played holes 11 through 15 in 5-over. "I kind of had a little, mini collapse out there."

"I didn't really know what to expect with this wind today because it was blowing hard. I got off to a good start, but I was questioning club selection quite a bit. Sometimes the wind would switch, and I felt like I had the wrong club and ease on it, which isn't a good combination."

Peterson cruised during her opening-round match against Lynn Anderson, 5 and 4, before getting past six-time champion Leigh Klasse, 2-up, to reach final round.

Peterson Wins Third State Title, Defeats Williams... Continued

Owner of 15 wins at state events during her career, Williams has been one of the state's most consistent senior golfers for more than 10 seasons. She advanced from the opening round with a victory over Tracey Donesky, 3 and 2.

Facing defending champion and longtime friend, Claudia Pilot, during the semifinal round, Williams overcame a slim deficit during her front nine to pull out a victory to advance to the finals, 1-up.

Williams defeated Leigh Klasse to win the 2011 championship at The Jewel Golf Club but has now been denied in four appearances during the championship match in the 11 years since her victory.

"I didn't play as well today as I had earlier in the week," Williams said. "My driver was not working. The wind was so strong that I was trying to make something of it, and it just wasn't happening. The greens were a little slower than I thought and I had a little bad luck, but I figured it had to turn.

"I feel like I'm hitting my irons well and my wedge shots. My wedges felt really good."

Jacqueline Santopietro defeated Bernie Brown, 6 and 5, to claim top honors in the First Flight at Pebble Creek Golf Club, while Joan Frie finished on top in the Second Flight by defeating Colleen Boerboom in 21 holes.

Lynn Cunningham downed Tammy Nermyr, 5 and 4, to claim the Third Flight championship and Sarinna Dixon earned a win over Karyn Massmann, 2 and 1, to win the Fourth Flight.

*The match score was corrected to a 6 and 5 win for Adele Peterson after the match.

Lily and Tony Vincelli First Father-Daughter Winners at MGA Mixed Amateur Team Championship

By Nick Hunter (June 30, 2022)

NORTHFIELD, Minn. – Playing 36 holes of bogey-free golf, including a 3-under 69 at Northfield Golf Club, Lily and Tony Vincelli earned a two-stroke victory at the 32nd Minnesota Golf Association Mixed Amateur Team Championship, becoming the first father-daughter champions in tournament history.

"That's cool—it feels pretty good," the younger Vincelli said after her first state win. "My dad usually caddies for me, so he's used to helping me, but the last two days I felt like I was able to help him, too."

"It almost makes me cry thinking of my dad—he was looking down on us," said Tony Vincelli, whose father Pat, winner of three state championships, including the 2014 MGA Senior Players' Championship on his home course at Brackett's Crossing Country Club, passed away in 2020.

Opening with a 6-under 66 to take a one-stroke lead during the opening round, the Vincellis got off to an ominous start in the final round when Tony Vincelli's tee shot on the first hole went out of bounds, forcing his partner to hit from the men's tees.

"We did not get off to a good start," said Lily Vincelli. "I was a little nervous, but we ended up making par."

Settling into their round, Lily Vincelli sank a 3-footer for birdie at the sixth to push her team to 7-under for the championship.

A 7-iron by Lily Vincelli at the par-4 left her dad with a short, but downhill bender, which he made to get to 2-under for the round. Tony Vincelli rolled in an 8-footer at the 12th to give his team the only lead they would need, posting a final-round 69 to beat the team of Jovie and Hogan Ordal and the twosome of Sophia Yoemans and Nate Stevens, who finished tied for second at 7-under 137.

"Today we were trying to have fun and commit to our shots, Lily Vincelli said. "We definitely played better yesterday. We stayed positive and were confident with our shots. I did have a few more shots I didn't commit to, but we held in there."

"I didn't play great today," Tony Vincelli said. "I thought she played awesome—she played as good today or better. The key today was whenever one of us was put in a pressure situation, they came up big. When somebody had to do something and hit a good shot, they did it."

The father-daughter duo of Tony and Lily Vincelli captured first place and low gross at the 2022 MGA Mixed Amateur Team Championship at Northfield Golf Club. The Vincellis posted a 9-under par 66-69—135 to win by two strokes.

The Ordals posted a tournament-low 64 in the final round to jump up the leaderboard following an opening round 1-over 73. The brother-sister tandem carded four birdies over their opening nine before an eagle a two more birdies helped them to a second-place finish at 137.

Recently named Mr. Minnesota Golf Nate Stevens and partner Sophia Yoemans, winner of the 2019 championship, bounced back from an early bogey by carding five birdies over their next 14 holes to threaten the leaders at 8-under. Yoemans and Stevens bogeyed their 36th hole to finish two shots back at 137.

Posting a 5-under 67 during the first day of competition, North Dakota State University golfers Leah Skaar and Jed Baranczyk carded a 71 during the final round to finish in fourth at 138.

Clutch Putts Lift Hicks to Minnesota State Junior Girls' Title

By Nick Hunter (July 12, 2022)

ST. MICHAEL, Minn. – Recent Chanhassen High School graduate Madi Hicks gave credit to her driver this week at Fox Hollow Golf Club, but it was her putter that she leaned on down the stretch.

Hicks delicately navigated her birdie putt from above the hole at the par-4 17th, leaving a tap-in for par before rolling in a 4-footer to save par on the final hole, carding a final-round 73 to claim the 2022 Minnesota State Junior Girls' Championship.

"This win means a lot to do it my senior year, knowing it's the last year I can play in the tournament," said Hicks, who edged 18-hole leader Emma Davies and Ava Hanneman by one stroke. "To be able to stick with it, believe in myself and end on a good note is awesome.

"My driver was on this week. It was a little iffy today, but it was still clutch for me. It's nice to be able to attack pins when I'm hitting my driver well."

Beginning her day one shot off the lead, Hicks took advantage of back-to-back par-5s early in the round, carding two birdies to quickly earn a share of the lead.

"My goal coming in was to be 2-under through five because four and five were reachable par-5s. I knew if I could do that that I would be sitting pretty well," Hicks said. "A good start definitely helped out for the rest of the day."

Her good start allowed her to remain in contention despite carding back-to-back bogeys at the sixth and seventh holes, turning in even par for the round.

Just short of the 11th green in two, Hicks chipped to six feet and rolled in her third birdie of the round to 1-over for the tournament.

A wayward tee shot at the 15th would lead to Hicks' only big score of the championship, a double-bogey, to trim her lead to one over Hanneman.

"Half of that shot was the fact that it was a bad shot and the other half was a little nerves," said Hicks. "I tried to play the wind and hit a little cut, but it drew and I got a bad lie."

Hicks' second at the par-4 17th landed 25 feet above the hole and she would roll within three feet to save her par.

At the last, Hick's approach landed well short of the final green before chipping to four feet, needing par to preserve the victory.

"The first time I looked at it, it looked straight. I couldn't tell which way it broke right at the beginning," Hicks said of her final putt. "It left edge and it went right in the middle. Those are my favorite kind of putts as a lefty, so I was lucky to have that on the final hole—it was definitely nerve-wracking."

Madi Hicks won the championship flight of the 2022 Minnesota State Junior Girls' Championship. Hicks finished with a score of 74-73—147 (+3) to win by one stroke.

Sinking a 4-footer for birdie at the 18th helped Davies earn a share of second place at 4-over 148, carding a 75 on the final day.

"I was hoping to make a few pars early to gain some confidence," said Davies, who finished her opening nine at 4-over 40. "I tried to come back on the back nine, but just didn't have enough.

"I finally made a few putts—I missed a few three-foot par putts on the front nine. The three birdies really helped. I'm happy with how I was able to stay calm and play my own game this week."

Beginning her final round two shots back, Hanneman erased the deficit with an early eagle at the par-5 fourth to earn a share of the lead at 1-over.

She would play the final five holes of her front nine in 2-over.

Bogeys at the 11th and 14th holes dropped Hanneman to 5-over for the championship, but she would climb into a share of second thanks to her birdie at the par-3 15th hole, posting a final-round 73.

Lily Vincelli, who won the MGA Mixed Amateur Team Championship at Northfield Golf Club last month, posted a final-round 74 to finish fourth at 5-over 149.

Paige Johnson, from The Links at Northfork, followed her opening-round 77 with an 11-over 83 to earn a wire-to-wire victory in the First Flight, five shots clear of Selena Qiao.

Greve Hangs on to Win First MGA Amateur Championship

By Nick Hunter (July 20, 2022)

EDEN PRAIRIE, Minn. – When it was said that golf tournaments cannot be won during the first round, Ben Greve must not have been paying attention.

Behind his opening-round 66 on his home course at Olympic Hills Golf Club, the former University of Minnesota golfer hung on over the final two days of the 119th Minnesota Golf Association Amateur Championship in grueling conditions to claim a one-stroke victory over Jack Ebner for his first state title in five seasons.

Ben Greve won the 2022 MGA Amateur Championship with a 2-over par 66-73-79--218.

"I played fantastic on Day One. The course wasn't as windy, but it was set up really difficult and it was long," Greve said. "I gave myself a big buffer coming in and, obviously, didn't have to play great the rest of the way."

"I didn't quite have it today like I did the other two days. I didn't control the ball as well and the speed with my putter was off all day. My game plan changed throughout the day, and I thought I did a really good job the first 12 holes of playing against myself and the course."

Entering the final round with a five-stroke lead, Greve posted a 7-over 79 to claim his first state win since his back-to-back titles at the Minnesota State Open in 2016 and 2017.

His win marks the second consecutive wire-to-wire winner at the championship, and he becomes just the second player since 1948 to win the MGA Amateur Championship at his home course.

"It means a lot to win here," said Greve. "It's a fun place and we had six guys from our club play in the event and play well. I have a lot of friends out here and everyone was talking about the tournament the last few weeks going into it, so that part is really special."

Greve started fast in the final round by carding a birdie on the opening hole to move to 6-under for the championship and then got up-and-down from a greenside bunker at the third to save par.

Despite a pair of bogeys over his next six holes to turn in 4-under, Greve still maintained a four-shot advantage.

Even after two more bogeys over his first three holes of his back nine, Greve was fortunate enough to hold a four-stroke lead over University of St. Thomas golfer Matt Armstrong.

"[Having a four or five shot lead] is not always easy—to be aggressive or not to be aggressive, especially with 30 mph winds. I'm not always a great wind player. I like to fade the ball and did a good job most of the time hitting small shots into the wind."

Greve gave away a stroke with a three-putt bogey at the 14th, but made a critical eight-foot putt to save par at the 15th to produce a bit of momentum.

"At the moment on 13 and 14 when it got a little close, part of me liked that because I quit trying to hit it middle of the green and away from everything," he said. "I tried to attack a little bit more again, hit some good shots and was in some better positions."

Unable to get up-and-down for par at the par-3 17th, Greve took a three-shot lead to the final hole, needing just double-bogey to win—and did exactly that, posting a final-round 79 to earn the victory at 2-over 2018.

"I didn't do a good job on 17 and 18," Greve said. "I took a look at the leaderboard, took a deep breath and got a little sloppy, to be honest."

"I love to compete in this stuff," Greve said. "Playing today with [Udovich]; the kid is so good and has all the talent in the world. We're going to be watching him play on TV someday, I think. I'm 41 and competing against that."

"I'm a streaky player, so I'll have stretches where if I get going, I'll compete and be in the hunt. There's nothing more fun than that."

Ebner, a fifth-year senior at Miami University, posted a 75 during his opening round and followed it with an even par 72 during the second round to begin the final round eight shots off the lead.

Stringing together four birdies midway through the final round, Ebner quickly climbed the leaderboard to challenge Greve at 1-over par. Three bogeys over his next six holes seemingly put the former Edina High School golfer out of contention, but a birdie at the last would put him into second place at 3-over 219.

"For me, the key this week was accepting the fact that bogeys were going to happen," Ebner said. "The greens are really tough and the course is long and you can't let the bogeys derail rounds."

"You try to bounce back and take advantage when you can, and I did that really well this week. My last two events, I didn't play great. I kept sticking with the process and trusting it and could still come out and contend."

University of Iowa golfer Ian Meyer posted a final-round 74 to place tied for third with Bethel University's Conor Schubring at 4-over 220.

Udovich, who was looking to become the youngest MGA Amateur champion this week at 15-years-old, opened with a 73 and fired one of five rounds below par during the second round.

Surging out of the gate early in the final round with back-to-back birdies, the soon-to-be sophomore at St. Croix Lutheran stumbled with a pair of double-bogeys during his front before carding three bogeys over his final four to finish tied for ninth at 7-over 223.

"I thought I had a good week, I really did," the 2022 Class AA individual champion said. "The first two days I was chipping and putting well. Today, I played better on the second nine. I had a couple bad breaks that cost me."

"It was a great experience. I played with a great player—Ben Greve. I'm going to learn from this experience and be thankful for it."

Coahran Bounces Back with Late Birdies to Win Minnesota State Junior Boys' Championship

By Nick Hunter (July 27, 2022)

SPICER, Minn. – After carding back-to-back birdies prior to inclement weather suspending the final round of the 96th Minnesota State Junior Boys' Championship at Little Crow Country Club, Peyton Coahran tallied two more birdies when play resumed to post a final-round 69 to claim a two-stroke victory over Rylin Petry.

"This win means a lot because I had the support from everyone at the club along with my friends and family," Coahran said. "I haven't been playing my best golf this summer so to find a way to win at my home course is special.

"The biggest key for me was definitely the way I handled the adversity I faced throughout the two days, and specifically the way I handled going three over on my first four holes on Day Two, finishing six under on my final 14 holes."

Coahran began the final round in a four-way share of the lead at 2-under, but struggled early during his round by carding three bogeys over his first four holes. Getting back on track with an eagle at the par-5 fifth holes, Coahran quickly climbed back into contention at 1-under.

"My first four holes were just sloppy bogeys because of bad approach shots," Coahran said. "My eagle on number 5 was a big momentum shift for me and I just kind of settled down from there and played really solid golf the rest of the round."

Following a weather delay of an hour and 20 minutes earlier during the final round, Coahran had carded a pair of birdies at the 12th and 13th holes to join Kyler Schwamb for the lead at 3-under before a second stoppage due to heavy rains.

"The weather delay was a little frustrating because I was feeling really good about the way I was playing," Coahran said.

Coahran resumed his final round at the 14th with back-to-back pars before chipping in for birdie at the 16th and added a final birdie at the 17th to reach 5-under for the championship. A par at the last would give the former New London-Spicer High School golfer a two-stroke lead over Petry, finishing at 5-under 139.

"The birdie on 16 is the point when I knew I had a good chance at winning the tournament and was probably the biggest shot for me coming down the stretch," he said. "The birdie on 17 was nice just to separate myself a little bit and to calm the nerves coming down 18.

"I just felt comfortable on the course and on the greens in particular, which was definitely an advantage having that knowledge of the greens."

Petry, the 2021 Class A individual medalist to cap off his junior season at Fertile-Beltrami High School, played his opening nine in 1-over to turn in 1-under for the championship. He birdied his 12th prior to the weather suspension.

Resuming his round with a bogey at the 14th put Petry back at 1-under for the tournament, but would card an eagle at the 17th to jump back to 3-under, where he'd finish alone in second at 141.

Schwamb carded a bogey at his 17th hole to fall to 2-under for the tournament to finish tied for third with Ryan Stendahl at 142. Stendahl tallied a bogey-free, 7-under 65 during the final round.

*Peyton Coahran
won the championship with a score of 70-69--139 (-5).*

Shooting 68 on Final Day, Ledwein Surges to Second MGA Women's Amateur Title

By Nick Hunter (July 29, 2022)

Entering the final round of the 2022 Minnesota Golf Association Women's Amateur Championship four shots off the lead, Taylor Ledwein fired a tournament-low 3-under 68 at Rochester Golf and Country Club, to come from behind and claim her second win at the event in five seasons.

The former Bradley University golfer started quick with a pair of birdies to narrow the deficit and would take the lead for good with two more birdies during her final nine, defeating 36-hole leader Leah Skaar and 2019 champion Kathryn VanArragon by three strokes.

"I don't think it's set in yet that I've actually won the [State Amateur] twice. If you would've told me in high school that I'd win twice, I wouldn't believe you," Ledwein said after her round. "I believe in my game a lot more now and I believe in the player that I am. A lot more confidence."

"You never really think that you're out of it, but Leah, Kathryn and Aayushi are all great players, and I knew I had to put up a number if I wanted to even be in contention. I told myself from hole one that I'm going to have to go low."

Starting quickly with birdies at the first and fifth holes gave Ledwein the outright lead at 4-over, but she would fall into a share of the lead with Aayushi Sarkar with her only blemish of the final round, a bogey at the seventh, to drop 5-over for the championship.

Ledwein would take the lead for good by converting her birdie chance at the par-4 10th and added one final birdie to create separation from the field by moving to 3-over.

The 2020 MGA Women's Player of the Year got some help from her putter down the stretch, making critical par saves from five to eight feet on consecutive holes beginning at the 14th.

A two-putt par at the last put Ledwein at 3-over 216 to become the first two-time winner of the event since former Michigan State University golfer Sarah Burnham's wins in 2012 and 2016.

"I thought I played really solid and today is how I wanted to play all three days coming into the week. Hit fairways and hit greens. Fortunate to win—when the easy birdie putts don't go in, but longer par putts go in, it makes it that much better."

Falling to Ledwein for a second time this season, Skaar couldn't bounce back from her rocky start to the final round, shooting 5-over through her first five holes.

The North Dakota State University junior battled back into contention by sinking two birdie chances over her next 12 holes, but a bogey at the last would give Skaar a final-round 74 to come up three shots short at 6-over 219.

"I was able to stay steady with some pars and a couple birdies, but not much was going my way," said

Skaar, who entered with a one-stroke lead before bogey-double-bogey stretch beginning at the third dropped her to 7-over. "That's just not the type of golf that I've been playing. I wasn't hitting anything close, so it was hard to make those 20-footers—you can't expect much.

"It was a very good tournament and a good learning experience, but pretty disappointing. I know I can play with the best players out here."

VanArragon also struggled in the early going during the final round, carding three bogeys over her first six holes to drop to 6-over for the championship.

Back-to-back birdies at the 11th and 12th holes put the 2022 Class AAA individual medalist and University of St. Thomas commit back in contention at 4-over, but a three-putt bogey at the 15th dashed her chances. She would post a final-round 74 to finish tied for second at 219.

Steady through her first 16 holes, Sarkar moved within one shot of the lead after sinking a 40-foot birdie putt at the 17th, but hit her approach out of bounds at the final hole, leading to a triple-bogey. She would finish fourth at 7-over 220.

In the First Flight, University of Wisconsin-Stout's Abbey Filipiak carded a 9-over 80 during the opening round and would cruise to a six-stroke victory by posting an 11-over 82 in the final round to earn medalist honors at 20-over 162.

Kuznik and Sarkar Winners at MGA Women's Four-Ball

By Nick Hunter (August 1, 2022)

MONTICELLO, Minn. – Entering the final round of the 2022 Minnesota Golf Association Women's Amateur Four-Ball Championship with a three-stroke victory, the twosome of Camille Kuznik and Aayushi Sarkar cruised over the final 18 holes at Monticello Country Club, tallying a 3-under 68 to claim a seven-stroke victory over the team of Isabelle Lynch and Courtney Wedin.

The win is the second state title for Sarkar and her first in five seasons, while it marks the fifth consecutive season Kuznik has collected at least one state championship win.

"This means a lot knowing this could be my last MGA event—my family is in the process of moving," Sarkar said following her round. "This is a huge win, especially being able to do it with one of my best friends."

"Going back to school soon knowing I am able to shoot good scores, and knowing I can compete at the next level—it means a lot for confidence," Kuznik added.

Continuing her remarkable iron play for a second consecutive round, Sarkar's approach stopped inside of three feet at the par-3 third for a tap-in birdie to put her team at 5-under for the tournament.

Kuznik and Sarkar gave back a stroke with their first bogey of the championship at the par-4 fifth, but Sarkar would hit the flagstick with her tee shot at the seventh, converting her birdie chance from eight feet to recapture a five-stroke lead at 5-under for the tournament.

Firmly in control on the final day, Kuznik and Sarkar closed out their front nine with a third birdie when Sarkar wedged her approach inside of four feet to put her team at 6-under with nine holes to play.

Kuznik took advantage of the par-5 12th by rolling in a birdie from six feet, but the twosome would card a second bogey on the ensuing hole.

Sarkar rolled in one final birdie from six feet at the 16th before her and her partner would card two final pars to post a 3-under 68 for a seven-stroke victory at 7-under 135.

"I feel like we struggled a little bit today, but really kept it together," Sarkar said. "We put ourselves in a couple bad positions off the tee box and with our second shots. We had some holes that we came back with birdies and were able to keep it steady."

"We chose to make bogeys on the same holes, which is kind of unfortunate," Kuznik said. "We came together and kept it [under par]."

Wedin and Lynch, who both play collegiately at the University of St. Thomas, carded a 2-over par 73 during the opening round to finish the first 18 holes of play in third place.

The two started slow during the final round with a bogey at the third hole, but would bounce back by capitalizing on two birdie chances late during their outward nine, turning in 1-over for the championship.

Sinking a birdie at the par-5 12th Lynch and Wedin moved back to even par and would close out the final round with consecutive pars to post a 2-under 69 to place second, seven shots back at 142.

Emma Davies and Katie Foley, both incoming freshman at St. Thomas later this year, began the final round in second place three shots off the lead following an opening-round 1-under 70.

Davies and Foley carded back-to-back birdies to close out their front nine at 1-under for the round, but would stumble during their final nine holes with three bogeys to post a final-round 73 to finish in third place at 1-over 143.

Posting a 2-over 73 during the first round, Jacqueline Santopietro and Merridith Joly entered the final round tied for the lead with Ann Feitl and Kara Salava.

Santopietro and Joly fired an even par 71 to cruise to a five-stroke victory in the First Flight, shooting 2-over 144.

In the Second Flight, the team of Denise Cosgrove and Nikki Heilskov followed an opening-round 86 by carding a 6-over par 77 during the final 18 holes of competition to claim medalist honors by eight strokes over the pair of Manami Berdan and Wendy Heras.

Armstrong and Nasby Outdueled Polk and Schmitz in Extra Holes to Win MGA Four-Ball

By Nick Hunter (August 18, 2022)

LESUEUR -- University of St. Thomas golfers Matt Armstrong and Cole Nasby tallied two birdies and an eagle over their final three holes before prevailing in a three-hole playoff over the team of Jesse Polk and Sammy Schmitz to claim the 61st Minnesota Golf Association Amateur Four-Ball Championship at Le Sueur Country Club.

The Tommie teammates entered the final round one shot off the lead and posted a second straight round of 64, highlighted by Armstrong's hole-out on the final hole of the championship, before a birdie in extra holes lifted the two to their first state victory.

"A win feels good. I've been close a lot," said Armstrong, who has now collected nine top-10 finishes at state events since 2017. "It's great to get a win."

"Matt finished top-10 at the State Amateur this year and I didn't even get in," Nasby laughed. "I know I'm a better player than that, but just never give up and keep working hard. It also helps when you have a teammate a little better than you and you can ride his coattails."

The soon-to-be college juniors started fast with a birdie at the first, but a bogey at the fifth slowed their momentum and dropped the twosome to 6-under for the championship.

The two bounced back when Nasby's 25-foot slider for birdie found the bottom of the cup to put them back at 7-under.

Armstrong two-putted for birdie at the par-5 12th to keep pace with Polk and Schmitz, who also birdied, to remain one shot off the lead.

After sinking his birdie chance at the 16th, Nasby rolled in a 6-footer for birdie at the 17th before Armstrong's improbable hole-out for eagle at the 18th to force a playoff at 12-under 128.

"I wasn't really comfortable having a run at it, but I knew I had to get it close," Armstrong said of his approach at the 18th. "As soon as I hit it I thought it looked good, and it trickled in for two. We just kind of rode that into the playoff."

"[At 18] I thought it was over because I hit it over the green, chunked my second and [Polk] hit his second to three feet," Nasby said. "We were talking about it before the playoff and I said, 'Let's try to calm down and forget about it.'"

Armstrong and Nasby escaped the first playoff hole when Schmitz's birdie chance from eight feet rolled past the cup, but the two would apply pressure to the former champs at each of the next two holes.

Both Armstrong and Nasby had birdie looks on the second playoff hole before Schmitz was once again unable to sink his birdie chance to clinch the match.

With both Polk and Schmitz in trouble off the tee on the third playoff hole, Nasby, whose tee shot rolled just off the back of the green, chipped to four feet and would sink his birdie to claim the victory.

"I thought yesterday we were really scrappy and we were happy to get to 6-under 64. We made a lot of birdies just by chance and made it harder on ourselves than we should have," Nasby said. "We thought the leaders were going to be at eight or 9-under, so being only one back felt good."

Matt Armstrong (left) and Cole Nasby (right), tied for first place after 36 holes with a 12-under par 64-64-128, and won the championship with a birdie 3 on the third playoff hole.

*Won playoff.

Cole Nasby (left) and partner Matt Armstrong (right) celebrate after Armstrong made an eagle 2 at the par-4 18th green. Nasby and Armstrong posted a 12-under par 64-64-128 and won the championship in a 3-hole playoff.

Armstrong and Nasby Outduel Polk and Schmitz in Extra Holes... Continued

"Today we came out and hit the ball better than we did yesterday. We had chances on almost every hole, we just weren't making them. Staying patient and trusting that we were hitting good enough shots—they had to fall at some point."

"Once one of us got into a range of five or 6-footer for par, we said to just go at it," said Armstrong. "It seemed like we made those every time, and it freed us up to go after those birdie putts."

Polk and Schmitz bookended their opening nine with birdies to turn in 8-under for the championship.

The long-hitter Polk took advantage of the par-5 12th with a birdie, while Schmitz rolled in birdie opportunity at the 14th to put the two on top of the leaderboard at 10-under.

Polk rolled in a 25-footer from the left edge of the 17th green and would convert his short birdie chance at the last after Armstrong's eagle, to force a playoff at 12-under 128.

Unable to convert a pair of birdie chances during the first two playoff holes, Polk and Schmitz were denied their second MGA Amateur Four-Ball title when Nasby sank his birdie chance.

First round leaders Joel B. Johnson and Blake Onkka, who fired a 7-under 63 to earn a share of the lead with Brett Benson and Trent Peterson, posted a 3-under 67 during the final round, highlighted by Johnson's eagle from 50 feet at the 16th, to finish in a share of second at 10-under 130.

Benson and Peterson also carded a 3-under 67 on the final day to finish at 130, helped by a pair of late birdies from Peterson at the 16th and 17th.

After their opening-round of 3-under 67, the two—some of Scott Gustafson and Parker Pemberton carded the low round of the final day, posting a 7-under 63 to jump into a three-way tie for second at 130.

Klasse Overtakes Santopietro to Win 11th Sr. Women's Am

By Mike Fermoyle (August 16, 2022)

HASTINGS -- It was like watching a car crash in slow motion.

Jacqueline Santopietro had played better than anyone else in the 2022 MGA Women's Senior Amateur for 17 holes on Tuesday, and held a one-stroke lead over 10-time champion Leigh Klasse as she stood over her second shot on the 300-yard, par-4 18th hole at Hastings Golf Club. She was about 80 yards from the pin, which was on the raised back half of the green.

Klasse had already hit her approach and was on the green, 18 feet above the cup.

Santopietro then pulled her second shot to the left of the bunker that's to the left of the green. The next shot was the killer. Trying to loft a high shot that wouldn't run too far beyond the hole, she hit a tree branch, and the ball came straight down into the bunker -- and plugged. Her lead was now gone. From the plugged lie, she would need to get up and down in two just to save bogey and get into a playoff with Klasse for the title.

Not surprisingly, the bunker shot from the plugged lie came out hot and rolled just beyond the back fringe. Santopietro debated the club selection for the next shot for about 30 seconds and hit a chip that came up 5 feet short. She missed the 5-footer, but that didn't really matter.

Despite the disastrous finish, she still shot the third-best score of the day on a difficult course, an 8-over-par 82. But the resulting 36-hole total of 162 was two too many.

Klasse signed for an 81, which gave her a two-day total of 160, and with that, she had her 11th Women's Senior Amateur title in the 13 years since she turned 50 and became eligible to play in this tournament. And this was her 56th state championship (37 individual and 19 four-ball), more than any other Minnesota golfer has won. (Well, actually, it was her 61st state title, because she has won one individual state championship and four four-ball titles in Arizona.)

Barb Miller, who was tied for first after 18 holes, closed with an 85 and tied for third at 164, along with Linda Goodno, who had the best score of the day, an 80. Sara Martinson also shot 85, and she finished alone in fifth place at 168. Adele Peterson, who won the Women's Senior Am two years ago, was sixth at 169, after an 87.

Santopietro, who is one of the most popular senior players, took the disappointment of her last-hole loss remarkably well. She didn't need to go off and be alone to compose herself. Instead, she talked to friends and tournament officials right from the time she finished the round, and seemed happy to have played as well as she did.

"Sometimes, your head just gets in the way," she lamented. "Obviously, I'd like to have the last hole back. But this is my best finish in a senior tournament. Last year I was third; this year I was second."

Leigh Klasse, University GC, captured her second consecutive MGA Women's Senior Amateur title, and her 11th overall. Klasse finished in first place in the senior division with a 12-over par 79-81—160.

No one is ever all that unhappy about winning, but Klasse conceded that she had mixed emotions.

"I feel so sorry (for Santopietro)," she said. "She played so well, much better than I did. She was definitely the best player on the course today, and she showed me that it is possible to make birdie putts, because I couldn't make any."

Klasse described her round as "pretty ugly," but it started well enough. She parred the first four holes. But she bogeyed the par-4 fifth and doubled the par-3 sixth on the way to a front-nine 41. (The 415-yard first hole and the 422-yard eighth were changed from par 4s to par 5s for the tournament; so the par for the front nine was 38.)

Meanwhile, Santopietro birdied the first two holes, bogeyed the fourth and fifth and went birdie-bogey on the eighth and ninth, for a 38. So as she made the turn, she was two ahead of Klasse, and one ahead of Miller, who shot 40, with a birdie on the first hole and bogeys on the fourth, eighth and ninth. Santopietro increased her lead by making pars on the par-5 10th and par-4 11th holes. Klasse and Miller, playing in the same threesome, both bogeyed both of those holes.

Klasse was now four behind with seven holes to play, and she was still four back with five to go, after she and Santopietro both bogeyed the 345-yard, par-4 13th.

That hasn't been the pattern for most of Klasse's victories. Big comebacks have been rare.

"In most of the tournaments that I've won," she noted, "I've been leading or tied for the lead going into the final rounds, and I've led for most of the final rounds."

But her strategy coming down the stretch on Tuesday was pretty much the same as it's always been.

"I was just trying to hit the fairways, hit the greens and give myself chances to make birdie putts," she said. "I didn't make any birdie putts today, but that's what I was trying to do. That's all I can do, and it's all anyone can do. Basically, I always try to do that, and whatever happens happens."

On Tuesday, what happened was that even though she wasn't making birdies as she played the last five holes at Hastings, she was making pars -- and gaining ground.

Miller doubled the par-4 14th (325 yards) and the par-3 15th (133), which knocked her back into third place, and she then bogeyed the last three holes.

Santopietro followed her bogey at the 13th with a double at the 14th. She was in danger of making another double at the par-5 16th, but she made a nice putt and escaped with a bogey. She was still one ahead of Klasse.

"When she made that putt on 16, and then I missed my little putt for par on 17," Klasse admitted afterward, "I was starting to think that that was it, and this was her day."

But then along came 18.

Peterson Cruises With a Final-Round 65 to Earn Fifth MGA Mid-Amateur Title

By Nick Hunter (September 1, 2022)

STILLWATER, Minn. – A string of four consecutive birdies early in his round at Indian Hills Country lifted Trent Peterson to a seven-stroke victory for his third straight win at the Minnesota Golf Association Mid-Amateur Championship.

Highlighted by his final-round 65, Peterson tallied just three bogeys during the 54-hole championship to collect his fifth win in six seasons, tying Minnesota Golf Hall of Fame inductee John Harris for most wins in tournament history.

"That's good company to be in," Peterson said after his win. "I love the feeling of winning. I love tournaments and I love to compete. For me to have the lead and go out and shoot the lowest round of the tournament—I couldn't be happier.

"I knew there were birdies out there. If I made a couple birdies, minimize my mistakes I figured I should be fine. If I go make birdies, then everyone else has to come catch me, instead of me bringing it back to them."

Notching his third win of the season for a second time since 2019, Peterson's win now gives the 35-year-old 34 state victories since 2002.

"It's been a good year. I started off really well and had a good month of June," the four-time MGA Player of the Year said. "I didn't play that great at the [State Amateur or State Open]. I was struggling with my driver. Since August, I've picked it back up again and I feel good with the putter—it's all feels really good."

Getting his round started by sinking a 15-footer for par at the first, Peterson went to work by rolling in four consecutive birdies beginning at the second to pull away from the field early, moving to 10-under heading to his final nine holes.

"I finally looked at the scoreboard on 10 and saw I was up by five. I figured it was in that range, but from there it was fairways and greens," Peterson said. "I didn't get phased in the early going. I kept my cool and took off."

Peterson's "worst shot of the day" came at the 11th, pulling his tee shot into the rough left of the green. Hoping to roll his ball close to save par, Peterson's second luckily banged into the cup for birdie.

"It had steam and probably would've gone into the rough—it was just my day," he said. "It was all going well, and the hole looked huge."

A two-putt birdie at the reachable par-4 13th put Peterson up by six at 12-under, and he would convert his birdie chance from six feet at the 16th on his way to a final-round 65.

Claiming his best finish at a state championship, David Gunderson followed back-to-back rounds of even par 72 during the first two days of competition by posting a bogey-free 6-under 66 to place tied for second at 6-under 210.

Gunderson began his final round with back-to-back birdies at the first and second to move to 2-under for the championship.

Tallying a birdie at the par-5 fifth and another at the ninth, Gunderson turned in 4-under for the round. Slowing his pace slightly over his inward nine, Gunderson saw his birdie look drop at the 13th and would finish the day with a birdie at the last to card the second lowest round of the week.

Anderson, a two-time winner of both the Lakeland Invitational and the MPGA Combination Championship, got off to a fast start with three birdies over his first five holes before the only blemish on his scorecard came in the form of a bogey at the seventh.

The 38-year-old Anderson bounced back by sinking his birdie chance at the par-4 eighth to turn in 3-under for the final round. Tallying a pair of birdies over his final nine put Anderson into the clubhouse with his second runner-up finish of the season by shooting 6-under 210.

Bryan Hoops, who began the final round two shots back of Peterson, posted an even par 72 to finish in fourth at 4-under 212, while the two-time champion Johnson's 66 on the final day boosted him into fifth place at 3-under 213.

Acharya Survives Playoff to Claim Fourth Straight MGA Women's Mid-Amateur

By Nick Hunter (September 1, 2022)

STILLWATER -- Rolling in a short birdie putt on the second playoff hole at Indian Hills Golf Club, Jasi Acharya edged six-time champion Leigh Klasse to win her fourth consecutive Minnesota Golf Association Women's Mid-Amateur Championship.

Acharya moves within two wins of Klasse's all-time mark for most wins in tournament history, playing in the event for only the fifth time this week.

"My goal was to go out, have fun and take it one shot at a time," Acharya said following her win. "I just grinded all day. I guess both the last two days have felt a little bit off. I hung in there and kept everything in front of me.

"I always love competing—sometimes I feel more ready than others, I guess. Once I get out here, the juices start flowing again and I love being in the moment. It's special and I'm blessed to even be able to play this week."

The 38-year-old Acharya carded two bogeys over her first four holes to begin the final round, before finding her footing with her first birdie of the round at the par-5 fifth.

Taking a step back with a bogey at the sixth, Acharya made the turn tied with Klasse at 2-over for the championship.

Acharya watched her lead slip away following three consecutive bogeys beginning at the 14th, but she pulled even with Klasse by sinking her birdie chance from 15 feet at the 17th.

Left with a short birdie putt to close out the championship, Acharya was unable to convert her birdie putt and finished regulation tied with Klasse at 4-over 148.

Narrowly missing her birdie chance on the first playoff hole, Acharya wedged her approach inside of four feet at the second hole and rolled in her birdie to collect her first win of the season.

With her runner-up finish, Klasse is denied her first win at the championship since 2011, but still holds the tournament record with her six victories (2004-08, 2011).

"I hit the ball really well today, but made nothing," Klasse said. "I hit so many edges—even the last two holes in the playoff. I had a lot of great opportunities. "I kind of wanted to win this—it wasn't expected. At least I gave [Acharya] a battle."

Jasi Acharya (at left) finished tied for first with Leigh Klasse (at right) both finishing with scores of 72-76—148 (+4). Acharya would go on to capture the 2022 championship flight title with a birdie on the second playoff hole.

Wilson and Kunkel Win individual MGA Net Amateurs and Heide, Nordstrom, Utter and Volling Take the MGA Net Team

By Nick Hunter (September 7, 2022)

NISSWA, Minn. – Entering the final round of the Minnesota Golf Association Net Amateur Championship five six points off the lead at The Preserve at Grand View Lodge, David Wilson scattered four birdies over his first six holes on his way to a one-point victory over Steve Forsberg.

Wilson opened the championship with 35 points at The Pines at Grand View Lodge for round one before tallying five birdies and a par during his front nine during round two, to help him move up the leaderboard with 22 points.

He would slow his pace over the final nine holes with a double-bogey and four bogeys, but got a boost from his net birdie at the par-4 15th hole to finish with back-to-back rounds of 35 points.

Forsberg, paced the field during the opening round by carding six birdies against one bogey for a total of 41 points but stumbled down the stretch in the final round, falling one shy of Wilson at 69.

Cindy Kunkel began the MGA Women's Net Championship with 36 points at The Pines for round one to sit one point back of the lead after 18 holes of play.

Then fueled by a strong finish at The Preserve for the final round, she earned a five-point victory over defending champion Shawna Johnson and Jennifer Lehnert at the Women's Net Amateur Championship.

Johnson, looking for her second consecutive win at the championship, jumped out to the early lead during round one, helped by a net eagle and three net birdies over a six-hole span. She would face difficulties late in the final round though by taking both a triple and quadruple bogey to finish in a tie for second with a 36-hole total of 58 points.

Lehnert began the final round seven points off the lead, but made up ground in a hurry with 14 points during her opening nine but couldn't quite reach Kunkel the rest of the way and finished tied with Johnson at 58 points.

From left to right, David Wilson and Cindy Kunkel won the Individual competitions with two-day stableford point totals of 70 for Wilson and 63 for Kunkel; and the team of Justin Volling, William Utter, Erik Nordstrom, and Ryan Heide won the Net Team competition by posting a two-day total of 156 stableford points.

Carding a total of 82 Stableford points during the final day of competition, the foursome of Ryan Heide, Erik Nordstrom, William Utter and Justin Volling earned a two-point victory at the Minnesota Golf Association Net Team Championship.

Erasing a two-point deficit when the tournament changed courses for the second round, the team was led by Heide and Volling on the final day, each gaining a total of 36 points in a winning effort.

The team of Steve Forsberg, Jack Mateffy, Ron Rollins and David Wilson jumped out to the early lead during the opening round with 82 points. The squad was carried by Wilson and Forsberg in the final round but fell two points short of the winning team.

Brellenthin and Peterson Down Johnson and Whaley in Playoff to Win MGA Senior Four-Ball

By Nick Hunter (September 29, 2022)

Teammates at the University of Minnesota on the golf course and roommates off the course, John Brellenthin and Tim Peterson have played with or against each other for over 40 years.

It only seemed natural for the two to pair up at the Minnesota Golf Association Senior Amateur Four-Ball Championship when they became eligible at age 55.

Brellenthin and Peterson erased a three-stroke deficit entering the final round at The Jewel Golf Club, firing a 2-under 69 for the second consecutive day and prevailed in a two-hole playoff against J.T. Johnson and Tom Whaley to win the 49th playing of the championship.

"It's pretty cool to finally win an MGA event. I'd hate to add up all the events I've played in over the years because it's a lot," Peterson laughed after collecting his first state win. "Things coming full circle—it's fun to win it with this guy."

"We played against each other as juniors and then lived together in college, so to win the Senior Four-Ball with him is pretty cool," Brellenthin said. "He's the best partner around."

Peterson got his team on the board early during the final round, sinking a 20-footer for birdie at the third to put his team at 3-under for the tournament, but the two were unable to convert scoring chances over the next six holes.

"It felt like a bit of a grind today because we weren't making many putts. We were three back coming into the day and felt like we needed to make up some ground, and it just wasn't happening," Peterson said. "[John] was so solid on those putts inside of five or six feet. We didn't make a lot of putts, but he made a lot of clutch par saves."

Hitting his approach to a foot at the par-4 10th, Peterson tapped in for birdie, but the two would take a step back with bogey at the 15th.

"We weren't looking at the leaderboard at all—John doesn't want to, but on the 16th hole, I finally looked and saw we were only one shot back," Peterson said. "John winds up birdying that hole and all of the sudden we're right there."

At the 16th, Brellenthin wedged his approach to 10 feet and converted his birdie chance and the two would go on to join Johnson and Whaley in the clubhouse at 4-under 138.

On the first playoff hole, both Johnson and Brellenthin missed birdie chances inside of five feet to extend the playoff to a second hole.

Brellenthin hit his approach to four feet once again at the second playoff hole and buried his birdie putt to secure the victory for him and Peterson.

Brellenthin and Peterson Down Johnson and Whaley in Playoff... Continued

"We both really kept the ball in play. We had a lot of holes where we were both putting and had our chances," Brellenthin said. "Neither one of us were out of any holes and relying on the other player, which is a lot less stress."

"The key for us was just staying in it," said Peterson. "Even though it didn't feel like we were playing the greatest, just grinding away. Low and behold we were right in the thick of things when it came down to the end."

Johnson, who won the Minnesota Public Golf Association Senior Public Links earlier this season, and Whaley combined to shoot 1-under 70 to open the championship.

The two started fast during the final round with back-to-back birdies at the first and second, but played the final seven holes of their front nine in 1-over.

Carding a birdie and two bogeys during their final nine put Johnson and Whaley into the early clubhouse lead with a final-round 68.

Following a 2-under 69 to begin the championship, the twosome of Bill and Robert Anderson tallied a final-round 74 to edge the team of Mike Fermoy and Tom Smith by one stroke to earn medalist honors in the 65-and-over Masters Division.

Carding three net eagles during their final round helped the pairing of Brian Patterson and Steve Pribyl to a second consecutive round of 7-under 64 to earn a two-stroke victory over Jack Hughes and Larry Noble in the Net Division.

Neuberger Pulls Off First State Win at MGA Senior Amateur

By Nick Hunter (September 15, 2022)

Entering the final round of the 101st Minnesota Golf Association Senior Amateur facing a four-stroke deficit, Bob Neuberger played his first 13 holes in 2-under par in breezy conditions at Crow River Golf Club to jump up the leaderboard on his way to the first state championship win of his career.

Neuberger bookended the 54-hole championship with rounds of even par 71 to edge J.B. Lloyd by two strokes, shooting 4-over par 217.

"This is unbelievable. You see the names on this trophy and it's a really big deal," Neuberger said following his win. "It was a lot of fun. These events are so hard because these players are all so good. I played well enough to win and I'm excited about it for sure.

"This certainly helps your confidence—I know I can play and I enjoy playing golf. I'm certainly looking forward to the rest of the fall and moving into next year."

A steady Neuberger made consecutive pars over his first six holes before nearly holing out his approach at the par-4 seventh. He would tap-in for birdie to reach 3-over for the tournament.

Hitting a 6-iron to eight feet on the ensuing hole led to a second consecutive birdie for Neuberger before he gave back a stroke with a bogey at the ninth, turning in 1-under for the day.

Carding his third birdie of the round at the par-5 12th gave Neuberger the lead for a second time during the final round, which he would never relinquish over his final six holes, despite a bogey at the 14th and an inconsequential bogey at the last.

"I didn't have a goal other than I wanted to strike the ball and putt well, which I did," said Neuberger of his mindset entering the final round. "I really didn't have a bad shot and I was in the fairway most of the day. I putted well—out here on these greens, that was the biggest key."

During his four previous appearances at the MGA Senior Amateur, Neuberger has never finished worse than 11th. Prior to his win Thursday, his previous best finish came in 2019 at StoneRidge Golf Club when he placed fifth.

"I didn't have any expectations. I play enough with all these guys that I know I can play with them," he said. "It worked out this week."

Over the past five seasons, Neuberger's remarkable consistency has led the soon-to-be 60-year-old to 12 top-10 finishes.

"I don't hit the ball very long, but I hit it straight. I typically don't get in a lot of trouble—that's kind of my game," Neuberger said. "Playing at [Burl Oaks Golf Club] for as long as I have, you have to hit good shots all the time, so I think that's really helped as well."

During the up-and-down final round, which saw four players hold at least a share of the lead, Lloyd overcame a bumpy start to his inaugural appearance at the championship this week, carding a birdie at the seventh after back-to-back bogeys earlier in his round.

Turning with a share of the lead with Neuberger at 3-over, back-to-back bogeys to begin his final nine holes proved costly for the 56-year-old Lloyd, who dropped to 5-over for the championship as he would card one more bogey at the 17th to place second at 6-over 219.

"I haven't played in a long time and I kind of missed it. It was fun to see all the guys again," said Lloyd, who made his first start at an MGA championship since 2008 this week. "I still play a little bit of competitive golf, but nearly as much as I did. Hopefully this is the first of more events.

"I was playing well coming in, so I expected to play good. I thought if I shot even today with the way the wind was, that I'd be right in it. Disappointed I didn't win, but to be back and get the competitive juices going—I had tons of fun."

John Spreiter, who entered the final round two shots off the lead, was in search of his first state victory since 2004, earned a share of the lead thanks to back-to-back birdies at the 12th and 13th holes.

After a bogey at the 14th, an errant tee shot at the par-5 15th hole led to a disastrous quadruple-bogey for John Spreiter, who would go on to finish third at 7-over 220.

John Brellenthin, who won on his home course at The Minikahda Club at last season's weather-shortened event, began the tournament with back-to-back rounds of 3-over 74 and would play his first nine holes in 1-under in the final round before carding three bogeys over his inward nine, including back-to-back bogeys at the 17th and 18th.

Brellenthin placed fourth at 8-over 221.

Wisconsin Retains The Boot, Wins 2nd Consecutive Senior Tour Cup Matches

By Warren P Ryan (October 14, 2022)

BYRON, Minn. -- The visitors, twenty-four senior tour members from Wisconsin, outplayed the home team representing the MGA Senior Tour, 20 points to 16 points in net and gross four-ball and singles match play October 10 and 11 during the 5th Annual MGA-WSGA Senior Tour Cup Matches hosted by Somerby Golf Club in Byron, Minn.

Tied at 6 points each after Monday's four-ball matches, the competitive senior golfers were fairly evenly matched in singles (gross) play during the second day, with the MGA actually taking a 1-point advantage, 6.5 to 5.5. However, it was the Badger State senior net golfers who handily swept their Gopher opponents, winning 8.5 of the remaining 12 points up for grabs.

The winning team retained the trophy, their 4th victory in the event's six-year history (the 2020 event was cancelled), and sipped a hoppy adult beverage from the glass boot as their ceremonial reward. The MGA trails 4 to 1.

Sundbom Among Four Minnesotans Advancing to Final Stage of U.S. Open Qualifying

By Nick Hunter (May 2, 2022)

INDEPENDENCE, Minn. – Sundbom carded a pair of birdies against one bogey at Windsong Farm to post a 1-under 70 and claim medalist honors as well as a spot in the final stage of qualifying for the 2022 U.S. Open.

"The round went well from the start today—I hit 16 out of 18 greens, so I made it pretty easy on myself by making pars constantly."

"Expectations were high—I expected to make it," Sundbom said. "I just came off [Qualifying School] and faltered the last nine holes of that event, but I expected to play well today."

Beginning his round on the 10th tee, Sundbom carded eight consecutive pars before wedging his third to five feet and converting his birdie chance at the 18th. Steady again through his first five holes during his inward nine, Sundbom rolled in another 5-footer for birdie at the sixth before his only blemish of the round, a bogey at No. 8, put him into the lead with a round of 1-under 70.

Sundbom moves one step closer to a third appearance at a USGA championship, previously qualifying for both the U.S. Amateur and U.S. Amateur Four-Ball Championship in 2017.

"If I play my game and hit the shots that I know I can hit, I'll be right there," Sundbom said. "The plan is to turn professional, it's just a matter of when—I still have to figure that out. I never thought I would turn pro, but I had a good year last year and feel like my game is there. If I can get into [PGA Tour Canada] events this season, I'll do that."

80 players were competing for a total of five spots to the final stage of qualifying to the 2022 national championship, set to be played June 16-19 at The Country Club in Brookline, Mass.

Joining Sundbom at the final stage next month are former University of Minnesota golfer Josh Persons, former Minnesota State University, Mankato golfer Ross Miller and University of Kansas' Ben Sigel, all of whom posted rounds of even par 71.

Augsburg University sophomore Stellan Orvick carded a 1-over 72 and prevailed in a two-man playoff to claim the fifth and final qualifying spot.

Persons, a 38-year-old Fargo, N.D., native, started quickly with a pair of birdies over his first three holes. Turning in 2-under, Persons rolled in a birdie at his 10th, but would card three bogeys over his final eight holes to advance with an even par 71.

Warian and Swavely Among Five Advancing to U.S. Open Sectional Qualifying

By Nick Hunter (May 12, 2022)

RAMSEY, Minn. – Warian tallied a 5-under 67 at The Links at Northfork to claim medalist honors and moves one step closer to the national championship June 16-19 at The Country Club in Brookline, Mass.

"You never really expect yourself to win, but I expected to be in contention for one of those five spots—my game felt good," Warian said following his round. "I stuck to my routine all day. I picked smart targets that gave me some margin for error and I made really good, aggressive swings at those targets.

"I felt like drove the ball well and gave myself some opportunities with the scoring clubs. I had some uphill putts and really allowed my putter to take over from there."

Warian advances to the second stage with teammate Bennett Swavely, who posted a 3-under 69 to finish tied for second with two-time Minnesota State Open champion Andrew McCain.

Zach Sklebar, a professional from Fargo, N.D., and Will Frazier, a junior at South Dakota State University, each carded rounds of 2-under 70 to claim the final two qualifying spots.

Following back-to-back birdies to begin his round, Warian chipped in for eagle from 50 yards at the par-4 fifth hole to get to 4-under for the round.

"It was a fun day. I got off to a solid start with birdies on one and two to kind of settle things down and get the day going on a good note," Warian said. "I tried to stay present and commit to every shot and I did a solid job of that coming in."

A birdie to start his inward nine put the former Hill-Murray High School standout at 5-under before his only blemish of the round came in the form of a bogey at the par-3 12th. He bounced back by converting his birdie look from four feet at the 14th to advance from the first stage for the first time.

"I plan to keep outworking people to get as ready as possible. Wherever my site may be, I know that anything can happen," Warian said. "I believe I'm good enough to advance through the next stage. At Minnesota, we play a pretty cool schedule and get to mix it up with some of the best in the world."

Swavely, a native of Hudson, Wis., rolled in three birdies during his opening nine, but turned in 1-under amid breezy course conditions. Chipping in from 30 yards for eagle at the par-5 10th quickly put Swavely at 3-under for the day, but he would take a step back with bogey at the 12th.

Taking advantage with his short irons on his back nine, Swavely converted back-to-back birdie chances from inside of six feet at the 13th and 14th holes and finished his day at 3-under 69 following a bogey at the last.

"I was able to score the golf ball pretty well and kept the big numbers off the scorecard. That led to me being able to put a good round together," Swavely said after qualifying. "The last few years I haven't put myself in contention [at USGA qualifiers], which has motivated me. Obviously, the USGA is the pinnacle of golf, the way they set up the golf course and strength of the field."

Swavely saw action six times for the Gophers during his freshman campaign, finishing tied for 13th at the Washington County Individual, which coincided with the Marquette Intercollegiate. He went 1-0-1 at the Big Ten Match Play to kick off the spring season.

"I didn't really have any expectations coming into the round today," Swavely said. "I've kind of struggled the past year and a half expecting a lot out of myself. It isn't necessarily a bad thing, but I felt it was hurting my golf game."

"I knew it was going to be a tough day with the wind and that par was going to be a good score. I just tried to stay in the moment and that kind of freed me up and allowed me to play my game after about the first six holes."

"It was an interesting day—I had low expectations. A practice round yesterday was my first round of golf," Persons said. "The first nine I made two longer putts and one nice birdie. I was kind of fading coming in, but was able to hang on."

"I putted pretty well and hit it just good enough, but the putter saved me today."

A birdie on the final hole helped the former Minnetonka High School standout Sigel to a round of 71, advancing to the second stage for the second time.

"My freshman year when I was writing down my goals for college, I wrote that I wanted to play in the U.S. Open as an amateur. It was a far-fetched goal at that time, but I've got an opportunity to do it," Sigel said.

Sigel, who graduates from the University of Kansas in two weeks, turned in 1-over before rolling in a 6-footer for birdie at the 13th. Taking a step back with bogey at the 14th, Sigel clinched his spot at second stage by dropping a birdie from six feet at the last.

"I hit the ball okay, but I knew the course was going to play hard. The course is soft and it's cold and there was some wind early," he said. "I kept plugging along by hitting fairways and giving myself looks when I had wedges in my hand."

Miller, the lone professional to advance, bounced back from a bogey on his opening hole to turn at even par before carding a pair of birdies at the 13th and 15th holes. The 29-year-old Osseo High School graduate would bogey two of his final three holes to post a 71 to secure his qualifying spot.

Orvick overcame a string of four straight bogeys during his front nine by carding three birdies over his final seven holes to earn the final qualifying spot.

University of Minnesota golfer Lincoln Johnson posted a 1-over 72 before falling to Orvick in a playoff, finishing as first alternate. Totino-Grace sophomore Andrew Ramos advanced from a three-way playoff to claim the second alternate spot.

Warian and Swavely Among Five Advancing... Continued

McCain, who became the fourth player in state history to win the Minnesota State Open as an amateur and a professional in 2018, started and finished his round with back-to-back birdies, shooting a 3-under 69 to move on to the second stage for the first time.

"I've been doing a lot of qualifiers," McCain smiled. "I guess my game has been pretty solid this year, so I feel like I want to focus on that and put myself into position to get into actual events and go play well."

"I know I can compete out there and that's where I want to be. I expect go to have a good chance at sectionals. I've always had good luck at 36-hole qualifying. This is one I'd love to play in because I played in the U.S. Amateur in Brookline in 2013. It'd be pretty cool to play U.S. Amateur and a U.S. Open at the same place."

McCain, 28, who resides in Jupiter, Fla., began his day on the back nine with birdies at Nos. 10 and 11 to quickly climb the leaderboard before carding 13 consecutive pars. A three-putt bogey at the seventh set him back to 1-under for the round, but a tap-in birdie at the eighth followed by a two-putt birdie at the last put him at 3-under for the day and on to the final stage of qualifying as he looks to advance to his eighth USGA championship.

"I got off to a good start, but difficult conditions," McCain said. "We played a bunch of holes into the wind and it was hard to score. A couple of tough flags and it was hard to hit it close. It was just a grind with a bunch of four or 5-footers for par when I had to and tried to keep it as clean as possible."

Ryan Deisler, of Minneapolis, carded a 1-under 71 and survived a four-man playoff to claim the first alternate spot, while former North Dakota State University golfer and 2019 Minnesota Golf Association Players' champion Andrew Israelson finished as second alternate.

Late Birdie Sends Lemieux to U.S. Women's Open

By Nick Hunter (May 9, 2022)

CHASKA, Minn. – A birdie on the 35th hole helped professional Gabby Lemieux to a one-stroke victory at Chaska Town Course, tallying a 1-under par 143 to claim medalist honors as well as a spot in the 2022 U.S. Women's Open.

Lemieux withstood a pair of weather delays and a late triple-bogey to post a final-round 72, edging fellow professional Ellie White to advance to her first Women's Open.

"It feels like a long time coming, honestly, but almost like I can't fully understand it yet. I'm the first Native American to be playing in the U.S. Women's Open—it's pretty surreal, but such a great achievement to be able to do that," Lemieux said following her round.

"I was trying to stay in front of myself today. I feel like the last couple tournaments for me, I've been looking toward the end result. I wanted to play one shot at a time and two steps in front of me. I was playing really well during the second round and getting putts to drop."

Lemieux moves on from a field of 37 players and will now compete at the 77th edition of the championship set to be played June 2-5 at Pine Needles Lodge and Golf Club in Southern Pines, N.C.

Thanks to a pair of birdies during her back nine of the opening round, the 25-year-old Lemieux posted a 1-under 71 despite an hour weather delay. She quickly got to work during her second round rolling in three birdies on her outward nine, including a 20-footer at the ninth to move to 4-under for the day.

A second weather delay midway through her second round slowed Lemieux's momentum as she took a bogey at the par-4 11th and followed it with a triple-bogey at the 13th to fall into a share of the lead at even par.

"I didn't hit my best shot coming off the second rain delay, but I did my best to stay in the moment and within myself," Lemieux said. "I was upset [at No. 13] because I knew where I was at and knew I was playing well, but again, I stuck to my game plan from there."

Lemieux wedged her approach inside of 10 feet at the par-4 17th and would roll in her birdie chance to regain the outright lead before a two-putt par at the last put her into the clubhouse with a one-stroke victory over her playing partner White.

Growing up in Caldwell, Idaho, near the Idaho-Nevada border, Lemieux is a member of the Shoshone-Paiute tribes of the Duck Valley Indian Reservation, where she claimed a pair of Idaho Girls' Junior Amateur Championships in 2009 and 2014 before winning three Idaho Women's State Amateur titles (2013, 2015, 2017).

Lemieux played her collegiate golf at Texas Tech University, notching four individual titles and earned Big 12 Conference Player of the Year in 2016, rising to the pinnacle of collegiate golf as the country's top-ranked player.

In just her second full season since joining the Epson Tour (formerly the Symetra Tour) in 2018, becoming the first female Native American golfer to play on a professional tour, Lemieux has made 40 professional starts, claiming a pair of top-10 finishes in 2021. She currently sits 65th on the Epson Tour Official Money List.

"I had two weeks where I missed the cut by one, which is always hard," said Lemieux of her start to the 2022 season. "After those, I told myself it doesn't matter what the outcome is and just work with what's in front of me. Basically hit, go find it and hit it again and I think that helped a lot."

She entered the week coming off her best performance of the season, a 29th-place finish at the Garden City Charity Classic in Kansas two weeks ago, firing a 3-under 69 during the final round.

Next month's U.S. Women's Open will be Lemieux's fourth USGA event, qualifying for three consecutive U.S. Girls' Junior Amateurs in 2012-14.

"I'm sticking with the same game plan," Lemieux joked. "Hopefully this won't be the last time I'll be there, but I want to go out and experience it."

White, from Lancaster, Ohio, followed her opening round of 73 with a 1-under 71 during the final round to finish as first alternate, while Minnesotan Isabella McCauley, who qualified for last year's championship at The Olympic Club in San Francisco, finished as low-amateur and second alternate by posting a 36-hole tally of 3-over 147.

Gibb and Johnson on to U.S. Senior Open

By Nick Hunter (May 16, 2022)

DELLWOOD, Minn. – For a second consecutive season, Judd Gibb traveled north from his home in Iowa in hopes of securing a spot in the field of the U.S. Senior Open. Rolling in his birdie putt on the final hole at Dellwood Country Club helped Gibb post a 1-over 73 to earn medalist honors, and his ticket to the championship for the second straight year.

"I drove the ball really, really well and played extremely solid," Gibb said after his round. "Playing a practice round yesterday I thought there were holes here that you could make bogey even hitting good shots. I could tell it was going to be a street fight from the beginning, especially with the weather."

A field of 50 players battled breezy conditions, looking to claim one of two qualifying spots to the 42nd U.S. Senior Open, set to be played June 23-26 at Saucon Valley Country Club in Bethlehem, Pa.

Next month, Gibb, a professional from Fort Dodge, Iowa, will play in his third major in as many seasons, qualifying for the PGA Championship in 2020 before he placed tied for 52nd with PGA Tour veterans Rocco Mediate and Mark O'Meara at last year's U.S. Senior Open at Omaha Country Club in Nebraska.

"It's everything you think—you have to hit the ball in the fairway because every hole is difficult," said Gibb, who sat 3-over through 36 holes before shooting 76-77 to close out the tournament in 2020. "I played really well the first three and a half rounds and then probably got tired and struggled a bit.

"I went into it last year and didn't really have expectations and ended up playing pretty well, so that's the thing I have to be a little careful of. I don't do this for a living, and I do play more than a lot of other club pros, but you get a little idea of what goes on into the week and how to pace yourself to at least give yourself a chance."

Playing his first seven holes in 1-over, Gibb drew even by sinking a 6-footer for birdie at his eighth, but slipped with a bogey at his ninth. Falling to 2-over with a bogey at his 14th hole, Gibb's 'professional miss' with a 6-iron at the par-3 sixth hole led to his second birdie of the day.

Giving back a stroke with a bogey at his 16th, Gibb wedged his approach inside of 10 feet on his final hole and buried his downhill slider for birdie in the center of the cup to claim medalist honors at 1-over 73.

"Today I drove the ball as well as I have in a couple of years—that was a huge key," Gibb said. "I knew if my lag putting was good, that I'd have a pretty good chance."

Joining Gibb next month is Minnesotan Joel B. Johnson, who finished in a tie for second with professionals Mikkel Reese and Derek Stendahl before surviving a three-hole playoff to earn a place in his first major championship as a senior.

"This is great because you get to play with all the big guys—the guys you watch on TV all the time," said Johnson, who qualifies for his first USGA championship since the 2015 U.S. Mid-Amateur at John's Island Club in Vero Beach, Fla. "It's going to be fun to get down there and see where your game is compared to those guys."

Gibb captured medalist honors with a score of 36-37—73 (+1).

"Today was a tough day on a tough golf course. It was a day of survival and the one thing I was able to do was not hit a ball in the hazard or [out of bounds]. If you can do that, you've got a fighting chance."

Beginning his round on the 10th tee, Johnson carded a trio of bogeys over his first five holes before finding his footing with a birdie at the 15th. Taking a step back with bogey at the 16th, Johnson rolled in a 10-footer for birdie at the 18th. A bogey at the par-3 sixth put Johnson at 3-over for the round, but he sank his final birdie of regulation at the eight to join a three-way tie for second at 2-over 74.

Johnson and Reese both made par on the first playoff hole, eliminating Stendahl, before Johnson sank a 12-footer for birdie to extend the playoff on the second hole. Johnson claimed the final spot after winning the third playoff hole with a par.

"I played really good from tee-to-green," the 51-year-old Johnson said. "I made a couple of nice up-and-downs even though the putter was shaky. Not the best putting day today."

"My putter has been a struggle and part of the game I need to work on and fix. It's not terrible, but it's just not there."

Owner of five wins in the state, Johnson enters the season with a pair of victories in 2021, claiming the Minnesota Public Golf Association Mid Public Links Championship before closing out the year with a win at the Lyle Cran Memorial Shortstop Tournament last September.

Reese, from Okoboji, Iowa, and Stendahl, of Maple Grove, Minn., finished as first and second alternates, respectively.

Mexico's Barragan Medals, Reese McCauley Edges Sister Isabella to Advance to U.S. Girls' Junior

By Nick Hunter (June 27, 2022)

WAYZATA, Minn. – After posting an even par 71 at Woodhill Country Club, Reese McCauley watched group after group finish on the 18th hole, anticipating the thought of qualifying for her first United States Golf Association championship.

Finishing one shot behind Mexico's Maria Jose Barragan, McCauley advanced from a two-hole playoff to earn the second and final spot in the U.S. Girls' Junior Amateur at The Club at Olde Stone in Bowling Green, Ky., next month.

The only problem for McCauley was the fact she needed to beat older sister, Isabella, to move on.

"I am excited to go, but I really wanted the both of us to qualify," the younger McCauley said. "It was fun, but kind of intense for the last two holes in the playoff."

Playing countless rounds together previously, the two sisters have never met head-to-head in a sudden death situation.

"It's never been like that, never in a playoff. We're not super competitive when we play normally because we play together every day. We tied for first at sections this year, but there wasn't a playoff."

McCauley jumped out to a fast start by sinking a 15-footer for birdie at the second and two-putted the third for birdie before a bogey at the fourth.

The 2021 Class AAA individual champion answered with a birdie at the fifth, but would give a stroke back with a bogey at the sixth to slip back to 1-under for the tournament.

Settling into a rhythm mid-round, McCauley would card 11 straight pars before a bogey at the last would put her into a tie for second with her sister at even par 71. On the second playoff hole, Reese McCauley two-putted from 15 feet to earn the final spot with a par, advancing to her first USGA championship.

"I started out pretty well and kind of leveled out the rest of the round," McCauley said after qualifying. "I'm looking forward to the experience and the competition with a lot of good players. I've never played in a tournament this big before."

Barragan, from Morelia, Mexico, entered this week's qualifier after advancing to match play at the 95th Women's Western Golf Association National Junior Championship at Prestwick Country Club in Frankfort, Ill.

The 17-year-old scattered two birdies against two bogeys over her first six holes, but would stay in red figures for the remainder of her round following a birdie at the par-4 ninth. A two-putt par at the 18th secured Barragan's spot at her first USGA championship next month.

"I didn't play a practice round, so I wanted to make fairways, greens, two putts and go," Barragan said after her round. "I made some good second shots and had chances for birdies. I didn't know the greens really well. I started to figure out how to roll the ball."

"I'm really happy because qualifying for the U.S. Girls' was one of my goals of this year. I didn't have expectations because I know I can have a good round. I'm hitting my irons and my drives well."

Isabella McCauley, who made headlines last season as the youngest Minnesotan to qualify for the U.S. Women's Open, where she missed the cut by two strokes, finished as first alternate, while Mimi Burton, of Austin, Texas, finished as second alternate.

Same Course, Different Result, as Wanous Claims Medalist Honors in U.S. Junior Am Qualifying

COON RAPIDS -- For Tyler Wanous, the U.S. Junior Amateur Qualifying at Bunker Hills GC was kind of like a mulligan.

The Eastview junior concluded the 2022 high school season by playing in the Class AAA portion of the state tournament, at Bunker Hills, for the second year in a row. But it didn't go very well.

It wasn't exactly a great start to his summer. But Wanous got another crack at Bunker this week, and this time his re-configured swing was ready.

"I was practicing on Monday," he said, "and something clicked."

Suddenly, the new swing was working, and it was working just as well. Playing the same Bunker Hills course, except a slightly longer version (6,971 yards for the Junior Am Qualifying vs. 6,886 for the state high school tournament), he made seven birdies and four bogeys on his way to a 4-under-par 68. That was better than the best round shot during the two days of the high school tournament, and it was also good enough to earn medalist honors for Wanous.

"I was playing with more confidence today," he said afterward. "I also made a couple of putts early, and that helped."

One of them came at the 427-yard, par-4 first hole (No. 1 East), which he birdied. He also added birdie at the 385-yard, par-4 fifth. At the 535-yard, par-5 sixth, he couldn't reach the green in two, but he hit a wedge shot to 2 feet, and then he made his third birdie in a row -- and what was probably his best birdie of the day -- at the 220-yard, par-3 seventh.

The only blemish on his front nine was a bogey at the ninth (390 yards, par 4). He bogeyed the 428-yard, par-4 10th (No. 1 West), as well, but then he went on another birdie binge. Taking advantage of his length, he knocked his second shot onto the green at the 540-yard 11th, with a hybrid. He birdied the 373-yard, par-4 13th, too, and made his third birdie in four holes by hitting a 270-yard 3-wood shot to the green at the the 560-yard 14th.

He made two bogeys coming in, at the 15th (440 yards) the par-3 17th, but by then, it didn't matter.

"I didn't really save any pars with my short game or my putting today," he said. "I just hit a lot of greens and made a bunch of birdies. It was fun."

With his 68, Wanous got the first of the five spots available at Bunker for this year's U.S. Junior Am, which will be played at the iconic Bandon Dunes course in Bandon, Ore., July 25-30.

Edina won the AAA team championship this year, and depth had a lot to do with that. The Hornets' depth was evident again. Jack Wetzel, who tied for first at the state tournament, shot 76, and missed the playoff for the last spot in the Junior Am by three, and his fellow senior Charlie Nasby, who tied for 14th in the state high school tournament, missed by two with a 75. Nevertheless, two Edina players, both underclassmen, qualified for Bandon Dunes.

Owen Nielsen, a junior, was one of them. He was the only player besides Wanous to break par, with a 70. His card was clean on the front nine, with a birdie at the 368-yard, par-3 second hole and no bogeys. He compensated for bogeys at the par-4 10th and par-3 17th holes with birdies at the par-5 11th and par-4 16th.

The other Hornet who advanced, freshman Torger Ohe, had to work overtime to make his reservation for Bandon Dunes. He shot 73 and then won a playoff with Justin Luan of Woodbury for the last available spot. Playing the first three holes on the back (West) nine, they tied the 10th and the 11th. Both then hit gorgeous tee shots at the 195-yard, par-3 12th. Luan just missed his birdie putt from 15 feet. Ohe buried his putt from 12.

That makes Luan the first alternate.

Mason Roloff, the Spring Lake Park senior who missed most of Minnesota's five-week high school golf season this year, after suffering an avulsion fracture. He came back at something less than full strength in time to play in sectional qualifying, and eventually finished sixth in AAA at the state tournament with a 145 (74-71).

The long-hitting left-hander bogeyed the first hole, and parred the other eight on the front nine. Roloff, the only player to make the Junior Am last year who made it again this year, birdied both par 5's on the back nine, which enabled him to survive bogeys at the 15th and 18th and finish with a 72. He tied Sam Udovich for third.

Udovich was a freshman at St. Croix Lutheran this year, and he capped off the high school season by winning the Class AA individual title at Ridges at Sand Creek, with a 2-under 142 (71-71).

A former National Drive, Chip & Putt champion who rarely misses fairways and averages roughly 300 yards in the air with his driver, Udovich uncharacteristically struggled on the par 5's Tuesday, playing them in 2 over. But he played the par 3's in even par and the par 4's in 1 under.

His two bogeys at the par-5 sixth and par-5 14th notwithstanding, Udovich said he was better tee to green at Bunker than he was last week at Ridges.

"I made more putts last week," he said. "Today, I hit it a little better, but really didn't do much on the greens."

The runner-up in AA last week was Southwest Christian junior Jacob Ferrin. He shot 34 on the front nine at Bunker but struggled on the back nine, finishing with a 74. That knocked him out of the top five and put him into a four-man playoff for second alternate -- with Anders Larson (Pine Island), Carver Larson (Alexandria) and Joseph Rohlwing (Apple Valley) -- which he won.

Far left: Tyler Wanous, after holing out at the par-4 18th green (#9 West) for a 3-under-par 68 (32-36) and medalist honors during the U.S. Junior Amateur Qualifying, at Bunker Hills Golf Club.

Near left: Owen Nielsen, lines up a putt at the par-4 ninth green (#9 East). Nielsen earned the 2nd qualifying spot with a 1-under-par 70 (34-36).

Hitchner and Pedersen Headed Back to U.S. Amateur; Englishman Storey Medals

By Nick Hunter (June 28, 2022)

MORTON, Minn. – Carding two birdies and an eagle over a six-hole span during his second round, Englishman Samuel Storey posted a 5-under 139 at Dacotah Ridge Golf Club to earn medalist honors and a spot in the 2022 U.S. Amateur.

"This is really cool—it's as simple as that. I didn't expect to go through, but luckily two rounds fell together nicely," Storey said. "It's quite a shock. My family back home is ecstatic and everyone around me is ecstatic.

"I'm looking forward to being able to compete with the best amateurs in the world. It'll be nice to see how I compare to the guys who are really good at this game. I'm going to position myself as well as I can and see if anything works out."

A field of 80 players competed for three available spots to this year's national championship, set to be played August 15-21 at The Ridgewood and Arcola Country Clubs in Paramus, N.J.

Joining Storey at the championship are defending Trans-Mississippi Amateur champion and defending Minnesota Golf Association Amateur champion Derek Hitchner and University of Minnesota transfer Jacob Pedersen, who both survived a three-way playoff after carding 4-under 140.

Both Hitchner and Pedersen advanced to last year's championship after qualifying at Dacotah Ridge Golf Club. Hitchner posted rounds of 69-76 at famed Oakmont Country Club to miss the cut by two strokes, while Pedersen missed a playoff for match play by one stroke, shooting 74-70.

Storey, a recent graduate of Morningside University in Sioux City, Iowa, carded an eagle on the final hole of his morning round to card 3-under 69, despite taking double-bogey on his opening hole.

Beginning the second round on the 10th tee during the afternoon session, Storey three-putted for bogey at the 10th but rebounded by sinking his birdie chance from 25 feet to draw even for the round. Hitting his 6-iron to 20 feet at the par-5 13th, Storey converted his eagle chance to quickly jump into a share of the lead at 6-under for the tournament.

Fueled by his putter early in his second round, Storey again would sink a lengthy putt, this time from 35 feet at the 15th to reach 7-under, but would slow his pace over the final nine holes with a pair of bogeys to finish on top of the leaderboard at 5-under 139 to qualify for his first USGA championship.

Mullen Is Medalist in U.S. Amateur Qualifying; Herron Makes It for the 4th Generation in a Row

By Mike Fermoye (July 11, 2022)

STILLWATER -- Owen Mullen grew up in Nova Scotia, playing courses along the Atlantic Ocean.

"So I'm used to playing in the wind," he noted, after claiming medalist honors in the U.S. Amateur Qualifying on the wind-whipped course at StoneRidge Golf Club.

The 6-foot-4-inch long-hitting Canadian, who is a sophomore at Notre Dame, shot a 3-under-par 69 in the morning, when the conditions were relatively benign, meaning the wind was only in the 10- to 15-miles-per-hour range. He was one of 10 players who were under par when the second round began.

That was when the going got even tougher, as the wind increased to something more like 20 to 25 miles per hour. But Mullen made three birdies on the front nine, to offset two bogeys, and he separated himself from the other contenders by reaching the green at the 511-yard, par-5 11th hole with a wedge second shot and draining the putt for an eagle. He bogeyed the 469-yard, par-4 18th, but by then it didn't really matter. His second-round 70 was one of only three sub-par rounds in the afternoon, and the resulting 36-hole total of 139 brought him in two strokes ahead of Carson Herron, who earned the other available berth in this year's U.S. Am, which will be played at The Ridgewood Country Club in Paramus, New Jersey.

"It was a long day," Mullen said. "Playing in that kind of wind wears you down, especially on a 36-hole day. It's hard physically and psychologically, and you really have to focus, and concentrate on hitting the ball solidly every time. If you don't, the wind will just eat it up, and the ball could go anywhere. And club selection was really hard, especially this afternoon. The wind hurts you more when you're into it than it helps when it's at your back. It was as much as three clubs against the wind at times today, and two clubs with the wind. There was just a lot of uncertainty, and that made it hard to commit to a shot."

Mullen came all the way from Nova Scotia to Minnesota mainly because he went to high school at Faribault Shattuck, and therefore "knew people here and had a place to stay."

Herron is from Deephaven, which is a long way from Nova Scotia, but there are a lot of similarities between him and Mullen. Like Mullen, the 6-3 Herron hits his driver 300 yards plus, and he's used to the wind, after completing his freshman year at the University of New Mexico and playing on the wind-swept courses of Albuquerque.

One other similarity: Mullen and Herron were both born on the same day -- July 24, 2003.

Herron started his round on by making 10 consecutive pars, and he took advantage of his length by hitting an 8-iron second shot onto the green at the 11th hole and two-putting for the first of his four birdies on the back nine. The last of them came at the 556-yard, par-5 17th, where his second shot ended up within a few feet of the green. He got up and down from there, then parred the 18th for a 69.

In his afternoon round, Herron took advantage of the par 5's on the front nine, the 521-yard second and the 580-yard fourth, birdying both of them. He bogeyed two long par 4's on the back nine, the 12th (460 yards) and the 15th (449), but he parred the 233-yard, par-3 16th, the par-5 17th and the daunting 18th. That enabled him to take the second available spot at Ridgewood with an aggregate of 141.

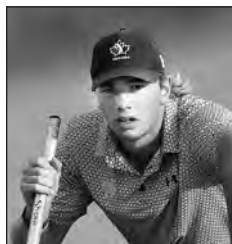

And in doing that, Herron extended his family's remarkable streak of playing in U.S. Amateur tournaments -- it's now four generations and counting!

"I didn't really know about that," the young Carson Herron said. "But I just talked to my dad, and he told me about the four generations. It's pretty cool."

And what about the other streak -- three generations of Herron's having played in the U.S. Open?

"I'll worry about that later," he said.

"I didn't realize how tough a day it was until I got here and started seeing people and thought, 'Wow, there's a lot of really good players,'" Storey said. "There's a bit of internal pressure to do well and justify why I came up here. Hoping to prove myself and that I belong here."

"The biggest key was being in play with driver. Plotting away around and hitting the right club to be in the right places. I dropped back to a 3-iron pretty often despite having a longer number in, at least the ball was in play. Try to avoid big numbers like I did on the first hole today."

Coming off his sensational 2021 season, earning MGA Men's Player of the Year honors, Hitchner appears poised for another strong season after carding 3-under 69 to open the qualifier.

Starting his second round on the 10th tee, Hitchner started fast with a birdie on the first hole to quickly climb into contention at 4-under, but stumbled late during his front nine with a pair of bogeys.

Tallying four birdies over the first six holes of his inward nine boosted Hitchner to 5-under but a late bogey forced Hitchner into a three-way playoff with Pedersen and the University of Missouri's Jack Lundin after finishing at 4-under 140.

On the first playoff hole, Hitchner's approach rolled off the back of the green, but he would chip in for birdie to secure his ticket to his fourth U.S. Amateur in six seasons.

"Today was a stressful day—I felt I had to scrap the round together," Hitchner said. "Off the tee I felt a little uncomfortable, which is unusual for me because that's a strength for me. I really made an effort to be as focused as possible and tried to be disciplined with that.

"I've been [to U.S. Amateur] a few times now and it's pretty exhilarating. Hopefully, as I continue to accumulate experience on that stage, I start to feel more comfortable. I've missed match play all three times and I'm really hoping to amend that this time. It's the most prestigious amateur tournament and it's such a privilege to play there."

Pedersen, who played four seasons at Gustavus Adolphus College and will transfer to the Gophers for his final season this fall, paced the field early with his round of 6-under 66.

"I was pretty dialed the first round and definitely had both hands on the steering wheel during the second round," said Pedersen. "It's a little stressful when you shoot 66 in the first round because you know you're in it from the get-go."

In a moment of déjà vu, Pedersen opened the 2021 qualifier with a 66 at Dacotah Ridge and went on to finish tied for second. Following his 66 early, Pedersen tallied a 74 during his second round to once again finish tied for second, advancing by sinking a 6-footer in the playoff for his second straight appearance at the U.S. Amateur.

"There was a little bit of nerves, but it's such a long day, it's hard to stay in it mentally and grind for 11 straight hours," he said. "I wanted this one really bad. Last year I had no idea what I was getting into," Pedersen said. "Now that I know what to expect, I really wanted to get back."

Lundin finished as first alternate, while University of Minnesota golfer Ben Warian finished as second alternate.

Continued

Finishing one behind Herron was Cecil Belisle, the 2021 Minnesota State Open champion. He opened with a 74, but played his best when the conditions were the most difficult, birdieing three of the last 13 holes (No. 15 through No. 9). That gave him the low round of the day, a 68, and he wound up at 142. So he is the first alternate.

Belisle is a former state high school champion. He won the 2019 Class AA title as a senior at Red Wing.

The AAA winner that year was Stillwater senior Brock Winter, and he came out of the qualifier as the second alternate, having shot 73-70--143.

It was another three shots back to fifth place, but there were five players tied at 146 -- 2014 State Am champ Jesse Bull, Nate Adams, his former high school teammate at Maple Grove, Joshua Galvin, Muzzy Donohue and Parker Sands.

Curran Is Medalist in U.S. Women's Am Qualifier; Ledwein, Misemer, Gregg & Brovilos Advance

By Nick Hunter (July 5, 2022)

BLAINE -- Grace Curran is from New Lenox, Ill., but she goes to the University of Minnesota. So she's seen what a winters around here can be like, the ones that refuse to end, and what can seem like 60 or 70 days of March. The Winter of 2021-22, for example. In spite of that, she still likes it here.

The former Illinois state high school champion took advantage of accurate wedge shots and birdied the 445-yard, par-5 second, the 388-yard, par-4 third and the 352-yard, par-4 sixth on the way to a front-nine 32. She made her only bogey at the 15th (382 yards, par 4), the result of an errant 7-iron approach shot. But her 7-iron redeemed itself with a gorgeous 143-yard second shot into the wind at the 394-yard, par-4 18th, and she converted the subsequent 14-foot putt for birdie.

That gave her a 3-under-par 68, which was good enough to earn medalist honors -- and a place in the 2022 U.S. Amateur. It will be played at Chambers Bay in University Place, Wash.

Some people call these kinds of qualifying tournaments "local," but that wouldn't really be an accurate description of the field that assembled at Victory Links. Fifteen of the top 22 finishers were from outside Minnesota, and six of them were from outside the United States.

There were five spots in this year's Am available, and four players finished one shot behind Curran at 69. That made it a clean cut. No playoff required, except for the alternates.

Last year, no Minnesotans qualified from Wayzata CC. This year, there was one from Victory Links.

Taylor Ledwein, the 2020 MGA Women's Co-Player of the Year (along with Kate Smith), had the cleanest card of the day. She made no bogeys in her 69 and birdied two of the four par 5's, the 445-yard second and the 485-yard 16th.

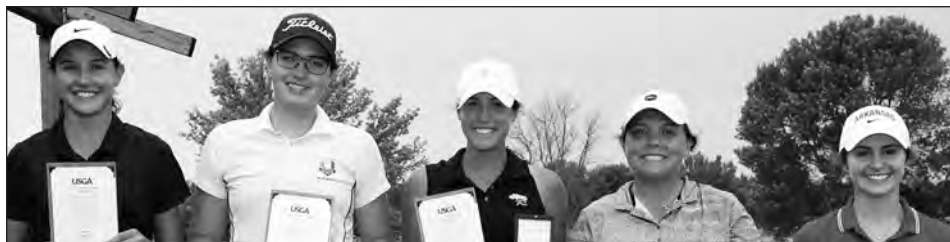

Julia Gregg, an Arkansas senior to be from Farmers Branch, Texas, made it out of Minnesota for the second year in a row. She got off to a less-than-great start, with a bogey at the first hole, and was still 1 over after birdieing the second and bogeying the sixth. But she played the next seven holes in 3 under and parred out from there.

Julia Misemer was tied with Curran at the top of the scoreboard for much of the day. A four-time Kansas state high school Class 6A winner who will start her freshman year at Arizona this fall, she birdied the second, the sixth and the seventh holes. She was the only player who got to 4 under, which she did with a birdie at the 14th (301 yards, par 4).

"Then I kind of lost it for a while," she said, "and I bogeyed the next two holes. But I got things back together and parred the last two."

Although Curran didn't spend the summer here last year, she did come to Minnesota for the Amateur qualifying at Wayzata. She missed -- initially. After shooting 71 and finishing in a three-way tie for third, she lost a 3-for-2 playoff, but she eventually got into the Am as the first alternate. In the Am, which was at Westchester CC in Rye, N.Y., she 158 (79-79) and missed the cut.

So the fact that an alternate from here got into U.S. Am last year gave the four players who tied for sixth a little additional incentive when they played off for the two alternate spots.

It was another Ausie, Kristen Rudgeley, who won the playoff by parring the first hole and making an 18-footer for eagle on the second.

Jayden Jevnick, a 14-year-old from Cave Creek, Ariz., burned the edge with her eagle putt from 25 feet at No. 2. But she got the second alternate spot when Leah Herzog, a former Ms. Minnesota Golf from Red Wing who will be a senior at Minnesota this fall, missed a 5-footer for birdie. The fourth in the alternate playoff was Sophia Yoemans, a former Red Wing teammate of Herzog's, and a two-time state high school champ who was also the 2021 MGA Women's Amateur winner. She was eliminated when she missed a 4-footer for par on the first hole.

From Mozart to Massachusetts, Doing Is Medalist in U.S. Senior Am Qualifier

By Mike Fermoy (July 27, 2022)

HASTINGS -- Here's one you don't hear every day: The guy who turned in the best score on Wednesday during the 2022 U.S. Senior Amateur Qualifying at Hastings Golf Club was an opera singer.

Jim Doing, a 62-year-old opera singer and teacher -- who also spent six years trying to make it onto the Champions Tour -- got off to a great start. He was 3-under par after eight holes. But after a couple of miscues on the back nine, he had to hang on just to avoid a playoff. He came up with clutch pars on the last two holes and finished with a 2-over 74, and that was good enough to earn medalist honors.

Rick Frieberg, the 2019 Minnesota Senior Public Links champion (one of five state titles on his resume), is one of the few seniors who hit a golf ball far enough to feel at home in competition with the 20- and 30-somethings. He did not, however, take advantage of his length on Hastings' four par 5's during his round. Surprisingly, he was 3 over on the 5's while shooting 75.

But he came up with a birdie on the 482-yard, par-5 16th hole in a playoff with Dave Haslerud, a former State Senior Amateur winner (2017) and half of the two-time defending State Senior Four-Ball champions (along with Matt Yeager). And with that, Frieberg claimed the second available spot in this year's U.S. Senior Amateur, which will be played Aug. 27 through Sept. 1 at The Kittansett Club in Marion, Mass.

Frieberg was 2 over after three holes, but he birdied both of the par 3's on the front nine -- No. 6 (192 yards) and No. 9 (160). The back nine played harder than the front, and he shot 39 back there, making three bogeys on the inward half, at the par-5 10 (520), the par-4 13th (434) and the 16th, where he got tangled up in the trees left of the fairway.

"I didn't want to be over there again in the playoff," he said afterward. "So I overdid it, and hit my tee shot into the trees on the right. I caught one of the trees with my second shot and wound up with a really ugly lie. I was going to hit a gap wedge. Then I looked at the lie again. The ball was above my feet, and in the rough. So I switched to my pitching wedge, and I'm glad I did. I hit the best wedge shot I've hit in a long time."

"That was a great shot," marvelled Haslerud, who also shot 39 on the back nine. "From that lie, he hit it to 8 feet -- and he made the putt."

So Haslerud is the first alternate.

There were three players tied for fourth at 76 -- Jerry Rose, Bob Neuberger, and Colin Bork -- and they played off for second alternate. That playoff went five holes, and Rose, a four-time MGA Senior Player of the Year, ended it by making a 50-foot birdie putt at the 210-yard, par-3 17th hole.

Doing parred the first three holes, but birdied the 432-yard, par-4 fourth, the par-3 sixth and the 475-yard, par-5 seventh. The first hint of trouble came at the par-3 ninth, which he bogeyed. After a par at the 10th, he doubled the 11th.

"From the fairway," he pointed out. "That was when I started to get nervous. But I looked at the scores (on his phone), and I saw that I was still leading -- by three."

He stubbed a chip at the 14th (408 yards, par 4), made a bogey here, and made another bogey at the 16th, which cut his lead to one.

"I played that hole (the 16th) about as well as I could play it," Doing said. "But I just kind of babied my first putt down the slope, and I ended up three-putting the green for the bogey. So much for my cushion. I was really nervous then, because the 17th hole is tough. It's 210 yards, and you could bogey that one in a heart beat."

But Doing parred it, and then hit his approach to within 30 feet of the pin at the 340-yard, par-4 18th. His first putt didn't break as much as he thought it would, and he was left with a 3-footer for his par, but he made it.

Tylke, Hanstad and Newbold Headed to U.S. Mid-Amateur at Erin Hills

By Nick Hunter (August 2, 2022)

Turning 29-years-old wasn't the only reason Max Tylke had to celebrate. The former Minnesota Golf Association Players' champion also carded a 3-under par 69 at The Wilds Golf Club to earn a spot in his first U.S. Mid-Amateur Championship.

Tylke bounced back from an early bogey to earn a three-way share of medalist honors with Robert Newbold and 2022 MGA Mid-Players' champion Bryce Hanstad as the three will travel to Erin, Wis., for the national championship, set to be played Sept. 10-15 at Erin Hills.

"I'm stoked [for Erin Hills]," Tylke said. "They say you're not supposed to look ahead, but that gave me more motivation than anything. I was excited to see that, and I really wanted to go.

"The expectation today was to keep it red on each side. I had to hold on at the end, but I played exactly how you want to. I can't complain—it's not easy."

Starting his round on the 10th tee, Tylke began with a bogey at the 11th, but would quickly rebound by hitting a 5-wood to 15 feet at the 12th, where he would convert his eagle putt to quickly move into red figures.

"The start was rough—I missed a short one on one and a short one on two," Tylke said. "Making [eagle] jolted the round today. I started making a lot more mid-range putts and kept giving myself chances."

Following his eagle, Tylke dropped a 15-footer for birdie at the 13th before carding another birdie at the 16th to turn in 3-under.

Tylke, who now lives in Lakeville, Minn., sank a pair of birdies inside of 12 feet at the first and fifth holes to reach 5-under for the round, but would stumble late in the round with back-to-back bogeys at the seventh and eighth.

"Unfortunately, it was a tale of the closer I put my approaches, the harder they were to make," he said. "The wind started blowing and probably got in my head more than anything. I missed a few things in the wrong spots.

"Nothing has really been clicking [this year], and finally the eagle early today gave me a shot and just enough to get through the stretch I needed," Tylke said.

A par at the last would give Tylke a share of medalist honors with a 3-under 69.

Continuing his strong play this season after his win over Ryan Conn at the MGA Mid-Players' Championship at The Royal Club in June, Hanstad earns a trip to his first USGA championship since 2018.

"Any time you can get into a USGA event—the tournaments they put on at the courses they have is always a treat," he said. "After playing in Charlotte in 2018, this one has always been circled on the calendar to try and get back.

"It was a grind today. I hit it really well—I was a little tentative on putting, but for the most part, I was able to strike the ball around enough to be successful," Hanstad said after his round. "I set myself up and hit the ball well off the tee."

It's Survival of the Fittest at White Bear Yacht Club, And Brooke Is the Winner

By Mike Fermoye (July 12, 2022)

WHITE BEAR LAKE -- In a golf season that has seen Minnesota doing its best impression of West Texas, wind velocities in double digits have become a constant, and the conditions at White Bear Yacht Club for the U.S. Senior Women's Open Qualifying fit the pattern.

WBYC might be the hilliest course in the Twin Cities, and the Senior Open qualifier was something of an endurance test, which was fine with Kelley Brooke. It was right up her alley. Brooke is the 54-year-old director of golf at Bethpage State Park Golf Course, the New York course that has become a regular site for some of the sport's biggest events, such as the U.S. Open (2002, '09), the PGA Championship (2019) and the Ryder Cup (2025).

In addition to being a golf professional -- she gives an average of 40 lessons a week -- and businesswoman, however, she is also an endurance athlete who runs marathons and triathlons, and is currently training for a half-tri (1.2-mile swim, 56-mile bike ride and 13.1-mile run, for a total of 70.3 miles).

So, the hills at WBYC weren't a problem for her, as she shot a 4-over-par 78 and earned medalist honors.

Kristal Parker, 57, a former LPGA Tour player, finished second with a 79 and claimed the other spot in the '22 Women's Open that was available. Although she never won in her 12 years on the women's tour, Parker had 11 top-10 finishes, including a second at the Standard Register PING in 1996, and she made $774,513. She retired from the tour in 2006, got her real estate license and has worked as a realtor in the Phoenix area since then, but she's also the head women's golf coach at Arizona Christian University.

The hills weren't the only things that wore the competitors down during the qualifier: WBYC has some of the most challenging greens in Minnesota. In a long-ago ranking, the three consecutive two-tier greens on the 14th, 15th and 16th holes were deemed to be among the 18 toughest greens to putt in Minnesota.

That probably helps to explain why the back nine took more of a toll on the front nine, and Parker was no exception. After making a bogey at the 405-yard, par-5 first hole, she parred all eight of the remaining holes on the front side. But she made four bogeys on the back nine (10, 12, 13 and 16), and didn't have any birdies to offset them.

Far left, Kelley Brooke follows her drive at the par-4 14th tee. She earned medalist honors with a 4-over par 37-41—78.

Probably the best example of how confounding the greens could be seen on the scorecard of Jane Noble. Another Arizona resident, Noble's ball was on the green at the 476-yard, par-5 16th hole in three -- but not for long. It slid back down the slope and off the green, and Noble kept hitting chips that weren't quite able to get beyond the slope. She ended up making a 10.

That cost Noble a shot at finishing in the top two. She ended third with an 82. Nevertheless, that was good enough to make her the first alternate. So, she still has a chance of getting to Ohio.

The top two finishers from Minnesota were Angie Ause and Adele Peterson. They tied for fourth with 83's. Peterson was the highest finisher among the amateurs trying for the Senior Open, but it was Ause, the director of golf at Oak Marsh and assistant men's and women's golf coach at Macalester, who won the playoff with a par on the second hole. They both parred the first hole.

Brooke averages about 240 yards with her driver, which gave her an advantage. She was hitting wedges to par 4's that other players needed middle irons to reach, and she was also able to hit par 5's in two.

That was how she birdied the first hole, hitting the green with a hybrid and two-putting for her 4. She bogeyed the par-4 second (342 yards), but made another two-putt birdie at the 433-yard, par-5 fourth, reaching the green with a hybrid second shot once again and lipping out her eagle putt. She bogeyed the 174-yard, par-3 eighth hole, but was still leading the field when she made the turn at even par.

The only bad patch she had came on the back nine. After suffering her only three-putt of the round at the par-4 12th, which she bogeyed, she tripled the 480-yard, par-5 13th.

"I didn't panic," she said. "I knew that I was still in a good position, and I just needed to keep my focus."

The former Iowa state high school champion and University of Iowa star picked off another birdie at the 423-yard, par-5 15th, but slipped back to plus 4 when she bogeyed the 16th.

"I played 18 holes today," she said after accepting her first-place medal, "but I could easily play another 18. I feel great."

The Senior Women's Open will be played on the South Course at NCR Country Club in Kettering, Ohio.

Klasse Medals, Advances to U.S. Senior Women's Amateur with Kellar-Luther and Aldrich

By Nick Hunter (June 27, 2022)

WAYZATA, Minn. – Collecting more than 50 state championship victories during her hall of fame career, 14-time Minnesota Golf Association Player of the Year Leigh Klasse reached another milestone by carding a 1-over 73 at Woodhill Country Club to earn a spot in the 2022 U.S. Senior Women's Amateur—her 60th USGA championship.

"It's kind of monumental," the 62-year-old Klasse said. "I'm very much looking forward to spending some time in Alaska."

"I know it's going to be a great experience and I'll get to see some friends that I only see at national events."

Also advancing to this year's national championship, set to be played July 30-August 4 at Anchorage Golf Course in Anchorage, Alaska, are Andrea Kellar-Luther and two-time defending Minnesota Golf Association Senior Women's Player of the Year, Betsy Aldrich.

Klasse began with a three-putt bogey at the first but built momentum by sinking a 25-footer to save par at the second, following it with her first birdie of the round at the third.

Rolling in a 4-footer at the eighth put Klasse at 1-over for the tournament and she would draw even after hitting her approach to a foot at the par-4 10th.

Trading a fourth birdie of the round with a bogey over her next seven holes, Klasse would finish the day with a bogey at the last to earn medalist honors at 1-over 73.

"I had a few bogeys, but also had a few birdies to cover it. No big numbers, so that's always a good round," The 62-year-old Klasse said. "I hit the ball really well—I can't say that I chipped all that well, but I hit the ball well and didn't have to do a lot of chipping."

Klasse advances to her 11th U.S. Women's Senior Amateur and first since 2019.

Kellar-Luther, a former teaching professional who regained her amateur status in September, fired a 2-over 74 to qualify for her first USGA championship since the 1991 U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur at Desert Highlands, in Scottsdale, Ariz.

"I'm really excited," Kellar-Luther said following her round. "I just love USGA venues and I've been removed from that for a long time."

"Honestly, I didn't know what to expect because I haven't played competitively in 25 years. An early birdie, a couple of bogeys and missed a couple of birdie putts. I was nervous the first two holes and then my drives started settling down. There wasn't a lot of drama out there today. I had some easy pars, makeable birdies and then got up-and-down when I had to."

A former teacher at both Interlachen Country Club and, most recently, Olympic Hills Golf Club, Kellar-Luther carded a birdie at the second and would card two bogeys over the final seven holes of her front nine to turn in 1-over.

Finding her stride mid-round, Kellar-Luther carded eight consecutive pars before a bogey at the 17th would put her into the clubhouse in second place with a 74, one shot off Klasse's lead to safely secure her spot in the national championship beginning.

"I love playing the game and I just wasn't teaching anymore," said Kellar-Luther on her decision to regain amateur status last fall. "I still love to get people involved in the game, but I wanted to play with my husband in some amateur events. I still feel like I can contribute to the game, but just not necessarily making a living through the game."

Playing on her home course, Aldrich survived a bumpy final nine holes to claim the third and final qualifying spot to her second straight U.S. Senior Women's Amateur, shooting 9-over 81.

"I played well on the front and had a tough stretch on the back—I went 7-over in five holes," Aldrich said. "I thought I shot myself out of it, but I finished strong after that."

"Sometimes when you play on your home course it's a bit of a curse because they move the tees back in spots you don't normally play. The course is a lot firmer and faster than it has been in the past, which made shots into the green and putting different and challenging."

Following a bogey at the fourth, Aldrich countered by sinking back-to-back birdies at the fifth and sixth hole, eventually turning in 1-over. She began her final nine holes with bogeys at the 10th and 11th and a pair of doubles over her next three before finding her footing late and making par at three of her final four holes to post an 81.

"It's very gratifying to qualify and it's always fun to go."

Brenda Williams, from Minnetrista, Minn., and M.J. Graphenteen, of Luverne, Minn., finished as first and second alternates, respectively.

Conzemius and Heltne Medal, Butler and Johnson Headed to U.S. Four-Ball

By Nick Hunter (October 3, 2022)

CHASKA, Minn. – Carding an eagle and five birdies during their back nine at Chaska Town Course, the brother-in-law tandem of Joe Conzemius and Erik Heltne posted a bogey-free 10-under 62 for a two-stroke victory, claiming a spot in the field of the 2023 U.S. Amateur-Four Ball Championship.

After several close calls in recent years, Conzemius and Heltne both qualify for their first national championship.

"This means a lot. I've been an alternate many, many times and have never gotten in," Conzemius said. "To [qualify] in the four-ball with my brother-in-law is emotional and I'm super excited. A USGA event has been a goal of mine for a long time."

"It's going to be a special trip. It's a special tournament for the both of us to be able to do this together for our first USGA event," Heltne added.

Starting on the 10th tee, Heltne started the scoring by sinking his birdie chance from 20 feet at the 10th. Adding two more birdies to the scorecard during their front nine, Conzemius and Heltne turned in 3-under for the round.

"I like that we started off [No. 10]—I think that side is the harder nine," said Conzemius. "I feel like we left one out on 18. We should've birdied that one and we didn't, but 3-under on the back nine, we felt like we were right in it."

"We just needed to play a good back nine, and my partner played an unbelievable back nine."

A 64 Sends McCauley Sisters to U.S. Women's Four-Ball Championship

By Nick Hunter (October 3, 2022)

CHASKA, Minn. – While they've logged more rounds playing against each other on the golf course growing up, sisters Isabella and Reese McCauley enjoyed three seasons together as teammates at Simley High School, each winning a Class AAA individual state title.

Teaming up once again at Chaska Town Course, the McCauleys combined to shoot a bogey-free 8-under par 64 to earn medalist honors as well as a spot in the 2023 U.S. Women's Amateur Four-Ball Championship.

The sisters will head to DuPont, Wash., May 13-17 to compete in the national tournament at The Home Course, site of three previous USGA championships.

"We're super close, so it'll be a really fun experience," Isabella McCauley said following her round. "We traveled and played in the [U.S. Girls' Junior] together this year, but it'll be fun playing on the same team. I think if we can play how I know we can play, we have a chance to go far."

"A lot of tournaments we're playing against each other, so it'll be fun to play together. We work really well together and because we have opposite strengths, we complement each other," younger sister Reese said.

During the qualifier, Isabella McCauley birdied both par-3's during the front nine at Chaska Town Course to help move her team to 2-under before younger sister Reese countered with birdies at the seventh and eighth.

Isabella tallied her third birdie of the round with a lengthy putt from 30 feet at the ninth to turn in 5-under before she carded back-to-back birdies at the 11th and 12th, putting the two at 7-under for the day.

The sisters each carded birdie at the par-4 16th for good measure to reach 8-under, helping them to a five-stroke victory with a round of 64.

"Being able to help each other when the other was in trouble—that was really huge," Isabella McCauley said. "We both had a couple of bogeys, but the other person played well on those holes. It worked out really well."

"The putts were rolling in—especially for Bella," Reese McCauley said. "Kind of jokingly, Bella told me, 'All right, 8-under today,' when we were on the range, so it was fun to set that goal and then end up getting it."

Riley Lewis, from Edwardsville, Ill., and Shannyn Vogler, of Moline, Ill., played their first 13 holes in even par before rattling off three consecutive birdies beginning at the 14th hole, helping them to a round of 3-under 69 to earn a share of second place with Minnesotans Ava Hanneman and Kathryn VanArragon.

Lewis and Vogler made birdie on the first playoff hole to finish as first alternates, while Hanneman and VanArragon earned second alternate honors.

Hanneman, from Orono, Minn., and VanArragon, of Blaine, Minn., started with a string of early birdies to quickly move to 3-under for the tournament, but would play their first four holes of their back nine in 3-over.

The two would battle back by capitalizing on three consecutive birdie chances to boost them to a round of 3-under 69.

Sisters, Isabella and Reese McCauley posted an 8-under-par 64 to earn medalist honors and the lone qualifying spot at the 2022 U.S. Women's Amateur Four-Ball Qualifying

Conzemius rolled in a 25-footer for birdie at the first, but Heltne heated up by converting back-to-back birdie chances at the third and fourth holes.

With Heltne already in for birdie at the seventh, Conzemius gave his team a jolt by sinking his eagle putt to put the pair at 8-under for the tournament.

Heltne would take over from there by sinking back-to-back birdie chances at the eighth and ninth holes to help him and Conzemius to a round of 10-under 62.

"We've always had chemistry. We've been alternates and we've missed by one," Heltne said. "I've played a lot of golf this year, and I woke up this morning and thought, 'I'm going out with a bang.'"

"I felt it from making the first putt on our first hole."

Joining Conzemius and Heltne at the Cassique and River Courses at Kiawah Island Club in Kiawah Island, S.C. next May is the twosome of John Butler and Joel B. Johnson, who shot an 8-under 64 and survived a three-way playoff to claim the second qualifying spot.

"USGA events are the best," said Johnson, who advances to his third USGA championship. "It's first-class all the way around. No matter how we do, it's going to be a blast."

"This is my first time [qualifying], so it's pretty emotional," said Butler, who nearly lost his life in a car accident last summer. "I almost gave up golf and I've been battling back. My game isn't there yet, but luckily Joel bailed me out. Awesome to do it with a good friend like Joel."

Butler and Johnson got off to a blistering start when Johnson converted three consecutive birdie chances to begin the round.

Johnson capitalized once again on his birdie opportunity at the fifth, and Butler reciprocated with his first birdie of the round from six feet at the seventh to put the twosome at 5-under for the tournament.

Butler and Johnson would turn in 7-under after Johnson's back-to-back birdies at the eighth and ninth holes.

The momentum was short-lived, however, as Butler and Johnson carded consecutive pars before taking bogey at the par-4 13th.

Getting back on track with a Butler birdie from 20 feet at the 15th, Johnson rolled in his birdie chance from 10 feet at the par-4 17th to help his team into a three-way tie for second at 8-under 64 with the twosome of Eric Deutsch and Ben Meyer and the team of Shane Barnes and Jay Kautt.

During the playoff, Johnson wedged his approach inside of four feet and rolled in his birdie chance to clinch the final qualifying spot.

"We got off to a hot start today and then we just tried to survive on the back, which we did," Johnson said. "We played 10, 11, 12 and 13 in 1-over and it could've been 6-over, but I made a couple of bombs for par to keep us going."

"Overall, we putted unbelievable. We both putted great, and my iron game was really good. That's the key—if you get good iron play and can putt really well, you're going to make birdies."

Deutsch, winner of the 2004 MGA Amateur, rolled in his par putt from 30 feet during the first playoff hole to secure his spot as first alternates with partner Meyer, while Barnes and Kautt finished as second alternates.

MPGA FOUR-BALL Championship

Format: 36 holes of Four-Ball stroke play in elective flights without handicap (Championship or Senior) with the remaining players divided into net flights based upon the number of entries and handicap. Each team member playing with 85% of his sloped handicap. The cumulative 36-hole team score (best-ball net of the team from each hole) will be the team's score for the championship.

Eligibility: Amateur players who are members of a club that is a member of the Minnesota Public Golf Association (MPGA) and carry an active GHIN handicap at that club. Age requirement for Senior division is at least 50 years of age as of the first day of the championship.

Handicap Limit: The partners' Handicap Indexes may not differ by more than 8.0 at time of entry. If the difference in handicaps changes to more than 8.0 between partners when the pairings are set-up, the higher handicap player will be reduced to 8.0 above the lower handicap player and then be put into the correct flight.

MGA Player Points: Points are awarded for the Championship division and Senior Play Points for the Senior Division.

Conzemius and Hawkinson Champions at MPGA Four-Ball

By Nick Hunter (May 22, 2022)

ELK RIVER, Minn. – Helped by a birdie at the 17th hole, the team of Joe Conzemius and Jordan Hawkinson posted a 36-hole score of 15-under par 129 to claim the 45th Minnesota Public Golf Association Four-Ball Championship at Elk River Golf Club.

Conzemius and Hawkinson followed up a 10-under 62 performance during the opening round by carding a 5-under 67 over the final 18 holes to edge the two-some of John Butler and Joel B. Johnson by one stroke.

"Yesterday was a lot more stress-free than today was," Conzemius said. "Today we had a lot more five or 6-footers that we had to make for par, especially on the front nine to hang in there."

"It's a really fun event to kickstart the year and get the tournament juices going again. I certainly have some work to do on my game, but I think over two days, I'm happy with where my game is and hopefully it's a springboard for the rest of the year."

Conzemius and Hawkinson cruised through a bogey-free opening round, highlighted by a pair of eagles to go along with six birdies to take a two-stroke lead over Butler and Johnson.

"We wanted to keep the same game plan," said Conzemius. "We both were in the fairway a lot. Today it didn't seem like that, and we had to fight more. Hit some good chips, made some good putts and finally got it going."

Conzemius opened the scoring by rolling in his birdie putt at the first to put his team to 11-under for the tournament before the pair carded their second birdie of the front nine at the fifth. Turning in 2-under for round, Hawkinson got up-and-down for birdie at the 10th to maintain a slim lead over Butler and Johnson.

Conzemius and Hawkinson relinquished their lead with a bogey at the par-3 11th, rebounding by making birdie at the 13th and 14th holes, but Butler and Johnson would keep pace with back-to-back birdies of their own. Conzemius rolled in his uphill putt from 10 feet at the par-4 17th to put his team in front for good, making par at the last to post a final-round 5-under 67 to earn the one-stroke victory.

"[Butler and Johnson] played great—they bogeyed their first hole, but from there on they put on the gas and put pressure to us the whole way and it really came down to 17," Conzemius said.

Conzemius notches his first win since 2018, winning the Minnesota Golf Association Amateur Four-Ball Championship with partner Will Hickey at Oak Ridge Country Club. His first state win came at the 2017 MPGA State Public Links Championship on his hometown course, Hastings Golf Club.

"It's great to build momentum," Conzemius said.

"Confidence breeds confidence. Making some of those putts coming down the stretch under pressure is huge."

The win is Hawkinson's second at the event, claiming the 2010 championship at Monticello Country Club with partner Clayton Johnson for his first win in the state.

"It's fun to play with a partner who's always positive. We've played together several times, never as partners," Hawkinson said after the win. "We have a good group of golfing friends and figured we'd tee it up together."

The victory comes as Hawkinson's first since claiming the Lyle Cran Shortstop in 2016 at Stillwater Country Club. In 2014, Hawkinson partnered with Jeff Pint to win the MPGA Combination Championship at Bunker Hills Golf Club. Hawkinson earned medalist honors at the 2012 Northland Invitational at Northland Country Club before teaming with Jesse Larson to win the MGA Amateur Four-Ball Championship at Owatonna Country Club the following year.

Donald Constable, the 2011 MGA Amateur champion who regained his amateur status last season after playing professionally since 2012, combined with playing partner Timmy Peterzen to card back-to-back rounds of 6-under 66, finishing tied for third with 2021 MGA Four-Ball champions Matt Norgaard and Nick Jarrett at 12-under 132.

Entering the final round three shots off the lead, the twosome of Michael Pakkala and Mike Tharp carded a tournament-low 6-under 66 to claim a one-stroke victory over the team of Tim Gordon and Scott Holt in the Senior Division.

MPGA CENTENNIAL

Pro/Am Golf Tournament format:

MPGA is celebrating its centennial with a pro-am golf event to be held on the original site of the first Public Links Championship which is now known as Theodore Wirth GC. 32 pros will compete for a pro prize list, as well as, be joined by 96 amateurs for team prizes in a two of four net competition. A banquet will be held after golf at The Metropolitan Club to celebrate the organization, past Public Links and APL champions, and all of those interested in supporting public golf in Minnesota.

Eligibility: pros and amateurs of all affiliations are invited to register.

Handicap Limit: Pros will compete without handicap for the pro prizes and will be issued a handicap for the team competition. Amateurs will use their handicap index or be given one for the team competition.

MGA Player Points: Points will not be granted for this event.

Peterson Holds Off Burleson to Win Second MPGA Mid Public Links Championship

MPGA

CANNON FALLS, Minn. – Overcoming a dreadful front nine, Trent Peterson survived a final-round surge and a one-hole playoff against Justin Burleson to win the 18th Minnesota Public Golf Association Mid Public Links Championship at Cannon Golf Club.

A 7-under 65 to begin the tournament gave Peterson a sizeable five-stroke lead heading into the final round, but the four-time Minnesota Golf Association Player of the Year carded a 5-over 40 during his opening nine, including a triple-bogey on his opening hole.

Scattering two birdies against one bogey over his final nine holes, Peterson finished in a tie with Burleson at 3-under 141 before winning the first playoff hole to claim his second victory at the event in three seasons.

"Yesterday I played really well all around and gave myself a lot of birdie putts and made a bunch of them. If I made a mistake, I covered it. A very stress-free round," said Peterson of his 65 Saturday. "The pins were harder today and it was a little windier. I hit the ball about the same, but definitely didn't putt as well."

"My plan was to birdie 18 and I birdied 18. I played my final three holes in even par and [Burleson] played them in 3-under. Hats off to him."

With his win, Peterson extends his streak to 10 seasons with at least one state victory. Last season, Peterson edged Ryan Conn by one stroke at Pebble Creek Golf Club to claim his fourth MPGA State Public Links title for his 30th career victory.

The following week, Peterson cruised to a seven-stroke victory at Eagle Creek Golf Club to earn his fourth MGA Mid-Amateur title in five seasons.

"I'm very happy with my game right now. I played really well [at MGA Mid-Players' Championship] last week and ran into Bryce Hanstad, who won the thing," said Peterson, who fell during the semifinal round at Royal Golf Club. "Hopefully I can keep it going next week at the [MGA Players' Championship] and do well."

A wayward tee shot led to a triple-bogey on his first hole of the final round as Peterson's five-stroke lead quickly shrunk to two. He would limit the damage by two-putting for birdie at the par-4 fourth.

Peterson gave back a stroke with a bogey at the sixth before struggling to reach the green at the par-3 ninth, taking double-bogey and a two-stroke lead to the final nine holes.

Still up by two at the 17th, Peterson was unable to get up-and-down to save par after going over the green with his tee shot. He would bounce back by two-putting for birdie on the final hole but watched as Burleson sank his 12-foot eagle opportunity to force extra holes.

With Burleson in trouble off the tee in the playoff, Peterson sank his par putt to claim his second MPGA Mid Public Links Championship since 2020.

Peterson joins Burleson, Sammy Schmitz, Joel B. Johnson and J.T. Johnson as the only players with multiple wins at the tournament since it began in 2005.

Coming up short denied Burleson his first win since the 2020 season, as well as the chance to become the tournament's only three-time winner.

"The course was playing tough today," Burleson said following his round. "Trent and I were both struggling with our putts a little bit today. Three down going into 16 and I played those last three holes great—hit every shot exactly how I wanted."

"Standing over the eagle putt on 18 I was thinking, 'This is why we're out here,' and it went in. I was probably a little amped up on the tee box in the playoff and hit the worst drive of the year."

Burleson posted a 2-under 70 during the opening round before his late round rally led to a round of 71 to finish as the only player in the 54-player field with back-to-back rounds under par.

"I've been struggling a little bit, so it was nice to hit some nice shots this week and play some solid golf," Burleson said.

Ralph Baxley carded a final-round 73 to place third at 1-over 145, while Jason Hasselman, Matt Norgaard and Erik Bredesen all finished in a tie for fourth at 2-over 146.

Johnson Cruises to Fifth MPGA Senior Public Links Title

By Nick Hunter (July 17, 2022)

OAKDALE, Minn. – An eagle and one birdie during his front nine at Oak Marsh Golf Course propelled J.T. Johnson to a final-round 67 to win his fifth Minnesota Public Golf Association Senior Public Links Championship.

Entering the final round in a share of the lead with Stuart Finley following an opening round 69, Johnson cruised on the final day, sinking a birdie on the final hole to successfully defend his title with a six-stroke victory.

"I just found something. I'm driving the ball really well and my iron game is as good as it's ever been," said Johnson, who entered the week coming off a runner-up finish at the Wisconsin State Golf Association Senior Match Play Championship at Stevens Point Country Club.

"I never used to have an iron game and I recently switched [equipment] and now it clicks. Now when I stand over irons, I'm really confident. I'm pretty relaxed because I know I don't have to hit it to sand wedge range anymore."

Despite hitting every green, Johnson was unable to convert several chances early during the final round before hitting an 8-iron to 18 feet at the seventh, where he'd convert his eagle putt to move to 3-under for the championship.

"I felt the greens out for quite a while before I got anything to go," he said. "Everything went right—even the ones I read to break left, went right."

Johnson followed his eagle with a birdie from eight feet at the eighth to turn in 3-under for the round.

In full control during his back nine, Johnson's only blemish came at the par-3 15th, leaving a 5-iron well short of the green leading to his lone bogey of the final round.

Johnson's approach at the last stopped 10 feet from the cup and he would sink one final birdie to shoot a final-round 67, claiming his fifth win in eight seasons.

"Pretty conservative approach today," Johnson said.

"I thought if I could shoot even or 1-under today, I would be really, really close at the end.

"I figured the guys not in our group were going to press a little bit, and this is a course where if you press and pull it off, you can go really low."

With his win, Johnson ties Bob Gammon for most wins at the event with five. The 58-year-old Johnson will now set his sights on the 119th Minnesota Golf Association Amateur Championship beginning Monday at his home course at Olympic Hills Golf Club.

In five previous appearances at the MGA Amateur Championship, Johnson's previous best finish came in 2015 when he tied for 12th at Northland Country Club.

"I caught lightning in a bottle in 2015 at Northland when I had the lead after the first day," Johnson said.

"I will not have the lead this week, but if I can make the cut at my course, it would be a homerun. I would feel just as good as I do right now."

JT Johnson won the Championship Division with a score of 69-67—136 (-4).

Scott Hogan won the 65 & Over Division with a score of 70-70—140 (E).

Net Division winners were, Ramiro Sifuentes (First Flight) and Roger Hamm (Second Flight).

Claiming his first MPGA Senior Public Links title in 2014 at Pokegama Golf Club, Johnson would then earn back-to-back victories in 2017 at Monticello Country Club and 2018 at Southern Hills Golf Club.

Johnson sank his birdie putt on the 36th hole of last year's championship at Eastwood Golf Club to edge Ken Gerzsenyi by one stroke for his fourth win at the championship.

"I'm going to be 59 in two weeks and I feel like I'm 50 again," Johnson said. "I always looked at [four-time MGA Senior Amateur champion] Jim Lehman and [four-time MGA Senior Player of the Year] Jerry Rose, who are 63 and 64, and they play like they're 50. Hopefully, I can do this for a few more years."

Overcoming a rocky start, 2019 champion Rick Frieberg bounced back from a quadruple-bogey at the fourth by carding an eagle and a birdie over his final three holes to post a second consecutive round of 71 to finish in second at 2-over 142.

Mark Sperling and Jeff Teal each carded rounds of 4-over 74 to finish tied for third, along with 2009 champion John Anderson at 5-over 145.

Sinking his birdie putt on the second playoff hole, 2016 champion Scott Hogan edged Gerzsenyi to claim the 65 & Over Division. Hogan posted back-to-back rounds of even par 70, including a birdie on his final hole to force a two-way playoff.

Arntsen and Hicks Winners at MPGA Junior Public Links

By Jack Mendesh (July 18, 2022)

ST. PAUL, MINN. – After winning the MGA Junior Girls' Championship at Fox Hollow GC, Madi Hicks, MN Youth on Course, is a champion again at the 2022 MPGA Junior Public Links Girls Division at Goodrich GC. Hicks opened the 27-hole event with a four-over par 74 and followed that up with a one-over par 36 to claim a three-stroke victory over Avery O'Donnell.

Hicks got off to a shaky start double bogeying the 1st and bogeying the 2nd holes. She righted the ship with birdies on the 5th and 9th holes against two bogeys on the 6th and 8th holes to make the turn at three-over 38. She got off to a hot start on the back nine birdieing the 10th hole and would make six pars in a row before bogeying the last two holes to post a 74, trailing Lanie Veenendall by one-stroke going into the final nine. Hicks finished off the event with a steady one-over par 36 to claim the three-shot victory.

Lucas Arntsen had a good start firing two birdies, on the 3rd and 7th holes, on his way to an opening nine two-under 33 at Goodrich GC. Arntsen struggled on the way in carding five bogeys over his last nine holes to shoot five-over 40 adding up to a three-over 73. He trailed the two leaders Jacob Ferrin and Austin Roloff who each shot 71.

Entering the final nine holes two-shots back, Arntsen did what he needed to do carding a bogey-free two-under par 33 with birdies on the 3rd and 4th holes to claim the 2022 MPGA Junior Public Links Boys Division. This is the first state victory for Arntsen who attends Chanhassen High School.

At left, Lucas Arntsen (Island View GC) won the Boys Division with a score of 73-33--106 (+1).

At right, Madi Hicks (MN Youth on Course) won the Girls Division with a score of 74-36--110 (+5).

A Birdie on the Final Hole Gives Tylke Third MPGA Public Links Title

By Nick Hunter (August 21, 2022)

HASTINGS, Minn. – Max Tylke has emerged as one of the state's most consistent players in recent years, playing some of his best golf despite running into a common issue for most amateur golfers—fitting golf into life's hectic schedule.

"It's finding that balance of life, work, golf and other recreational activities. To tee it up and play is hard enough as it is. I feel like I'm starting to find a happy balance," the 29-year-old Tylke said. "I've been playing better the last month—I don't know exactly what I can attest that to."

Sinking his birdie putt from eight feet at the 18th, Tylke carded a final-round 69 to claim a one-stroke victory over Caleb VanArragon at the 100th Minnesota Public Golf Association Public Links Championship.

Tylke has now earned at least one victory in seven consecutive seasons, collecting his ninth state championship victory, with more than half coming at MPGA events. He joins six others since the tournament's inception in 1923 to win three times.

"I'm really excited because this is one of my favorite events all year," he said. "I've loved it since the beginning—the MPGA has been great to me. I love that I can say that I have three wins."

Entering the final round four shots back following his 2-under 70 in the opening round, Tylke started slow, playing his first six holes in 1-over par.

"I came in four back and you look at it one way or the other—you have to go low to have a chance, or you hope someone comes back," he said. "With the start I had today, I knew I was going to have to have a great back nine. I hit the ball okay at the start, but it seemed like at each hole I did something stupid."

Tylke quickly turned his day around at the seventh, where he two-putted for birdie, and followed it by sinking a 6-footer for par to remain even for the round.

He would turn in 3-under for the championship with his birdie from 10 feet at the par-3 ninth.

"You don't make a lot of 15, 20-footers or midrange putts," Tylke said. "Making a putt there boosted the whole round. Making the turn from there, the golf swing felt different—it felt better."

Converting his short birdie chance at the 10th quickly moved Tylke up the leaderboard, and he would grab a share of the lead at 4-under by dropping his birdie opportunity from eight feet at the 11th.

Wedging his approach to eight feet at the last, Tylke sank one final birdie putt to claim a one-stroke victory at 5-under 139.

"Yesterday I played great. I just struggled with the greens because they were very soft," Tylke said. "I hit the ball great, but you could tell the greens were wet and it was hard to get a ball close. I played better yesterday than what my score showed."

"My chipping was great today. I think I had three or four good up-and-downs on the back nine."

The finish marked yet another close call for the Valparaiso University senior VanArragon, who fired a final-round 66 at Bunker Hills last month to fall one shot shy of Van Holmgren at the Minnesota State Open.

The 2021 Twin Cities champion VanArragon posted a 1-under 71 in the opening round and would quickly climb into contention by carding four birdies against one bogey during his front nine in the final round to get to 4-under for the tournament.

But VanArragon was unable to get anything going during his final nine holes, carding nine consecutive pars to place second at 4-under 140.

"I was struggling with my swing a little bit again this week," VanArragon said. "I saved myself with my short game and putting yesterday. Today I was able to hit some good iron shots on the front, but I just wasn't able to get any birdie looks or anything to fall on the back.

"Overall, I'm pretty happy with the tournament. Congrats to Max, he played so well. We have our first [college] tournament in a couple of weeks, so I'm looking forward to that. Hopefully get the swing a little bit dialed in."

University of St. Thomas golfer Matt Armstrong turned in his second strong performance of the week, firing a 4-under 68 to place tied for third with Ralph Baxley at 141.

MPGA COMBINATION Championship

Format: This tournament is a 27-hole, one-day event. Each two-man team will play nine holes partner best ball, nine holes partner scramble (best shot), and nine holes partner alternate shot. The championship division is elective. Other teams shall be divided into flights based on total team handicap and shall play at gross, except for the highest handicapped flight which will play at net.

Eligibility: Open to amateur players who are members of a club that is a member of the Minnesota Public Golf Association and carry an active GHIN handicap at that club.

Handicap Limit: The partners' Handicap Indexes may not differ by more than 8.0 at time of entry. If the difference in handicaps changes to more than 8.0 between partners when the pairings are set-up, the higher handicap player will be reduced to 8.0 above the lower handicap player and then be put into the correct division.

MGA Player Points: Points are awarded for the Championship Flight.

Hafdal and Quesnel Winners at 2022 MPGA Combo

By Nick Hunter (September 18, 2022)

NEW RICHMOND, WIS. -- Carding eight birdies during their first nine holes at New Richmond Golf Club helped the team of John Hafdal and Jamie Quesnel to a one-stroke victory at the 37th Minnesota Public Golf Association Combination Championship.

Teaming up for the first time, Hafdal and Quesnel came out firing during their front nine, the scramble portion of the championship, by shooting 8-under 28 to take the early lead.

The twosome would then card a pair of birdies during the best ball format to maintain a slim lead before scattering three birdies and three bogeys over their final nine holes, playing a Modified Chap-man alternate shot format, shooting even par 36.

"I've played in the [State Amateur] and State Open and finished in the middle of the pack, but having this first state win is one of those things where it's a chip off your shoulder," Hafdal said. "It feels good to know that we can play with the best amateurs in Minnesota and stick with them."

"I'm really excited to win," said Quesnel, who earns his biggest victory to date, "I've had a lot of chances, but to actually win one is sweet."

Finishing at 10-under 98, Hafdal and Quesnel edged the team of Shane Barnes and 2008 champion Trent Peterson, Kane Bauer and Joel B. Johnson as well as Eastview High School seniors Joey Rohlwing and Tyler Wanous.

"We talked before the round and he said he's been putting well, and I said my short game has been good, too," Quesnel said. "Let's give ourselves some looks and I think we'll be fine.

"We had three birdies on [the final nine], so it wasn't bad. We just had some mistakes."

During their final nine holes of alternate shot, which proved to be the most difficult format of the championship as only two teams posted a nine-hole score below par, Hafdal and Quesnel found a successful formula as Quesnel found the fairway and Hafdal manufactured scoring chances by hitting greens in regulation.

At the first, Hafdal hit a sand wedge to six feet and Quesnel buried his birdie opportunity to put the twosome at 11-under for the tournament.

Hafdal again wedged his approach inside of eight feet at the second and Quesnel converted a second consecutive birdie opportunity to help put his team at 12-under.

Following back-to-back bogeys at the third and fourth, Hafdal reached the par-4 fifth with his approach and Quesnel rolled in his putt from 15 feet for the two-some's final birdie of the day to get back to 11-under.

A bogey at the 27th and final hole would putt Hafdal and Quesnel one clear of the field at 10-under 98.

"We did a good job of staying in the moment and not getting ahead of ourselves," Hafdal said. "Getting off to a hot start in the scramble portion really helped because if you don't play well in that, you're not going to make up strokes in the best ball or alternate shot."

Barnes and Peterson, who partnered with J.T. Johnson to win the 2013 championship at Bunker Hills, posted a 6-under 30 to begin the championship, following it with a 3-under 33 during the best ball portion of the event.

Carding nine consecutive pars over their final nine holes, Barnes and Peterson would finish in a share of second at 9-under 99.

Bauer and Johnson, winners in 2019 at Bunker Hills, carded five birdies during their opening nine Sunday before combining for four birdies during their second nine to reach 9-under. The two would come up one shy after tallying two birdies and two bogeys over their final nine.

Johnson also teamed up J.T. Johnson to win the 2010 tournament at Bunker Hills.

Making their inaugural appearance at the championship this week, Rohlwing and Wanous opened with a 6-under 30 during the first nine Sunday, and would card three birdies during the Best Ball format to head to the final nine holes one shot off the lead.

Playing their first eight holes of the final nine in 1-over, the two would tally a birdie on the final hole to earn a share of second at 9-under 99.

Stevens, Wetzel & Rexing Tie for 1st in AAA Boys;

Edina Is Team Champ

By Mike Fermoye (June 15, 2022)

COON RAPIDS -- Nate Stevens has been the No. 1-ranked player in Minnesota boys high school golf since the beginning of the 2021 season. He capped off his junior year at Northfield with a nearly flawless performance while winning the state Class AAA championship with a record low 36-hole score of 134, 10 under par.

He was trying to conclude his senior season by repeating as the state large-school champion. He didn't exactly have his best stuff tee to green, but he was doing what good players do -- taking advantage of his scoring chances when he got them, and saving pars with his short game when he didn't. And on what might have been the hardest hole at Bunker Hills Golf Course this week, the 220-yard, par-3 17th (No. 8 West), he hit his best shot of the day, a hybrid to 10 feet. He then converted the birdie putt, and although there were a lot of players still on the course, he was now leading the tournament.

"I think I got a little too amped up," he said later. When I made the putt, I pumped my fist, and I never do that."

The excitement seemed to carry over to the 18th tee, where he pulled his tee shot into the trees. But just as he had done all day, Stevens manufactured a pretty good shot and got out of trouble, leaving himself a simple chip from about 8 feet short of the green to a cup 35 feet away. His chip shot from there was a little weak, however, and he needed to make a 4-foot putt to save his par.

The putt looked pretty good with a foot to go. Then it snapped off to the left, caught the edge of the cup -- and lippled out.

That closing bogey notwithstanding, Stevens managed to shoot a 2-under-par 70, and put a two-day total of 140 on the scoreboard, and it turned out to be good enough to earn him a tie for first place, along with seniors Jack Wetzel of Edina and Owen Rexing of Rosemount. Much to the chagrin of the three tri-champions and most of the spectators at Bunker Hills on Wednesday, the Minnesota State

CLASS AAA - GIRLS

VanArragon Holds off McCauley Sisters, Wins AAA Girls; Alex Is Team Champ

By Mike Fermoye (June 15, 2022)

COON RAPIDS -- The McCauley sisters were as good as advertised this week in the Class AAA portion of the girls state high school tournament. They were a combined 12 under par at Bunker Hills Golf Course. But Kathryn VanArragon was even better.

This was a contest of three former state champions, and VanArragon came away with her second state title. Basically, the Blaine junior turned the second round into a Trouble Shot & Short Game Clinic, as she put together a 2-under-par 70 and tied the tournament record total of 135 (9 under), which gave her a two-shot victory over Simley senior Bella McCauley, the 2019 champ.

McCauley's younger sister Reese, a junior -- the McCauley's are actually home-schooled, but they live in the Simley district; so they play for the Spartans -- shot 71 and finished third at 139.

Chanhassen senior Madi Hicks was No. 4, and that was where she wound up at Bunker Hills, tied for fourth at 145, thanks to a second-round 70. McKenna Mallow, a senior from Detroit Lakes, was the player who tied Hicks for fourth, after a second-round 75.

Then came Cora Larson of Alexandria. She followed a 75 with a 71, which helped Alex secure the AAA

Pine Island-Zumbrota-Mazeppa Boys Go Wire-to-Wire in Class AA; Udovich Wins Top Individual

By Nick Hunter (June 15, 2022)

JORDAN, Minn. – Opening the 2022 Minnesota State High School Class AA Tournament with a seemingly safe 11-stroke lead, the Pine-Island-Zumbrota-Mazeppa boys golf team posted a team tally of 307, surviving a second-day surge by Holy Family Catholic High School to earn a four-stroke victory at Ridge at Sand Creek.

Senior Anders Larson backed up his opening-round 73 by carding an even par 72 on the final day to lead the Wildcats to the team title. Junior Joseph Scripture posted a 2-over 74 to help lift the Wildcats by notching at top-10 finish with his individual performance.

Junior Michael Scripture carded an 81 on the final day of competition to finish tied for 33rd, while sophomore Cameron Bruns turned in a final-round 82 to place tied for 41st.

Beginning the final round with a share of the lead, St. Croix Lutheran freshman Sam Udovich got off to a quick start with two birdies over his first three holes on his way to a round of 1-under 71 to claim a two-stroke victory over Southwest Christian's Jacob Ferrin, finishing at 2-under 142.

Ferrin scattered three birdies and two bogeys over his opening nine of the final round, but carded a pair of bogeys during his inward nine to post a final-round 73.

Perham senior Marcus Belka posted the low round of the tournament, helped by three birdies during his front nine to card a final-round 70 and place third at 145.

CLASS AA - GIRLS

Lake City Girls Go Back-to-Back; Perham's Belka Successfully Defends Individual Title

By Nick Hunter (June 15, 2022)

JORDAN, Minn. – The girls golf team from Lake City High School entered the final round of the 2022 Minnesota State High School Girls' Class AA Tournament at Ridges at Sand Creek with a 27-stroke victory, and despite weather shortening the round to just nine holes, the Tigers successfully defended its team title with a 39-stroke victory over Fergus Falls.

Sophomore Ella Matzke led the charge for the Lake City girls for a second consecutive day, bouncing back from three early bogeys with a birdie at the par-3 15th to secure a second-place finish at 9-over 117. Junior Emma Berge fired a 3-over 39 during the final round to finish tied for 11th at 123 with sophomore teammate Jordan Windhorst-Knudsen.

Posting a 4-over 76 in challenging conditions during the opening round gave defending individual champion Mallory Belka a two-stroke advantage.

The Perham senior closed out her high school career with a 2-over 38 during the shortened final-round to successfully defend her Class AA title.

Pequot Lakes High School and the girls from Minnawaska each posted final-round tallies of 173 to finish third and fourth, respectively.

High School League does not play off ties in the individual competitions, and probably never will.

Wetzel, who was tied with Stevens when the day began, shot 70 for the second day in a row. Rexing turned in the low score of the day -- and tournament -- a 69.

It was not a satisfying conclusion to the AAA boys tournament, especially for Stevens, who will be heading off to Notre Dame in September.

"Bittersweet," was how he described it. "I'll probably feel better about it eventually, but not right now."

When he was asked afterward how many times out of 20 he would expect to get up and down from where he had been on 18, he replied: "I would say 20 out of 20, but I guess it's more like 19. I can't believe I made that bogey."

Wetzel and Rexing were a little more sanguine about the result. In Wetzel's case, there was an element of redemption. Last year, he was tied with Stevens going into the second day, but shot a 77, part of a disappointing day for the Edina team. The Hornets led after one day in '21, but were overtaken on Day 2 by Maple Grove, which produced a record one-day score -- 283 (5 under) -- and won by 16.

"My primary goal was to help the team," said Wetzel, a Minnesota recruit.

He did, and the Hornets won the 196th state championship for their school (counting all incarnations of Edina High School -- Edina Morningside, Edina, Edina East and Edina West), which was also their seventh in golf. Having shot 298 the first day, they improved on that with a second-day 291. The resulting overall 589 was good for a 14-stroke victory over Spring Lake Park. Alexandria was another nine back in third, at 612.

Edina always seems to have deep boys teams, and this year was no exception. Three of the Hornets -- Wetzel, Charlie Nasby (149) and Torger Ohe (150) -- all finished in the top 20 individually. Ben Sanderson tied for 29th at 152, and Owen Nielsen for 33rd at 153. Andrew Cavender was the sixth man this week, and he finished in the top half of the field, at No. 41, with a 156.

Stevens and Wetzel started the day one ahead of Rexing, but that changed quickly, when Stevens bogeyed the 427-yard, par-4 first hole (No. 1 East), and Rexing birdied it. Wetzel bogeyed the third hole. Wetzel birdied the 486-yard, par-5 fourth hole -- the easiest hole on the course -- but so did Rexing. Stevens hit a 9-iron from 160 yards to 10 feet -- and made an eagle.

Stevens and Wetzel both birdied the 535-yard, par-5 sixth, which got Stevens to 2 under for the day, but he bogeyed the par-3 seventh (200 yards). Wetzel birdied the eighth and got to his ultimate destination -- 4 under for the tournament. Rexing, who will be part of surprisingly strong freshman class at St. Thomas this fall, was also at 4 under, after a birdie at the ninth.

Actually, this wasn't happening in real time. Wetzel and everyone else playing with a team was behind Stevens and Rexing, neither of whose teams got into the tournament.

Stevens took the lead on the back nine, albeit briefly, with birdies at the 420-yard, par-4 15th and 17th, before giving one back at the 18th. Rexing, playing in the same group with Stevens, slipped back with bogeys at the 10th and 15th. So he was two behind Stevens going into the 18th hole, but then he got a reversal -- he made birdie and Stevens made bogey.

Wetzel was in the last foursome that finished on the West Nine, and he pulled ahead of Stevens and Rexing with a birdie at the 11th. But then he bogeyed the 13th (373 yards). He went in front for one last time when he birdied the par-5 14th, before coming back to Stevens and Rexing with a bogey at the 15th.

Edina's Jack Wetzel tees off on the par-5, 14th hole during the final round of the 2022 Class 3A Minnesota Boys State Golf Tournament. Wetzel finished as a co-medalist after rounds of 70-70-140 (-4).

girls team championship for the second year in a row. And for the second year in a row, Maple Grove finished second. The Cardinals, who finished 22 ahead of the Crimson last year, won by 16 this year, 628 to 644.

Eastview claimed third place in the team competition with a two-day tab of 654. The Lightning improved on their first-round total of 331 by eight strokes with a 323. That was also how much Lauryn Finley improved her score. A friend of the McCauley's and a fellow Southview Country Club member, Finley came back from a first-round 78 with a 70 and finished seventh individually with the resulting total of 148.

Eden Prairie's Day 2 performance showed a significantly bigger improvement, from 344 to 315, led by Emma Davis, who followed a 79 with a 70. She tied Avery O'Donnell of Elk River for eighth at 149. O'Donnell shot 73.

Hannah Boraas gave team champ Alexandria a second player in the top 10 of the individual standings, with an aggregate of 150 (76-74). As for last year's runner-up, Olivia Salonek, the Roseville junior opened with a disastrous 81 but came back with a 70 in the second round, despite missing several times for birdie from close range, and finished 11th at 151.

It was Reese McCauley who got off to the quickest start in the first round. She was 4 under after five holes (East Course), but that was where she ended the day. VanArragon birdied two of the first four holes, and just kept making birdies -- eight in all -- as she set a tournament record with her 7-under 65. Bella started this tournament the way she started in 2019, with a 67.

Reese got off to another fast start during the final round, with three birdies in the first four holes. But for the second day in a row, she gave one back at the par-5 sixth, and she didn't make another birdie until the 14th hole. Bella played the front nine in 1 under and was even with her sister at minus 6. Through eight holes, she was one behind VanArragon, but then Kathryn started to work magic with her wedges and putter.

VanArragon had made a 20-footer for birdie at the par-4 second and knocked a hybrid onto the green in two at the fourth, then two putted for birdie. But she gave back strokes at the fifth and sixth holes, a result of errant drives. It looked as if she might lose another shot to par when she hit her tee shot at the ninth deep into the trees. But she found an opening to the green, and hit her second shot to within 6 feet of the cup. She made the birdie putt. Then she pulled her drive at the dogleg left 10th hole (No. 1 West), but she got past the trees on the corner of the dogleg, hit that approach to 4 feet, and she made that putt, too, expanding her lead to three.

"I was struggling with my driver in the middle of the round," she conceded.

VanArragon's birdies at the ninth and 10th were followed by a series of par saves, beginning at No. 11, where she hit another drive left, and ended up in a hazzard. She took her drop, and hit a good third shot, then hit a gorgeous wedge shot from 50 yards and made a 6-footer for par. Bella McCauley hit her second shot on the 430-yard par 5 a few yards short of the green, and followed it with a chip to within 6 inches for a birdie. That cut VanArragon's lead over her to two.

After saving the par at 11, she two-putted for par from long distance at the 12th, where she made another putt in the 4-to-6 foot range.

"I've been working pretty hard on my short game and putting this spring," she noted. "A lot of it has been trying to match the speed and the break on my putts, because you have to do both things to putt well -- and it's not that easy."

It appeared that VanArragon might end the suspense at the par-4 16th hole, where Bella, hitting her second shot as a train rolled by, pulled the shot into the left greenside bunker. Thirty seconds later, VanArragon's wedge shot trickled just past the pin and left her with a 6-footer for birdie. But McCauley saved par from the bunker with an 8-foot putt. VanArragon then missed her birdie putt and had to make a 2-footer coming back for her par.

"I didn't hit my birdie putt all that badly," she said, "but I hit it a little too hard, and I wound up with a par putt that was longer than what I wanted."

The clincher for VanArragon came at the 180-yard, par-3 17th hole, where he knocked her tee shot about 7 or 8 yards over the green. She had to land her chip/pitch in some gnarly rough and let it trickle onto the green. She did it perfectly. When she made the 2-footer for par and then hit the center of the fairway with her 250-yard drive at the 18th, the game was over.

Her 135 total this year was eight shots better than her winning total from four years ago -- when she was a seventh-grader.

"Bella and Reese are both friends of mine, VanArragon said. "We've been playing in the same tournaments for a long time. They've made me a better player, and I'm sure they're better because they've been competing against me."

Fox Rallies in the Wind to Claim 2nd Twin Cities Championship

By Mike Fermoy (June 27, 2022)

HASTINGS -- The winter of 2021-22 was like a guest who refused to leave. When it did depart, and the golf season began, finally, the wind showed up. For most courses in the Twin Cities, the first full weekend of golf this spring began Friday, April 22 -- accompanied by an East wind that averaged about 15 to 20 miles per hour. The next day was the same, and the next day, and the next day, and so on.

Although the wind direction has changed, the velocities have been monotonously similar -- somewhere in double digits almost every day.

And Sunday was the worst we've had so far, at least as far as the wind was concerned. The velocity was 20 miles per hour most of the time, and there were gusts in excess of 30 mph.

All of which helps to explain why Max Fox was happy with the 3-over-par 75 he shot at Hastings Golf Club in the final round of the Twin Cities Championship, and was better than the 73 he opened with in the first round in relatively benign conditions (winds of 10 to 15 mph) at Theodore Worth GC. And it was good enough to make up the three-stroke deficit he faced at the beginning of the day.

Fox, who came from three behind to win the TCC in 2017, did it again this year. His total of 148 earned him a two-shot victory over Stellan Orvick.

"It was brutal today," Fox said. "Basically, it was a two-club wind when it was behind you, and it was as much as three clubs sometimes when it was against you. Club selection has been a challenge all spring, and it was really tough today."

Fox is a 30-year-old financial advisor who has played Hastings GC all his life. Like most golfers his age, he can hit a driver 300 yards or more, and he was tempted to use it on the 335-yard second hole, which was playing directly downwind.

"But it wasn't worth the risk," he said. "Both of the guys I played with hit drivers, and they both wound up in the trees. I hit a 6-iron off the tee."

His strategy worked. He hit a wedge to 12 feet and made the putt.

"I really didn't hit it all that well tee to green either day," he admitted. "My putter was the difference. The wind was affecting putts, because it was so strong, but I didn't have any three-putts in two days. My putting was great."

He made one bomb, a 40-footer for birdie at the 183-yard, par-3 sixth hole, and he followed that with a birdie at the par-5 seventh, which is only 475 yards, and like No. 2, was playing downwind. But he missed the fairway with his tee shot and was 40 yards short in two. From there, however, he hit a wedge shot to a foot.

Orvick, 20, a junior-to-be at Augsburg University, shot 70 in the opening round at Wirth and was the overnight leader. He made four birdies in the adverse conditions during the final round, and didn't play all that badly. But he had a couple of disasters, and those two holes cost him six shots.

"I made a quad and a double," he said, smiling ruefully.

He made the quad at the 10th hole, and the 520-yard, dogleg par 5, was the hole that, more than any other, decided the tournament.

TCC

Maxwell Fox, Hastings GC, pitches to the par-3 ninth green during the 2022 Twin Cities Championship at the Hastings Golf Club. Fox finished as the champion with rounds of 73-75—148 (+4).

Orvick got in trouble with his tee shot -- and then went for a heroic recovery. That proved to be a costly mistake. It just got him into more trouble.

Meanwhile, Fox was hitting a nearly perfect drive, cutting the dogleg by going over the trees to the right of the fairway -- "I cut a lot off, almost too much" -- and then hit a 9-iron second shot to 20 feet.

He nearly made the putt, and tapped in for a birdie.

That was a five-shot swing on one hole.

"He's really good," Fox said of Orvick. "He's young, has a great swing, and as he plays in more tournaments and gains experience, he'll have a lot of success, I think."

Stenzel, Youngquist Are Playoff Winners in Twin Cities Championships

By Mike Fermoye (June 23, 2022)

BLAINE -- Samantha Youngquist was spotting the 2019 Twin Cities Junior champ, Madi Hicks, roughly 20 to 30 yards off the tee, yet she won the playoff between them for the Girls 16-18 Division crown.

Youngquist bogeyed the first hole, birdied the second and then made three consecutive bogeys at the third, fourth and fifth. She birdied the par-3 seventh and, even though she says that she hardly ever birdies par 5's, she birdied the 436-yard, par-5 12th and the 425-yard, par-5 16th.

She got to 1 under for the round with a birdie at the par-3 17th but bogeyed the 18th to finish at even par.

Hicks got off to a good start, with birdies at the second and third holes, but she bogeyed the other par 5 on the front nine, No. 5, and she doubled the 121-yard par-3 eighth, where she had a plugged lie in a bunker.

She was 2 over for the round after a bogey at the par-4 13th (376 yards), but she birdied each of the three-remaining par-4's on the way to the clubhouse (Nos. 14, 15 and 18), and bogeyed the 17th.

Hicks, at the 399-yard first, was 40 feet away from the cup while Youngquist missed the green left. They both made par.

"That's the first time I've ever parred that hole," Youngquist noted afterward.

On the par-5 second, Youngquist hit her 5-hybrid to the front fringe. Hicks hit a pitching wedge from a less-than-great lie and pushed it a few feet into the rough just short of the green.

It was a thick lie, and her chip shot came out hot, ending up 12 feet away. Youngquist's first putt left her with a tap-in for birdie. Hicks missed her birdie attempt, and the title belonged to Youngquist.

There was one other playoff in the Twin Cities Junior Championships, in the Boys 16-18 Division, and that one, too, was won by the shorter hitter, Carter Stenzel, a Chanhassen senior to be.

He and Sam Hart of Eastview both shot 71's, just like the girls in the 16-18's. Neither of them got off to a great -- or even good -- start. Stenzel birdied the second hole, but then bogeyed four of the next five holes, including three in a row at the third, fourth and fifth.

His back nine was an entirely different story, featuring three birdies in a row at the 13th, 14th and 15th holes.

He missed a chance for four birdies in a row at the par-5 16th, and instead, wound up with a bogey there but he made a 15-footer for birdie at the 394-yard, par-4 18th to finish at even par.

Hart, like Stenzel, was 3 over after seven holes. He started his turn-around with a birdie at the par-3 eighth. He reached the green at the 498-yard, par-5 12th in two and nearly made his 15-foot eagle putt. He made two more birdies, at the 14th and 18th to reserve his spot in the playoff.

The boys playoff started on the back nine, at the 358-yard 10th hole, which they tied with par.

The 11th was playing 172 yards. Hart hit another penetrating shot, this time with a 7-iron. You could say the shot was too good. It flew the green and came to rest in low area 10 yards behind the green.

Stenzel hit an 8-iron on the 11th hole during his round, "and it came up way short."

So he was planning to hit a 6-iron there in the playoff -- until he saw Hart's shot -- and he switched to a 7. That was the right club. He hit the tee shot to 30 feet, and this attempted birdie putt was even better than the one he hit at 10. It fell in, and he was the winner.

Piotrowski Collects First State Win at Twin Cities Senior Championship

By Nick Hunter (August 3, 2022)

LAKEVILLE -- Playing at state golf championships for nearly 25 years, 51-year-old Keith Piotrowski has had several close calls, but never finished on top of a leaderboard.

That changed when Piotrowski fired a 2-over 73 at Brackett's Crossing Country Club to earn a one-stroke victory over Paul Schubring at the 31st Twin Cities Senior Championship.

"Nobody is more surprised than me," Piotrowski confessed following his win. "I'm happy to be playing in these events. It's my first full year as a senior and I play to hang out with the guys, so this is absolutely a thrill.

"I love playing in the Twin Cities Championship—the regular and the senior now—and I love playing in state events. I'm here to fill the field and maybe have a good couple of rounds, but I love to play with good players in competition, and this is a great opportunity."

Playing the course for the first time, Piotrowski three-putted the first for bogey, but rebounded by converting his birdie opportunity from 15 feet at the second to draw even.

After his second bogey of the day at the fifth, Piotrowski answered by hitting his wedge to 14 feet at the ninth and rolled in birdie to turn in even par.

Struggling to begin his back nine with three bogeys over a four-hole stretch, Piotrowski slipped to 3-over, but he quickly made up ground by rolling in back-to-back birdies from inside of eight feet at the 14th and 15th, moving back to 1-over.

He would card a bogey at the last, but a 2-over 73 was just enough to earn Piotrowski his first state win.

"I putted well—I had four three-putts and I still putted well," Piotrowski said. "That speaks to these greens because if you get on the wrong sides, you're in trouble.

"I never had any big misses and was never out of play. The only problem was that I pitched and chipped terribly, so I missed a bunch of 12-footers for par. It was a grind the whole way through."

Schubring tallied a pair of early birdies to begin his round, and would turn in even par for the round.

Even through 14 holes, a bogey-double-bogey stretch dropped him to 4-over, but he would make a late push by sinking his birdie chance at the 18th to finish one shot back at 3-over 74.

Randy Jacobus, Tim Gordon, Mark Knutson and Chris Tollefsrud each carded rounds of 4-over 75 to finish in a share of third place, two shots back.

Posting a 3-over 74, Dale Speetzen claimed victory in the 65 and over Masters Division, four shots ahead of past Minnesota Golf Association president Tom Smith.

Speetzen, also from University Golf Club, began his round on the 10th tee and would card back-to-back bogeys before pulling even with a pair of birdies at the 13th and 15th holes.

Turning in 1-over, Speetzen fell to 2-over following a bogey at the first, but rallied with back-to-back birdies at the second and third.

Keith Piotrowski (left) and Dale Speetzen (right), of the University Golf Club, were the respective senior and master division champions of the Twin Cities Senior Championship, at Brackett's Crossing Country Club.

Stumbling down the stretch, Speetzen tallied a double-bogey at the fourth before a bogey at the seventh, but was able to come away with a four-stroke victory over Smith in the Masters Division.

"Short irons made the difference—I hit a lot of short irons closer than I normally would," Speetzen said following his round. "I've struggled with it lately, but fixed it a few days ago. I made some good putts that I haven't made before.

"I'm not a long hitter. I don't hit a lot of fairways and I don't even hit a lot of greens in regulation. My game is getting up-and-down, and I did it well today."

Smith Rallies Late to Claim Twin Cities Open

By Nick Hunter (May 18, 2022)

MAPLE GROVE, Minn. – A pair of birdies on the final two holes of his round lifted professional Andy Smith to a one-stroke victory at the 2022 Twin Cities Open at Rush Creek Golf Club.

Smith, the lead assistant professional at Hazeltine National Golf Club, surrendered his lead early during his back nine, but surged late with back-to-back birdies to card a final-round 70, edging former University of Wisconsin-Stout teammate Derek Holmes and Bethel University golfer Conor Schubring.

"This win is big for me. I've won a lot of single-day events and a couple of assistant's championships since I turned pro, but this is my first multi-day win since college," Smith said following his round. "I know I can compete with the best players in the section and it gives me a lot of confidence moving forward."

"I trusted the process and it showed itself yesterday and today. If you keep hitting the ball where I normally do, something's eventually going to go in. Getting opportunities to make birdies and to make nothing bigger than a bogey—kind of the name of the game for me."

The opening round 5-under 67 came as a bit of a surprise to Smith, who, a day earlier, walked off the course at an event in frustration. A lengthy practice session on the putting green seemingly boosted his confidence to take a one-stroke lead over North Dakota State University golfer Nate Adams after the first round of play.

"Today was a very similar day to yesterday as far as how I attacked the golf course," Smith said. "I had a lot of the same length putts, but nothing was going in, especially early. One of those days where it starts to eat away and in the back of your head you wonder if anything is going to go in."

Smith rolled in his birdie chance from six feet at the par-5 second hole to extend his lead, which he'd keep until the 12th, missing a 4-footer for par for his first bogey over his previous 21 holes. Smith avoided his second bogey of the day by rolling in a 6-footer for par at the 15th to remain within one of Holmes.

Curling in an 8-footer at the 17th to pull back within one shot of the lead, Smith then took advantage of a Holmes bogey at the last by chipping to three feet and converting his birdie chance to claim a one-stroke victory at 7-under 137.

"The putt [to save par] on 15 definitely kept the round going and gave me the feel for the putter, but the putt on 17 was the one that kind of kickstarted everything, even though it wasn't the best paced putt. It gave me confidence going to the 18th hole," said Smith.

"Today was one of the cleanest scorecards I've ever had for a tournament round—I've never had a bogey-free round. To have one [bogey] with three birdies is pretty good."

Holmes entered the final round two shots back and quickly made-up ground with birdies at the third and fifth holes to pull within one shot of the lead. A two-putt birdie for Holmes at the par-5 10 gave him a share of the lead and he'd take the outright lead following Smith's bogey at the 12th.

In control with a bogey-free round, Holmes dropped his birdie putt from six feet at the 16th to take a two-stroke lead late. However, Holmes sent his approach on the final hole over the green and was unable to get up-and-down to save par to force a playoff.

Conor Schubring (at right) fired a final round 70 to finish T-2 and as low amateur with a total score of 138.

"I played great, just a bad break on the final hole. It went a little farther than I thought it was going to," Holmes said. "Hats off to Andy, he grinded great."

"Six under for two days and one bogey that came at a bad time today. I can take a lot away from this week. Time to move on; it's still early in the year."

Schubring, who completed his junior season at Bethel University this spring, carded a 1-under 71 during the opening round. He started the scoring in the final round by sinking his birdie chance at the fourth before carding four consecutive birdies mid-round to briefly earn a share of the lead at 6-under.

Unable to sustain his furious pace, Schubring took a step back with a bogey at the par-3 12th, but battled back to within one shot of the lead with one final birdie at the 16th to finish tied for second with Holmes at 6-under 138, claiming low-amateur honors.

Andrew Israelson, winner of the 2019 Minnesota Golf Association Players' Championship in 2019, carded a final-round 68 to place fourth at 5-under 139.

Gritty Performance Earns Stendahl Minnesota Senior Open Title

By Nick Hunter (June 1, 2022)

MAPLEWOOD, Minn. – Walking off the green following a two-putt par to close out the final round of the 38th Minnesota Senior Open at Keller Golf Club, professional Derek Stendahl could think of only one word.

Stendahl navigated challenging conditions during the opening round, shooting a 1-under 71 to share the first-round lead before piecing together a near-flawless final round, carding a 2-under 70 to claim a two-stroke victory over Tom Helgeson, J.T. Johnson and Troy Johnson.

“I thought I hit the ball much better today, and obviously, the conditions were better, but I had a lot of opportunities and thought I hit a lot of putts that just didn’t go in,” Stendahl said. “My pace was really good all day. I was trying to stay in the moment and go at the middle of the greens. I knew putts would come eventually.”

The win is Stendahl’s first since earning a pair of Minnesota PGA section victories in 2017.

“There’s no question this is the biggest thing I’ve ever won personally. I’ve been practicing a lot more and I’ve put in a lot of hard work for a club pro,” said the 51-year-old general manager at Rush Creek Golf Club, whose hard work in recent years has translated into 37 top-10 finishes since his last title.

During his final round, Stendahl stuck his approach inside of four feet at the par-4 fifth and converted his birdie chance for his only birdie of the front nine.

Giving himself a myriad of birdie opportunities during the final round, Stendahl showcased his steady iron play at the par-3 13th by hitting his tee shot to 10 feet, where he’d sink his second birdie of the round.

Just off the green at the par-3 15th, Stendahl opted to putt from the rough and nearly dropped a 60-footer for birdie, but tapped in for par to erase painful memories from last season’s championship.

“Last year I made a double on that hole and that was it,” said Stendahl, who posted back-to-back rounds of 71 to finish tied for third in 2021. “When we finished, I was 7-over on the par-3’s last year but 2-under for the tournament. So that was a huge putt to save par on that hole today.”

Watching a late surge by Troy Johnson with his eagle at the par-5 16th, Stendahl countered by making his biggest putt of the championship, burying a 20-footer at the 16th to regain a slight advantage. Johnson would bogey his final two, while Stendahl’s only blemish of the final round came at the 17th, a three-putt bogey to trim his lead to two.

Another perfectly paced lag putt at the last gave Stendahl a tap-in par for the victory, shooting a final-round 2-under 70.

After his win Stendahl gave special recognition to fellow professional Steve Fessler, who has spent time with the entire Stendahl family both on and off the course.

“Starting to work with Steve has been amazing to me and my family. He’s such a special person—his positive attitude and his approach to things. Yes, a lot of stuff about the golf swing but it’s, ‘You’ve worked for it, now go get it.’

Troy Johnson, who carded a 1-over 73 during his debut in a senior championship, converted on two birdie chances during his opening nine to quickly to pressure on the leaders.

The defending Minnesota Golf Association Mid-Players' champion pulled within one of the lead with a birdie at the 10th but gave back a stroke with a three-putt bogey at the par-3 13th.

At the 16th, Johnson's second stopped four feet from the flagstick and he would momentarily share the lead after sinking his eagle putt to reach 3-under. Bogeys on each of his final two holes dashed Johnson's chances of picking up his first win of the season, posting a 2-under 70 to finish tied for second at 143.

"I hit the ball well both days," an optimistic Johnson said following his round. "I hit great drives on 17 and 18, right in the middle of the fairway and didn't capitalize on my iron shots and that was it."

"I need to clean up some short game and iron work, but my driver was great both days. All-in-all I'm feeling good about the game."

Johnson defeated Paul Meyer, 2 and 1, last season at The Quarry at Giants Ridge to earn his fourth MGA

Mid-Players' title, his first victory over the past seven seasons.

A rocky start to the final round saw defending Minnesota Public Golf Association Senior Public Links champion J.T. Johnson slip three back of Stendahl before chipping in for birdie at the ninth to pull within two, turning in even par for the championship.

But Johnson would find his footing during the final 10 holes, answering his birdie at the ninth by rolling in a birdie chance at the par-5 10th to pull within one before giving back a stroke with bogey at the 13th.

Sinking a lengthy birdie chance at the 17th helped Johnson move back to 1-under for the tournament, but it was as close as he would come to a second win in as many seasons. Posting a final-round 72 to finish tied for second at 143.

Following his opening-round 73, Helgeson sprinkled four birdies against one bogey over his front nine holes to quickly jump into contention by turning in 2-under. He would reach 3-under for the championship with his birdie at the 13th but stumbled over the next two holes with bogey to place second at 1-under 143.

Flanagan Sets 1 Record with 61, Ties Another with 197 in Tapemark Victory

By Mike Fermoye (June 12, 2022)

WEST ST. PAUL – After the second round, Angus Flanagan came off the course at Southview Country Club thoroughly frustrated by his putting. He hit 14 of the first 16 greens in regulation and didn't make a single birdie, just 16 pars. Then, finally, he hit the greens in two on the two par-5's at the end of the course, the 490-yard 17th and the 485-yard 18th holes, and two-putted them both for his only birdies of the round.

What should have been a score in the mid-60's had been transformed by a balky putter into a 69, and Flanagan, the defending champion, would end the day in a five-way tie for fifth place at 136, six shots behind the leader, Trey Fessler.

Somebody in the room where the scoring was being done suggested to Flanagan that his fortunes might change, and maybe his putter would start producing some better results.

That, as it turned out, was exactly what happened.

Starting on the back nine, Flanagan two-putted the green at the par-3 10th for a par -- and then his putter went to work.

"I made everything," he said afterward.

He made a 20-footer for birdie on the 11th hole, then an 18-footer at the 12th. In a kind of weird statistical oddity, Flanagan didn't birdie the 10th or either of the other two par-3's on Southview's back nine, the 13th and the 15th -- but he birdied everything else. The 22-year-old former University of Minnesota All-American made 3's on all of the back-side par-4's, the 11th, 12th, 14th and 16th. And just as he had the day before, he hit the 17th and 18th greens in two and two-putted them both for birdies.

That capped off a back-nine 29 (6 under) -- and suddenly, he was tied with Fessler for the lead.

Fessler, who was playing with his pro-am partners in a foursome right behind Flanagan, bombed a nearly 400-yard drive that left him only 95 yards from the green at the 18th. He hit a wedge close and made the putt for eagle, which put him back in front by two strokes.

But Flanagan continued his assault on par with three birdies and an eagle on the first seven holes of the front nine. He birdied No. 1, his fourth birdie in row, and on No. 4, a 475-yard par 5, he hit a 7-iron second shot to 18 feet, and made the putt for an eagle. Another 7-iron, this one to 15 feet at the 480-yard, par-5 sixth, led to a birdie, and then he made a 12-footer for his ninth birdie of the day at the par-4 seventh.

That got him to 11 under for the round. But he pulled his drive into the trees at the eighth hole (362 yards, par 4), and that led to his only bogey of the day.

Last year, when he made his professional debut at the Tapemark and won the tournament by 10 shots, Flanagan launched a monster 285-yard 3-iron shot off the ninth tee that ended up pin high, 30 feet from the cup, and he two-putted for a closing birdie. This year, the wind was about 10 or 12 miles per hour, and it was in his face at the ninth. A 3-iron wasn't going to be enough this time. It would have to be at least a 3-wood, or probably a driver.

"I thought about it (going for the green), and trying for an eagle -- and a 59," he said later. "But I didn't know exactly how I stood, and even if I had known I was three ahead, I probably would have laid up."

Justin Smith (University GC) captured the low amateur title posting a score of 65-69-68—202 (-11)

At that point, the only way I could lose would have been to hit one out of bounds, or into the water."

So he settled for a routine par at the ninth hole, which was still good enough for a course- and tournament-record score of 61 -- and a three-shot victory. The old record of 62 had stood for 37 years, since Mike Zinni shot it in 1985. Craig Brischke equaled in 2012. Both of them, like Flanagan, won the tournament.

Flanagan's 54-hole tab of 197 tied the Tapemark tournament record for lowest total, which was set by Jeff Sorenson in 2009 and tied by Don Berry in 2014, and the victory was worth $5,000.

Fessler, who shot 65 each of the first two days, could do no better than a 70 on Sunday, and ended up at 200. He made $3,000.

Nearly all of the high finishers took advantage of Southview's relatively short par-5's all weekend. Alex Gaugert, on the other hand, played them in a modest 1 under Sunday, yet he still managed to shoot the second-lowest score of the day, a 63. That vaulted him up the leaderboard, from a tie for 14th at the start of the day to solo third, at 201, by the time all the scores were in.

Just as Flanagan had birdied all of the par-4's on the back nine (the Tapemark leaders always start the final round on the back), Gaugert birdied all of the 4's on the front side -- Nos. 1, 3, 7, 8 and 9. But the only par-5 he birdied Sunday was No. 17.

Justin Doeden, who had the week off from the Canadian Tour, shot 69 and finished fourth at 202. He hit what was probably the shot of the day. After switching from a 3-wood to a driver on the ninth tee, he hit a gorgeous shot that landed on the right side of the green, started sliding to the left -- and nearly hit the flag. He deserved an eagle for that tee shot, but missed the putt and had to settle for a birdie.

Matching Doeden's total was Gophers head coach Justin Smith, who closed with a 68 and won the Amateur Division by six over Scott Fenwick. Smith's 202 aggregate broke Fenwick's record for the lowest total by an Amateur winner by four strokes.

The 2020 Tapemark winner, Chris Meyer, lit up the back nine with a 5-under 30, but was even on the front. The resultiing 66 put him at 203, which was good for fifth in the Professional Division.

Berry, the seven-time Tapemark champion and seven-time Minnesota State Senior Open champ, birdied his last four holes in a row (6 through 9) to concluded a 66, and he tied this year's State Senior Open winner, Derek Stendahl for sixth among the pros at 204. Stendahl shot 67.

Andrew Israelson, who opened the tournament with a 63 to take the first-round lead, knocked his approach shots over the green six times on Saturday and dropped back with a 73 into a tie for fifth. He shot 69 on Sunday and tied Josh Whalen (67) for eighth at 205.

In a lot of ways, the final day of this year's Tapemark was a remarkable display of golf. Southview is a short course (6,125 yards), but it isn't easy. The greens were firm and fast all weekend, and if a player got out of position, just making a par could be extremely difficult. In spite of that, and a fairly stiff breeze, the scoring was surprisingly good. But the thing that stood out was the power that was on display.

The first hole at Southview is a 355-yard dogleg to the right. If you want to go at the green, you have to hit your drive over a couple of large trees that are more than 225 yards from the tee. But that didn't seem to discourage the leaders. With the wind at their backs, nearly all of them took a rip at the green.

Justin Smith is a 40-something who played for the Minnesota team that won the NCAA championship in 2002 (he made the clinching putt), but he still has considerable pop in his driver, as he demonstrated on Sunday by knocking his tee shot onto the green at No. 1. Unfortunately, he three-putted for a par.

Flanagan put his tee shot in the greenside bunker, and hit his blast to 2 feet for a tap-in birdie. Fessler, like Smith, drove the first green and then three-putted it.

But the thing that really showed what a Brave New World golf is in was the sight of Fessler waiting on the third tee for the green to clear -- 370 yards away -- before hitting his drive. He was right to wait. His tee shot ended up no more than 10 or 15 feet short of pin high, but it was 15 yards to the right of the green, and from there he had no chance of getting his ball close to the cup. He wound up missing an 8-foot putt for par.

That bogey dropped him back into a tie with Flanagan, who pulled ahead by two when he made his eagle putt at the fourth a few minutes later. Fessler hit the green at the fourth in two, as well, but he three-putted from 35 feet for a par. Both Flanagan and Fessler made two-putt birdies at the sixth, but Flanagan increased his lead to three with his birdie at the seventh.

As for his schedule the rest of the summer, Flanagan, who is from Woking, England, is going home this month and will try to qualify for the British Open. If he doesn't get in, he'll be back here for the State Open, which will be played July 5-7 at Bunker Hills GC. After that, he'll play in some Monday qualifiers for the Korn Ferry Tour, but mostly, he'll be trying to get ready for Korn Ferry Q-School in the fall.

Fessler, who finished second in the Class AAA portion of the state high school tournament as a junior at St. Michael-Albertville, and again as a senior, turned pro last July, a month after Flanagan, and he, like Flanagan, is focusing his attention on Korn Ferry Q-School.

"I wasn't ready last year," he says. "That's why I didn't try. But I'm ready now. I played really well this week, and I lost to a guy who shot 61. You can't feel too bad about that."

VanArragon Wins For Second Straight Week, Claims Second Straight MN Girls' Junior PGA Championship

By Nick Hunter (June 21, 2022)

BEMIDJI, Minn. – Opening up the 47th Minnesota Girls' Junior PGA Championship with a four-stroke lead, recent Class AAA individual champion Kathryn VanArragon continued her strong play, cruising on the final day at Bemidji Golf and Country Club by firing a 1-over 73 to claim a nine-stroke victory over Reese McCauley to successfully defend her title.

With their performances this week, VanArragon and McCauley each earn a spot in the 2022 Girls' Junior PGA Championship August 2-5 at Cog Hill Golf and Country Club in Palos Park, Ill. VanArragon, who claimed a two-stroke victory over Ava Hanneman at Bent Creek Golf Club a year ago, opened the championship with a 6-under 66.

The two-time Minnesota Golf Association Junior Girls' Player of the Year posted three bogeys during her opening nine, but rallied over her final nine holes with birdies at the 16th and 17th to card a final-round 73, finishing at 5-under 139.

McCauley, the 2021 Class AAA individual champion, sat four shots back of VanArragon following her opening-round 70 before McCauley carded a pair of bogeys during her front nine to slip to even par for the championship. She would card four bogeys over her final nine to tally a final-round 78 to finish at 4-over 148.

Olivia Salonek, the defending Minnesota State Junior Girls' champion, posted a 3-over 75 to begin the tournament in a tie for fifth place, and played the first 14 holes of her final round even before a pair of late bogeys put her in the clubhouse at 2-over 74, finishing third at 5-over 149.

Schrader Pulls Out Win at Minnesota Boys' PGA Championship with Career-Best 65

By Nick Hunter (July 6, 2022)

PRIOR LAKE, Minn. – Carding a career-low, bogey-free 65 at The Wilds Golf Club, Jack Schrader earned a one-stroke victory over Ryan Stendahl and Cole Witherow at the 47th Minnesota Boys' Junior PGA Championship.

With his win, Schrader earned a spot in the 2022 Junior PGA Championship at Cog Hill Golf and Country Club in Palos Park, Ill.

Stendahl will join Schrader at the national championship, posting a 36-hole tally of 2-under 142 before emerging from a three-hole playoff with Witherow to advance.

Entering the final round seven shots back after his 76 to begin the championship, Schrader opened with a birdie on his first hole of the day and quickly added a second at the fourth to move to 2-over.

He closed out his front nine by sinking back-to-back birdies at the eighth and ninth to get to even par for the tournament. Schrader rolled in his third consecutive birdie at the 10th, but would finish with a flurry by sinking back-to-back birdies at the 16th and 17th to post a final-round 65, to claim medalist honors at 3-under 141.

Stendahl carded an even par 72 to begin the championship and would start fast with a pair of birdies over his first six holes in the final round. He turned in 1-under for the round after his bogey at the ninth.

Giving back a stroke with a bogey at the par-3 11th, Stendahl slipped to even par but rebounded by converting his birdie opportunity at the 12th.

Taking advantage of a par-5 for the third time during his final round, Stendahl birdied the 17th and would post a final-round 70 to finish tied for second.

Stendahl rolled in his birdie putt from 10 feet on the third playoff hole to earn the second qualifying spot.

Starting his final round three shots off the lead, Witherow bounced back from an early bogey by carding three birdies over the final six holes of his front nine to turn in 2-under for the tournament. Witherow would play his final nine holes in even par, carding two birdies and a pair of bogeys to finish tied for second at 142.

Two players secured spots in the 2022 National Boys Junior PGA Championship, Jack Schrader (left) finished with a score of 76-65—141 (-3) to win the overall medalist honors. Ryan Stendahl (right), finished T2 overall with a score of 72-70—142 (-2) with Cole Witherow. Stendahl claimed the second qualifier spot in a playoff with Witherow.

Holmgren Edges VanArragon with a Final-Round 65 to Win Minnesota State Open

By Nick Hunter (July 7, 2022)

COON RAPIDS, Minn. – It has long been said that the game of golf can be cruel. While one good finish can jumpstart a career virtually overnight, another's is bound to unravel just as quickly.

Life lessons through the game, both good and bad, have come quickly for Van Holmgren, who shortly after advancing to the Round of 16 at the U.S. Amateur last summer at Oakmont Country, decided to make a living by playing golf.

Last fall, Holmgren went through three months of Korn Ferry Q-School and fell short of advancing from the Second Stage by one stroke in October at Southern Hills Plantation in Florida.

He earned a paycheck of $1,300 with a fifth-place finish at the 2021 Visit Sebring Classic on the Minor League Golf Tour last November.

The following month, he paid his $2,800 entry fee to play in the 2021 Big Money Golf Classic at Orange County National in Winter Gardens, Fla. The tournament featured a $400,000 purse with approximately $100,000 going to the winner. Holmgren finished tied for seventh at the 54-hole event, which was supposed to earn him a payday of $12,500.

Unfortunately, the money never arrived. The controversy, featured in Golf Digest and on the Golf Channel, has yet to be settled—with over 20 players still owed money.

Van Holmgren's putt at the par-3, 17th hole, for a birdie, during the final round of the 2022 Minnesota State Open, gave him the lead in the championship with one hole remaining. Holmgren finished with a score of 66-71-65—202 (-14) to claim the championship.

In February, Holmgren finished tied for 15th at PGA Tour Canada Q-School to earn conditional status. In two events on the PGA Tour Canada this season, Holmgren missed one cut and finished 59th at the other. A third event was cancelled due to weather.

"The struggle so far is bringing my 'A' game to every tournament," Holmgren said. "Learning how to travel to places like Victoria, British Columbia and Lake Waskesiu, Saskatchewan and bringing the best golf I have has been the only difficulty. The competition and tournaments are exciting."

But this week was different. Back in his home state on a course where he won a high school individual state title in 2017, for a brief 54-hole moment, Holmgren was rewarded.

Firing a 7-under 65 Thursday at Bunker Hills Golf Club, Holmgren posted a 54-hole total of 202 (14 under) and edged Valparaiso University golfer Caleb VanArragon by one stroke to win the 105th Minnesota State Open.

"I wanted to earn it today," said Holmgren, who entered the final round tied for second with VanArragon and Derek Holmes, one shot behind 36-hole leader Eric Rolland. "I think with the level of golf in Minnesota, I knew someone was going to go out and shoot 5-under. I knew I needed to dig deep, which is a fun feeling."

With his win, Holmgren earns an exemption into the PGA Tour Canada's CRMC Championship at Cragun's Resort in Brainerd, Minn.—the first Tour event to be played outside of Canada.

"Ideally, I'd like to show a bigger audience what Minnesota golf is all about now that [I've won the Minnesota Golf Association Amateur Championship and the Minnesota State Open]," he said. "I think I'm ready to move on and compete at the next level."

"That's been my goal and I'm trying my best to get there. Hopefully, I get an opportunity or two. I'm ready to win at home again, so Brainerd is going to be fun."

Holmgren finished his opening round with six birdies over his final seven holes to earn a share of the lead at 66 before an up-and-down 71 during the second round to sit one back.

"I was proud of that 71 yesterday," Holmgren said following his win. "I slept like a baby because I worked hard to keep it just under par."

During the final, Holmgren again used a flurry of birdies—five in a six-hole span—to move to the top of the leaderboard.

Birdies at the 13th and 14th gave Holmgren a much needed two-stroke cushion because he would card his first bogey in a 25-hole span at the par-4 16th to fall back into a tie with VanArragon.

Holmgren took control of the championship for good by burying his birdie chance from 40 feet at the par-3 17th to post a final-round 65, securing a one-shot victory.

"Today I had more control over the ball. Off the tee, I was in better scenarios and I had three long putts drop, which was nice. I felt comfortable over the ball when I was on the greens," Holmgren said. "I wasn't focusing on the score—I was just thinking about how the next shot was the best shot I could hit."

For his efforts this week, Holmgren earned a payday of $10,000, which will reach his bank account in the coming days.

A bogey-free 6-under 66 wasn't enough for the two-time defending Twin Cities champion VanArragon, who began the week 67-70 to sit one shot off the lead entering the final round.

Instead, he finished one shot back at 13-under 203 to claim low-amateur honors and his third top-10 finish at the championship in four seasons.

"There were so many good players in the field this week, I just wanted to play my own game," VanArragon said. "I was really happy with how I was able to manage the course. My putting was solid and I was able to focus on my target on every shot and not overthink my technique."

"Van played amazing. Congratulations to him—he deserved it this week. I've got a lot to build off of and I'm looking forward to the rest of the summer."

VanArragon captured the lead early by sinking his birdie chance from six feet at the second. Sinking a pair of 12-footers at the fifth and eighth holes, VanArragon moved to 10-under for the championship.

Over the ninth green in two, VanArragon recaptured his fourth lead of the final round by converting his birdie putt from three feet to move to 11-under.

Trying to keep up with Holmgren's furious back-nine pace, VanArragon rolled in birdie at the 14th to pull within two of Holmgren and would earn a share of the lead by sinking a 25-footer for birdie at the 16th.

Failing to convert birdie chances on each of his final two holes put VanArragon in the clubhouse in second place at 13-under 203.

Rolland, the men's and women's head golf coach at Augsburg College, opened the championship with back-to-back rounds of 68 to take a one-stroke lead after two rounds of play and would card a final-round 72 to finish third at 8-under 208.

A final-round 70 helped 2020 champion and former University of Minnesota golfer Angus Flanagan earn a fourth-place finish at 7-under 209.

Kollar Defeats Ylitalo to Win Minnesota Junior PGA Match Play

By Nick Hunter (August 3, 2022)

NISSWA, Minn. – Carding three birdies during his back nine helped Kagan Kollar to his sixth win of the week, defeating Arthur Ylitalo, 3 and 2, to claim the 22nd Minnesota Junior PGA 'Sota Series Match Play Championship.

Kollar defeated Jake Fishbaugher, 4 and 3, to reach the championship match against Ylitalo. During the match, Kollar took advantage of an early bogey by Ylitalo at the second to take the first lead of the match.

Ylitalo would strike back to tie the match by carding a birdie at the seventh, and would win the eighth with a par to take a 1-up lead to the back nine.

Converting his birdie opportunity at the 10th, Kollar would tie the match and recaptured the lead with his birdie at the 13th.

He extended his lead following a bogey by Ylitalo at the 14th, and clinched the championship with a par at the 15th to seal the victory, 3 and 2, for his first state title.

Ranked No. 26 to begin the week, Kollar, a soon-to-be senior at Maple Grove High School, defeated Peyton Dingel, 6 and 5.

Kollar needed extra holes to defeat Evan Raiche before downing Dawson Melbo during the Round of 16.

Youngquist Earns Second Win of the Season at MN Junior PGA Match Play

By Nick Hunter (August 3, 2022)

NISSWA, Minn. – Bouncing back from an early bogey against defending champion Madi Hicks at The Pines at Grand View Lodge, Sammy Youngquist defeated Hicks, 2 and 1, to claim the 22nd Minnesota Junior PGA 'Sota Series Match Play Championship.

Youngquist faced Jordana Windhorst-Knudsen during the semifinal round, jumping out to the early lead by winning the first hole and cruised to the final round with a win, 6 and 5.

During the championship match, Hicks took the early lead following a bogey by Youngquist at the first. Youngquist responded by winning the third with a par.

Youngquist took her first lead of the match by winning the fourth, but Hicks bounced back with a birdie at the sixth to pull even.

Winning the seventh and eighth holes gave Youngquist a quick 2-up lead, but Hicks drew even with a birdie at the 10th before recording an eagle at the 13th.

Claiming back-to-back wins at the 14th and 15th, Youngquist recaptured the lead late and would close out the match over the North Dakota State University commit at the 17th for the win, 2 and 1.

Left, Kagan Kollar won the Boys' Division by defeating Arthur Ylitalo, 3 and 2, for the championship.

Right, Samantha Youngquist took the Girls Division title by defeating Madi Hicks, 2 and 1.

Holtz Outduels Baynes in Playoff to Win the Boys' Division and Mauzy wins the Girls' Division in the MN Junior PGA Tournament of Champions

By Nick Hunter (August 9, 2022)

LAKE ELMO, Minn. – Carrying a one-stroke lead into the final round of the 2022 Minnesota Junior PGA 'Sota Series Players Tour Tournament of Champions at Royal Golf Club, Jack Holtz carded four bogeys over his first 10 holes, but rallied by sinking three birdies over his final eight holes and survived a one-hole playoff to win his first state title.

Holtz carded consecutive rounds of 1-over 73 before fending off Brady Baynes, who carded a 2-under 70 in the final round for the championship's only round below par, to earn the victory.

Following a smooth start to the final round with three consecutive pars, Holtz carded his first bogey at the par-3 fourth and added two more to his scorecard over the next five holes to turn in 3-over for the round.

Starting his back nine with a bogey at the 10th, Holtz slipped to 5-over for the tournament, but would regain his rhythm over the next five holes, sinking back-to-back birdie chances at the 14th and 15th to get back to 3-over for the championship.

Taking advantage of the par-5 18th for a second straight day, Holtz carded one final birdie to join Baynes in the clubhouse at 2-over 146 to force a playoff.

Baynes, who carded an opening-round 76, played his first 11 holes in 2-over par during the final round before tallying four birdies over his final seven holes to post a final-round 70 to tie Holtz at 146.

Playing the par-3 16th during the playoff, Baynes carded bogey while Holtz made sank his par putt to secure the victory.

Kelsi Mauzy claimed the Girls' Division title in dramatic fashion with an eagle on the final hole to win the Girls' Division by one stroke ahead of second place finisher, Avery Bartels.

Left, Jack Holtz won the Boys' Division with a score of 73-73-146 (+2) and secured the title in a playoff with Brady Baynes.

Right, Kelsi Mauzy won the Girls' Division with a score of 80-74-154 (+10) and eagled the final hole to claim the victory.

Kelly Goes Wire-to-Wire for Second Straight Minnesota Women's State Open Title

By Nick Hunter (August 10, 2022)

MAPLE GROVE, Minn. – Following her opening-round 68 to begin the 22nd Minnesota Women's State Open at Rush Creek Golf Club, defending champion Betsy Kelly carded a 2-under 70 in the final round to become the first player to earn back-to-back titles in the 22-year history of the tournament.

Kelly began the day with a four-stroke lead and cruised during her final round to claim a seven-stroke win over Kathryn VanArragon and Emma Carpenter, the largest margin of victory since Lisa Grimes won by eight strokes in 2014 at Town and Country Club.

"Like I said last year, I've wanted to win this tournament since I was a little girl," Kelly said Wednesday. "I grew up in Minnesota and won state in high school—this is one I've always wanted to win. To win two years in a row is a dream.

Opening with the biggest 18-hole lead at the event in five years, Kelly did everything in her power to replicate her bogey-free 68 during the opening tilt.

Beginning the final round on the 10th hole, Kelly remained even through five holes despite multiple birdie chances early in the round.

Rolling in a 10-footer at the par-3 15th, Kelly moved to 5-under for the tournament but carded her first, and only, bogey of the championship at the par-5 18th to turn in even par for the round.

Hitting a 6-iron to eight feet at the par-5 second, Kelly curled in her eagle chance to separate herself from the field by taking a six-stroke lead at 6-under for the championship.

She would go bogey-free over her final seven holes, posting a final-round 70 to secure her second straight title.

Emma Carpenter notched a second-place finish for the second consecutive event, carding a final-round 72, helped by sinking a 20-foot birdie putt at the last, to tie VanArragon at 145.

Converting her birdie chance at the par-5 second, Carpenter looked to make up ground on leader Kelly, but would record three bogeys over her next five holes to fall to 3-over for the tournament.

The DeKalb, Ill., native answered by sinking her birdie looks on each of her final two holes to post a final-round 72.

Kathryn VanArragon posted a 2-over 74 during the opening round and battled back from two bogeys during her front nine by carding three birdies over her final nine holes to finish tied for second to Kelly for a second consecutive season.

South Dakota's Zahn Survives Three-Hole Playoff to Claim MN Senior PGA Professional Championship

By Nick Hunter (August 16, 2022)

STILLWATER, Minn. – Back-to-back birdies at the 17th and 18th holes at Stillwater Country Club boosted Dean Zahn into a share of the lead with Eric Chiles, prevailing in a three-hole playoff to claim the 48th Minnesota Senior PGA Professional Championship.

"This is huge because I don't get to play a lot of golf and I don't play in too many events," Zahn said. "I came in here and thought if I could play fairly well, I could get into the top-5.

"But to win it is pretty special. I wish my dad was here—he always caddied for me in these events and passed away in the fall. He was a PGA pro and he would have loved this. He was probably there a little bit today."

Zahn, 55, the head professional at Moccasin Creek Country Club in Brookings, S.D., since 1996, advances to his second Senior PGA Professional Championship in five seasons.

He will be joined by Chiles, Jeff Kringen, Don Berry and defending champion Thomas Vizina at the national championship Oct. 11-13 at Twin Warriors and Santa Ana Golf Clubs in Santa Ana Pueblo, N.M.

Zahn entered the final round one shot off the lead after his opening round 3-under 69, and mustered a lone birdie at the par-4 seventh to turn in 4-under for the tournament.

Sinking a long birdie chance on No. 11 after a poor chip, Zahn moved within two shots of the lead, but took a step back with a bogey at the 15th.

Needing a birdie-birdie finish, Zahn did just that to post a second straight round of 69 to finish tied atop the leaderboard with Chiles at 6-under 138.

"I knew I had to birdie 17 and 18, so it was pretty cool to be able to do that," Zahn said.

Both Chiles and Zahn made par on the first two playoff holes before Chiles would take a three-putt bogey. Zahn was able to get up-and-down from just off the green for par to claim his first section event.

"I thought if I could be consistent and not make any big mistakes—hopefully I wouldn't be too far back," he said. "I had some good chances, but nothing was really happening. I made a lot of easy pars, which is pretty easy on the nerves.

"I stuck with the same game plan and hit the same clubs in the playoff. Figured don't change what got you there."

Zahn's previous best finish at the championship came in during his first appearance at the 50-and-over event in 2017, placing sixth at Forest Hills Golf Club.

Chiles, who places second for the second consecutive season, entered the final round tied for second with Zahn and would also post a second straight round of 69.

Quickly moving up the leaderboard by carding three birdies during his front nine, Chiles would turn in 6-under for the championship.

Seemingly in control of the final round, Chiles moved to 8-under after back-to-back birdies at the 11th and 12th holes.

Dean Zahn (far left) won the championship with a score of 69-69-138 (-6) and qualified for the National championship.

But a double-bogey at the 15th followed by a bogey at the 16th proved costly for the 51-year-old Chiles, getting one stroke back with a birdie at the par-3 17th to finish deadlocked with Zahn.

Kringen, head professional at Spring Hill Golf Club, held the 18-hole lead following his 4-under 68 during the opening round, and posted a 1-under 71 during the final round to finish third at 139.

Shooting the low round of the tournament with his 5-under 67, the four-time champion Berry placed fourth at 141.

Reigstad Birdies the Last to Claim Minnesota PGA Professional Championship

By Nick Hunter (August 30, 2022)

GLENWOOD, Minn. – An eagle on his opening hole and a birdie at the last propelled Jonathan Reigstad to a one-stroke victory over Scott McDonald at the 92nd Minnesota PGA Professional Championship Tuesday at Minnewaska Golf Club.

Reigstad entered Tuesday's final round one shot off the lead and carded a final-round 4-under 68 to claim his second victory in as many seasons.

"I made it to one national event and I've been very close in many. It was definitely on my mind to make it again," Reigstad said following his victory Tuesday. "To win is super special and icing on the cake."

"I've been hitting it well most of the summer and I've been waiting for it to click. Need some time to think about it, but I'm extremely happy and thankful that we were able to get that done today."

Reigstad will now advance to the 2023 PGA Professional Championship next April at Twin Warrior Golf Club at Hyatt Regency Tamaya Resort and Spa and Santa Ana Golf Club in Santa Ana Pueblo, N.M.

Also advancing to the national championship next spring are McDonald, Andy Smith, Johnny Schwaller, Corey Johnson, Chris Borgen, George Smith and Thomas Campbell.

Reigstad started fast Tuesday with an eagle at the first to move to 5-under for the championship before giving back a stroke with a bogey at the fourth.

He bounced back by converting his birdie putt at the sixth, but again lost a stroke with a bogey at the ninth to turn in 4-under for the tournament.

2023 PGA Professional Championship
 Sunday-Wednesday,
 April 30-May 3, 2023
 Twin Warriors GC & Santa Ana Pueblo GC,
 Santa Ana Pueblo, N.M.

Capitalizing on his birdie chances at the 10th and 13th holes, Reigstad moved to 6-under for the tournament before sticking his approach at the 18th in close for one final birdie to give him a one-stroke victory and biggest career win to date.

"I hit the ball really good yesterday and wanted to do that again to see where it would take me," Reigstad said. "It was a little windy again, but I did the same things—birdied the par-5's, played solidly and felt pretty clean."

Along with his nine wins at section events, including three during the 2017 season, Reigstad has finished inside the top-10 more than 85 times since turning professional in 2007.

Reigstad last qualified for the national championship in 2016 at Bemidji Town and Country Club, finishing tied for seventh.

Continuing his strong 2022 season, McDonald entered the final round two shots back and would play his final nine holes in 4-under Tuesday to finish second at 6-under 138 and claim his seventh top-5 finish of the season, earning more than $15,500 in winnings.

Jonathan Reigstad (at far left) won the championship with a score of 69-68--137 (-7) and qualified for the National championship to be held in April 2024. Other qualifiers included (from left to right): Andy Smith, Johnny Schwaller, Thomas Campbell, Chris Borgen, Corey Johnson, Scott McDonald, and George Smith.

Andy Smith, winner of the Twin Cities Open in May, followed his opening round 72 by carding a bogey-free 4-under 68 Tuesday to finish third at 141, while Schwaller bounced back from a late double-bogey by carding eagle on the final hole to finish fourth at 2-under 142.

McDonald Holds On to Defeat Wynne at Minnesota PGA Match Play (September 29, 2022)

HOPKINS, Minn. – A pair of late birdies lifted professional Scott McDonald to a victory over Eddie Wynne at the 53rd Minnesota PGA Match Play Championship at Oak Ridge Country Club.

Overcoming an early deficit, McDonald captured the lead with a birdie at the par-4 seventh and extended his lead to two by winning the 11th with a par.

Recording an eagle at the par-5 12th, McDonald's lead swelled to three, but Wynne would make a late charge by winning the 13th and 14th holes to pull within one of McDonald.

McDonald would close out the championship by winning the 17th to earn the victory over Wynne, 2 and 1.

McDonald, from Minnewaska Golf Club, earns his second win of the season after claiming the Edinburgh USA Pro-Am in July.

Notching 17 top-10 finishes has translated into winnings of more than $17,000 in earnings for the 2022 season.

The 41-year-old McDonald has now collected at least one victory in each of the past three seasons.

Seeded No. 15 for the championship, McDonald began his run by ousting Bennett Smed, 3 and 2, during the Round of 64 before getting past Tim Vernon by the same margin during the Round of 32.

McDonald then edged three-time champion Jeff Sorenson during the Round of 16, 1 up, and followed it by knocking out 2018 champion Eric Rolland during the quarterfinal round, 2 and 1.

During the semifinal round, McDonald downed recent Minnesota PGA Professional champion Jonathan Reigstad, 3 and 2, to reach the final match against Wynne.

McDonald fell during the quarterfinals of last year's championship, 3 and 2, to Mitchell Mackedanz.

Borgen Goes the Distance, Defeats Winter in Playoff to Win Minnesota Golf Champions

By Nick Hunter (October 2, 2022)

ST. LOUIS PARK, Minn. – Chris Borgen posted a final-round 72 before sinking a four-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole to defeat amateur Brock Winter at the 48th Minnesota Golf Champions, becoming the oldest player to win the tournament since John Harris won in 2008 at age 55.

"This is the biggest win I've had," Borgen said. "I expected to play well—I know I have it in me and I know how to do it, I just haven't had the game for a while.

"I was looking to keep doing what I had been doing the first two days. I didn't hit the ball particularly well today, but my short game was pretty good. I felt like I had it fairly easy with a [few holes] to go, but made it sort of stressful at the end."

Opening the championship with a 4-under 68, Borgen carded a bogey-free 69 during the second round to extend his lead to three strokes entering the final round.

Steady once again to begin the final round, Borgen was seemingly on his way to another stress-free round by carding two birdies against one bogey during his opening nine to turn in 8-under for the championship.

Rolling in birdies at the 12th and 14th holes, Borgen moved to 10-under for the tournament before losing momentum by taking bogey at the par-5 15th.

A poor chip at the 16th led to a three-putt for double-bogey as Borgen watched his lead cut to one shot with two holes to play.

Winter matched Borgen at 7-under with his birdie at the 17th and the two would both two-putt for par at the last to force a two-way playoff.

Hitting his second just short of the first green during the playoff, Borgen chipped his third to four feet and buried his birdie chance to clinch the championship.

"I scored well this week; I stayed below the hole and didn't make any bogeys the first two rounds—one double," Borgen said. "Today, I just stayed away from making bogeys and didn't get above the hole. This course, if you get in the wrong spots, you can really screw it up. Having played it a lot, I missed it in the right spots."

Winter, a junior at North Dakota State University, bounced back from his opening-round 72 by firing a 4-under 68 during the second round to enter the final 18 holes three shots off the lead.

Looking to close the gap early, Winter carded two birdies during his first four holes to pull within two shots of the lead at 6-under.

Unable to get up-and-down from a greenside bunker at the sixth, Winter gave back a stroke, but would make a charge late during his opening nine with back-to-back birdies at the seventh and eighth to reach 7-under for the tournament.

Winter would stumble early during his inward nine with bogeys at the 10th and 11th, but found his footing by converting his birdie chance at the 12th.

Capitalizing on a birdie chance from six feet at the 14th, Winter moved back to 7-under, but failed to make up ground on Borgen, who extended his lead to three.

Despite a three-putt bogey at the 16th, Winter earned a share of the lead following late struggles by Borgen, rolling in a 15-footer for birdie at the 17th. He would make par at the last to force extra holes.

Chipping his third over the green during the playoff, Winter hit a delicate chip to three feet, leaving a short par putt before Borgen rolled in his birdie putt for the win.

"I'm happy to be in the spot I was in," Winter said following his round. "I was playing some scrappy golf this week, but my short game came along and threw me into contention. I knew to trust the putter and things just fell into place. I just came up a hair short.

"I've been playing well. I was not a big believer in my short game coming in, but it saved me this week. I look forward to getting back to Fargo and playing the rest of the fall and, hopefully, throw myself into contention again."

A string of three consecutive birdies lifted former University of Minnesota golfer Thomas Campbell into contention late, but the professional was unable to convert a birdie chance on the final hole to join Borgen and Winter in a playoff at 7-under 209.

Campbell carded a final-round 70 to finish third at 6-under 210.

Pedersen and Warian Lead Gopher Men to Fourth-Place Finish at Gopher Invitational

By Nick Hunter (September 12, 2022)

MAPLE PLAIN -- Carding its lowest 18-hole team score in three seasons at Windsong Farm, the University of Minnesota men's golf team climbed five spots on the final day to claim a fourth-place finish at the 2022 Gopher Invitational.

Led by junior Ben Warian, who posted a career-low 65 during the final round, the Gophers earned their best performance at their home tournament since a fourth-place finish in 2014.

A final-round team score of 277 is the school's best 18-hole tally since the Gophers fired a 274 during the second round of the 2019 Jerry Pate National Inter-collegiate at Old Overton Club in Vestavia Hills, Ala.

Playing in his first event with Minnesota this week, former Minnetonka High School graduate Jacob Pedersen fired a 1-over 72 during the first round on his home course before tallying back-to-back rounds of 69 to place tied for 18th at 3-under 210.

"My first [Division I] tournament was a little nerve-wracking," said Pedersen, who played four seasons at Gustavus Adolphus College prior to joining the Gophers this season. "At my home course makes it about as comfortable as possible. I was hitting it pretty sloppy, honestly, but managed it really well. I made the right decisions at the right times."

Bethel Wins Minnesota Golf Classic; Baylor's Bosco Is Medalist

By Mike Fermoy (September 12, 2022)

MAPLE PLAIN -- Trey Bosco claimed medalist honors at the Minnesota Golf Classic in impressive fashion. He eagled the 573-yard, par-5 18th hole at Pioneer Creek GC.

The Baylor junior didn't really need to make that eagle. A birdie would have done the trick. Nevertheless, polishing off a tournament victory with an eagle on the final hole puts an exclamation point on the conquest.

Hayden Carner, a junior at Georgia Southern, was one behind going to the last hole, and he birdied it. Even with that, however, he ended up two behind.

Bosco and Carner both closed with 3-under-par 69s. That gave Bosco a winning 54-hole total of 205 (11 under), and Carner a 207. Angelo Marcon of Notre Dame and Luke Pany of Iowa State tied for third at 209. Pany got there with a 68 -- the second-lowest score of Round 3 -- and Marcon with a 72.

Pedersen and Warian Lead Gopher Men to Fourth-Place Finish... Continued

"Team-wise, we're in a pretty good spot. This is a solid start to the season—we came in expecting to play pretty well. We have a week off, so we get to groove some things and get off and running to a busy October."

Warian, from Stillwater, Minn., bounced back from a double-bogey on his opening hole by carding eight birdies over his final 16 holes to move up 36 spots on the leaderboard, finishing tied for 25th at 2-under 211.

Warian's 65 is the lowest round by a Gopher since both Angus Flanagan and Lincoln Johnson posted 65's during the 2018-19 season.

Playing as an individual this week, Gopher sophomore Eduardo Galdos, of Lima, Peru, followed his opening-round 68 with rounds of 71-70 to finish tied for 12th at 4-under 209.

Entering the final round three shots off the lead, Georgia Southern University rallied by carding a 9-under 275 to claim a five-stroke victory over the University of Kansas and Kent State University.

The Eagles got a boost from fifth-year senior Wilson Address, who carded a 5-under 66 to earn medalist honors with a two-stroke victory over Coastal Carolina University's Garrett Cooper.

Address opened with a 2-under 69 during the first round before bettering his score by two strokes during the afternoon round to sit tied for fifth with

Georgia Southern also got help from recent U.S. Amateur runner-up, Ben Carr, who finished at 5-under 208 to place tied for 10th. Carr, from Columbus, Ga., fell to Sam Bennett in the finals at Ridgewood Country Club in Paramus, N.J., last month after defeating Minnesotan Derek Hitchner during the semifinal round.

Kansas got big contributions from a pair of Minnesotans this week in Cecil Belisle, who claimed the Minnesota Golf Association Players' Championship at Burl Oaks Golf Club in June, and by former Minnetonka High School standout Gunnar Broin.

Belisle, who joined the Jayhawks after spending the past two seasons at South Mountain Community College where he earned back-to-back NJCAA National Championship individual titles, carded a final-round 67 to finish tied for fourth in his first Division I event.

After spending his first two seasons playing golf at Colorado State University, Broin enters his first season with Kansas on a high note, qualifying for his second consecutive U.S. Amateur last month.

Broin posted an even par 71 to begin the championship early and would place tied for 12th at 4-under 209 following back-to-back rounds of 69.

West Virginia's Kurtis Grant closed with a 71 and claimed sole possession of fifth place with an aggregate of 210, and Notre Dame's Owen Mullen shot 71 to finish sixth at 2011.

This was mostly a Division III tournament, and Bethel won the team championship with an overall score of 866 (plus 2). St. John's, last year's winner, moved up from fourth to second during the two rounds that were played, but even though they narrowed the gap by 12 strokes with a final-round total of 288, the Johnnies still finished eight behind at 874. Luther was another three back in third at 877; Wisconsin-Eau Claire was fourth at 882. Gustavus Adolphus was the only other team to break 900. The Gusties finished fifth with a total of 891.

But there were quite a few Division I guys playing as individuals only. They came to the Twin Cities with teams that are playing in the Gopher Invitational across the street from Pioneer Creek, at Windsong Farm, but they didn't crack the starting lineups for their teams.

The Division I players took the top six spots in the final individual standings, beginning with Bosco. The highest finisher among the Division III guys was Wisconsin-Eau Claire's Cole Jahnke, a senior from Stillwater. He was tied for the first-round lead after shooting 68, and he followed it with a 73 and a 71, which gave him 54-hole tab of 212 and sixth place all to himself.

One other Division III player cracked the top 10, and that was Jay Fjellstul of Luther. He posted a 72 in the morning and a 71 in the afternoon and finished in a tie for eighth, along with West Virginia's Westy McCabe, at 213. They ended up just ahead of Sion Audrain, a junior at Kansas. He posted the best score of the final round, a 67, on his way to 214 and solo 10th.

Bethel's Conor Schubring, who was the medalist at last week's Augsburg Invitational with a 142 (71-71) at Majestic Oaks, was also in position for a top-10 finish. In fact, he was tied with Bosco for the lead after 36 holes, at 136 (69-67). But he didn't have much fun in the final round. He bogeyed three of the first eight holes. It looked as if he might be righting the ship with a birdie at the par-5 ninth, but instead, things went downhill from there. After parring the 10th hole, he bogeyed four of the next five, and he concluded his round with a double bogey at the 18th. The resulting 80 dropped him all the way from a tie for first into a five-way tie for 12th at 216.

Bosco, a former Texas State Amateur champion from Austin, started his morning round in a three-way tie for fifth, along with Schubring and Zach Sokolosky of Kansas. They were all one behind the leaders. Bosco made one birdie, one bogey and three pars in the first five holes, but then he began moving up. He birdied the 374-yard, par-4 sixth hole and the 425-yard, par-4 seventh, and after making the turn in 34, he birdied the 437-yard, par-4 10th and the 369-yard, par-4 11th. Bosco made his sixth birdie of the morning at the par-4 16th (310 yards). He bogeyed the par-3 17th (182), but bounced back with a birdie at the 18th for a 67.

A birdie at the 501-yard, par-5 first hole put Bosco into the lead -- for good, as it turned out. While Jahnke was struggling toward a 38 on the front nine, Bosco was working his way toward a 35.

Meanwhile, Carner, who started Round 3 two back, was also making birdies, three of them in the first five holes, but he also threw in a double bogey at the 195-yard, par-3 third hole, and he, too, had a 35 on the outward nine. He got within one of Bosco when he birdied the par-4 11th (369 yards), but he bogeyed the 208-yard, par-3 13th, and Bosco birdied the 597-yard, par-5 14th.

Carner's birdie at the 15th (440 yards, par 4), cut the deficit to one again, but that was as close as he got. Bosco made sure of that with the way he played the 18th.

Sambach Wins Annika Individual Title; Wake Forest Is the Team Champion

By Mike Fermoye (September 14, 2022)

LAKE ELMO, Minn. – It wasn't quite the same kind of virtuoso performance that she had turned in during the first two days of the Annika Intercollegiate, but it didn't need to be. Amanda Sambach had separated herself from an elite field with an opening round of 7-under-par 65 at Royal Golf Club on and a 68 in the second round, and the combination of a six-stroke lead to start the day and a 74 during the final round was enough to give the University of Virginia sophomore her first victory in a college tournament.

Her 54-hole total of 207 (9 under) was two better than the 209's posted by the second-place finishers, Wake Forest's Lauren Walsh and Bohyun Park of Texas. Park closed with a 69, Walsh with a 70. Duke's Phoebe Brinker tied Park and Florida's Annabell Fuller for the low score of the day with a 69, and she finished alone in fourth at 210. Fuller moved up eight spots, into a three-way tie for fifth at 213, along with South Carolina teammates Hannah Darling and Mathilde Claisse, both of whom had 74's.

After Sambach made a short putt for a valedictory birdie on the 18th green, her teammates rushed out to congratulate her -- and soak her with water. She was then congratulated by the tournament eponym, Annika Sorenstam.

"It's insane," Sambach marveled a few minutes later. "First of all, just to win a tournament that has her name on it, but to have her here in person is unbelievable. She's literally the GOAT."

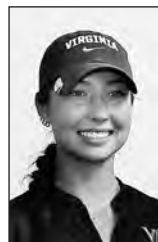

(Sorenstam won 89 tournaments, including 10 majors, during her 15 years competing as a full-time professional. Along the way, she became the only LPGA Tour player to shoot 59.)

Nine holes into the final round, Sambach was still cruising. She was even par for the day, 9 under for the tournament, four shots ahead, and she was heading for the back nine, which she had played in 4 under each of the previous two days. But this was a different story. She bogeyed the 345-yard, par-4 10th, the 410-yard, par-4 11th and the 400-yard, par-4 13th. And suddenly, things had gotten a lot more interesting.

Bohyun and Walsh both bogeyed the 11th, too, but they were both within two of Sambach going into the last five holes. Walsh birdied the drivable 15th, a 296-yard par 4, to get within one. But she slipped back when she bogeyed the par 3 16th (183 yards). Bohyun and Walsh both birdied the 18th hole, but Sambach responded in kind. She was just off the green at the 451-yard par 5 in two, and chipped to within 2 feet to seal her victory.

Like Sambach, the Virginia team began the day with a six-shot lead, but the Cavaliers had to count two 74s and a 76, and they could do no better than 296 for their combined score. Wake Forest, the No. 3 team in Golfweek's pre-season rankings for NCAA Division I women, had Walsh and two other players under par, and the Deacons put together a 285, which gave them a three-day aggregate of 858 (-6). That was good enough for a four-stroke victory.

No. 16 Texas turned in the day's lowest total, a 283, and finished second at 862. Virginia, No. 14, dropped back into third at 863, and No. 4 South Carolina tied No. 28 Duke for fourth at 865. Oregon, the highest-ranked team in the tournament at No. 2, finished sixth at 866.

*The Wake Forest women's golf team won the team competition with a 6-under-par 294-279-285—858.
Amanda Sambach, Virginia, won the low-individual title with rounds of 9-under-par 65-68-74—207.*

Minnesota, the host team, is not ranked in Golf-week's top 30, and the Gophers finished 12th out of 12 teams with a cumulative 908. But their prize recruit for 2022, former state high school champion Bella McCauley, a home-schooler from Inver Grove Heights, posted the team's only sub-par score of the week on, a 71, and with that, she moved up 11 places into a tie for 41st at 223. The two-time Minnesota Girls Junior PGA champion and winner of the 2021 Minnesota Golf Champions was 5 over par after her first 14 holes on, but she settled down and played the last 40 holes in 2 over.

MIAC MEN'S GOLF

Championship

A 54-hole season-ending men's collegiate tournament for the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (MIAC). The top finishing team earns the conference's automatic qualifying bid to the Division III NCAA Championship held in spring the following year. Additional MIAC teams and individual players may be selected to play in the Championship too.

Loxtercamp & Boemer Rally St. John's in MIAC Tournament

By Mike Fermoye (October 8, 2022)

COON RAPIDS, Minn. – Bethel's Conor Schubring came into the MIAC Championships last week ranked No. 1 in the conference, with a scoring average of 72.0 strokes per round over seven rounds this fall. And for the first two rounds at Bunker Hills, he remained No. 1. After opening with a 4-under par 68, the senior from St. Louis Park followed it with a 69, and his 36-hole total of 137 had him three strokes clear of the two players who were tied for second, Schubring's Bethel teammate Will Karkoc and Nate Loxtercamp of St. John's. Karkoc and Loxtercamp both got to 140 the same way, with a first-round 69 and second-round 71.

Bethel was also in first place, thanks in no small part to the efforts of Schubring and Karkoc. The Royals put together a 4-under 284 on Day 1, which gave them a nine-shot lead over St. John's, and they increased it to 10 over the Johnnies with second round of 292.

Things began to change early in the final round, however.

Loxtercamp birdied the 354-yard, par-4 second hole, the 164-yard, par-3 third and the 466-yard, par-5 fourth. Meanwhile, Schubring, after making a birdie at No. 1 (427 yards, par 4), bogeyed the No. 2 and doubled No. 3. Karkoc did the same, except that he didn't birdie No. 1.

That was pretty much how it went for the rest of the round for the Royals.

As for Loxtercamp, who entered the tournament ranked No. 3 in the conference with a scoring average of 73.0, after his fast start, the junior from Melrose settled in and played solid golf, making 10 pars in a row, and then picking up his fourth birdie of the day at the 440-yard, par-4 15th. That gave him a six-shot lead; so it didn't really matter that he bogeyed the last two holes. He finished with a 70, which gave him a 54-hole aggregate of 210 -- and a four-stroke victory over Schubring, who struggled for 17 holes before making a birdie at the 18th, for a 77 and a 214 total.

Karkoc made three birdies in the final round, but he also had to count seven bogeys and two doubles, all of which added up to 80. With that, he slipped back into fifth at 220.

The other player leading the final-day charge for St. John's was sophomore Andrew Boemer. He had eight pars and one eagle (at the par-5 fourth) on his card for the front nine, and he got to 4 under for the day with birdies at the par-5 11th (530 yards) and the par-4 13th (373). He had two bogeys coming in, on the 15th and 17th holes, but they didn't really matter. He finished third, four behind Schubring at 218, and that was where he would have finished with all pars on the way in.

Sam Berger was another major contributor to the St. John's rally. He was 2 over for the round and two behind Karkoc with two holes to go, but he birdied the daunting, 220-yard, par-3 17th and finished with a 73, which put him at 219 and in sole possession of fourth place, one ahead of Karkoc.

St. John's won the 2022 MIAC Championship to qualify for the 2023 NCAA Division III Men's Golf Championship to be held in May 2023.

Nate Loxtercamp (St. John's) finished as medalist with a score of 6-under par.

With three players in the top 4 of the individual standings -- and Blake Schuler tying for eighth at 223 -- St. John's wound up winning by a surprisingly comfortable margin. The Johnnies shot a combined 285 (3 under) on Day 3, and that gave them an overall 870. Bethel could do no better than 308 and finished 13 behind in second, at 883.

Gustavus Adolphus was another 14 behind in third, at 897. Carleton was fourth at 902.

With the victory, St. John's assured itself of a place in the NCAA Division III Championships next May, at Keene Trace Golf Club in Nicholasville, Ky.

MIAC WOMEN'S GOLF

Championship

A 54-hole season-ending women's collegiate tournament for the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (MIAC). The top finishing team earns the conference's automatic qualifying bid to the Division III NCAA Championship held in spring the following year. Additional MIAC teams and individual players may be selected to play in the Championship too.

Venne Is MIAC Women's Medalist, But Carleton Wins Team Title

By Mike Fermoy (October 9, 2022)

COON RAPIDS -- Kyra Venne established the record for the lowest 18-hole score in the history of the St. Catherine University women's golf program last year when she shot a 2-under-par 70 at Prairie Links GC (Waverly, Iowa) in the first round of the Wartburg Fall Invitational. And she picked a good time to tie it -- last week, in the first round of the MIAC Women's Championships.

This time, her 70 was 3 under at Bunker Hills. It gave her the lead after Day 1, and she never surrendered it -- at least not for long. The sophomore from Woodbury followed it with a 77 and a 75, which gave her a 54-hole total of 222 (3 over), and that was another school record. It was also good enough to give her the individual conference championship.

Carter Sichol, a freshman from Winnetka, Ill., finished second. She also closed with a 75 and finished two behind Venne at 224. She was one of four freshmen in the Carleton lineup, and they combined to win the team championship, the fourth conference title for the Knights in the last eight years (2014, 2017, 2018 and 2022).

Venne led the individual competition wire to wire. In the third round, she parred the first five holes, then birdied the 475-yard, par-5 sixth and the 170-yard, par-3 seventh, before surrendering two strokes with bogeys at the eighth and ninth holes and concluding the front nine with an even-par 36. That increased her lead to four over Sichol, who was out in 38. But Sichol birdied the 10th (333 yards, par 4), and Venne bogeyed the 13th (333, par 4).

Venne came right back with a birdie at the par-5 14th (430), but she doubled the par-5 15th (440), and Sichol birdied it -- a three-shot swing that left them tied for first. Ultimately, Venne claimed the individual crown by paring the last two holes, the 180-yard, par-3 17th (quite possibly the hardest hole on the course) and the 340-yard, par-4 18th, because Sichol bogeyed both of them.

This is the first time anyone from St. Catherine has won an MIAC individual championship in golf.

But Carleton had strength in numbers, and that was how the Knights claimed the team crown.

Bethel's Greta McArthur and Macalester's Bailey Lengfelder tied for third individually with three-day aggregates of 227. But three of the next four places went to the Knights. Cynthia Lu, a freshman from Redmond, Wash., tied for fifth at 228, along with St. Catherine's Sydney Brandt. Natalie Tatar, a freshman from Denver, was one shot behind her at 229, in seventh, and Sarah Zheng, yet another Carleton freshman (from Bolingbrook, Ill.) took eighth place with a 231.

So the Knights ended up with four of the top eight finishers in the individual competition. St. Catherine had three of the top nine, because Morgan Anderson took ninth with a 333.

The top 10 finishers were named to the MIAC All-Championships team. Claiming the 10th spot, with a 234, was Sydney Monge of St. Olaf.

Like Venne, the Carleton team led after each of the three rounds, although the Wildcats were never Carleton College won the 2022 MIAC Championship to qualify for the 2023 NCAA Division III Women's Golf Championship to be held in May 2023.

Kyra Venne (St. Catherine) finished as medalist with a score of 3-over par.

all that far behind. The lead for the Knights was two after they put up a team score of 302 (four players count) on Day 1, and they increased it to 10 by shooting the same score on Day 2. St. Catherine narrowed the gap by shooting 304 on Day 3, to 308 by Carleton, but the Knights ended up six ahead -- 912 to 918.

The victory assures Carleton of a spot in the NCAA Division III Championships next May. Considering how close they came to winning, the Wildcats have a reasonable chance of getting at at-large bid to the national tournament.

Bethel finished third in the teams standings, at 943, and Macalester was another 22 back in fourth at 965.

DRIVE, CHIP & PUTT

Qualifying

The Drive, Chip and Putt Championship aims to help younger generations begin their lifelong connection with golf by providing a fun, interactive platform for participants of all skill levels. This free youth golf development initiative welcomes boys and girls ages 7-15 to participate in separate divisions in four age categories. Top performers at the local level will advance through subregional and regional qualifiers, respectively. Top 80 performers (40 boys and 40 girls) earn an invitation to the National Finals at Augusta National.

Stage 1: Local Qualifying (May/June/July/August) - in all 50 states

Stage 2: Subregional Qualifying (July/August) - at approximately 60 sites

Stage 3: Regional Qualifying (September/October) - 10 host sites

Stage 4: Championship Final (April the following year)

Finau Survives Final Day Drama at TPC Twin Cities, Wins 3M Open

By Mike Fermoye (July 24, 2022)

BLAINE -- The wind was consistently 15 miles per hour in Blaine for most of the afternoon during the final round, and it was gusting to more than 20 mph. That turned the course at TPC Twin Cities into a mine field, and almost none of the leaders came through the final round of the 3M Open unscathed. Tony Finau could have been a casualty, but he got a lucky bounce just when he needed it, and he also played really well for the fourth day in a row. As a result, he was able to claim his third PGA Tour victory.

Finau, a 32-year-old who is the first person of Samoan descent to play on the PGA Tour, was tied for third place when the final round began. He trailed the 54-hole leader, Scott Piercy, by five shots, and Emiliana Grillo by one. But he closed with a 4-under-par 67 in the perilous conditions. It was the second-best score of the day, and it gave him a 72-hole total of 267 (-17).

"Man, talking about the last few hours, I think I'm still trying to catch up, still trying to figure out what happened," Finau said afterward. "I think the win is finally settling in."

The victory was worth $1,350,000, and that elevated Finau from No. 37 on the 2021-22 PGA Tour money list to No. 21, with $4,021,636 in 21 tournaments.

Grillo, who seemed to fall out of contention when he made a triple-bogey 7 at the seventh hole followed by a bogey the par-3 eighth, fought back with three birdies on the first four holes of the back nine and salvaged a 71, which earned him a tie for second place, along with Sungjae Im, at 270. Im, who opened with a 65 and shared the first-round lead with Piercy, had fallen out of the top five with a 70 in the second round and a 67 in the third round. But he was the only player to get through the final round without a bogey on his way to a 68.

As for Piercy, he was the TPC Twin Cities most visible victim during the final round, making four bogeys and a triple in a span of seven holes on the back nine, and ending up with a 76. In spite of all that, he still managed to tie for fourth place at 271. That was worth $315,625 and moved the 43-year-old PGA Tour veteran into the top 125 on the money list (with $982,815) and put him in a position to make the FedEx Playoffs for the 14th time in 15 years.

Also in the three-way tie for fourth were Tom Hoge, the former two-time Minnesota State Amateur champion, and James Hahn, who shot the day's low round -- by two -- with a 65. Hoge made an early birde at the 486-yard, par-4 third hole -- it used to be a par 5 when the Champions Tour played at TPC Twin Cities -- and like a lot of other guys, he bogeyed the 507-yard, par-4 ninth. But he birdied the par-5 12th (581 yards) and the treacherous, 412-yard, par-4 14th, and was making a nice, steady move up the leaderboard -- until the 16th hole.

The tees at the 16th were moved up this weekend, making it a driveable, 302-yard par 4. Hoge flared his drive to the right -- and caught an unlucky break when his fall plugged in a bunker. He was no more than 30 or 35 yards from the green, but it took him two shots from the plugged lie just to get to the fringe, and his mini-charge on the back nine was derailed by a bogey 5. He had a chance to get into the tie for second when he hit his third shot at the 572-yard, par-5 18th hole to 14 feet, but he missed the putt and signed for a 70.

Hoge tied for ninth at the PGA Championship in May, but had missed six cuts in a row since then.

Tony Finau posted a 4-round total of 267, 17-under par, winning the championship by a 3-stroke margin.

It might seem strange, but even though he earned more than $300,000 for the week, Hoge dropped one place on the money list, slipping from No. 19 to No. 20, because Im passed him, going from No. 21 to No. 18. But don't feel sorry for Hoge. A winner of the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am earlier this year (his first PGA Tour victory), he's made a tidy $4,271,346 in 20 events during the '21-22 tour season.

Hahn got his share of fourth with a pretty spectacular back nine charge that began with an eagle at the 12th He parred the 13th and then ran off three birdies in a row on the 14th, 15th and 16th holes.

A Back-Nine Surge Lifts Inkster to Second Land O'Lakes Legends Classic Win

By Nick Hunter (August 14, 2022)

PRIOR LAKE, Minn. – Watching putt after putt slide past the cup during her front nine, Juli Inkster carded two bogeys over her first eight holes to fall three shots off the lead during the final round of the 2022 LPGA Land O'Lakes Legends Classic at The Meadows at Mystic Lake.

"I puttred really poorly on the front," Inkster said. "I had about a 10-footer on nine, thought I hit a really good putt and didn't make it—then I got mad."

A fired-up Inkster rolled in three birdies over her first four holes to begin her back nine and would card a final-round 70 to claim her second consecutive title with a one-stroke victory over Leta Lindley.

"I was hitting the ball so well and finally started making some birdies. I want to have a good showing next week [at the U.S. Senior Women's Open], so it helps to get out a play a little bit," the 62-year-old World Golf Hall of Fame inductee said. "I just have to figure out my putting. The greens were great; it was operator error."

"Any time you win, it's fun. I really love the game and I love to play."

Playing her first eight holes in 2-over, Inkster turned four shots behind Lindley before sinking a 6-footer for birdie at the 10th. Following a short birdie at the 12th, Inkster pulled even with Lindley at 6-under with her birdie at the 13th.

The seven-time major champion converted her birdie chance at the par-4 16th to regain the outright lead and would get up-and-down on the final hole, sinking a 4-footer for par to claim back-to-back wins at the championship.

"Yesterday I hit every green but one and today I hit every green but one—the last hole," Inkster said. "I knew I was hitting the ball well, I just needed to make some putts."

Inkster's win marks her sixth victory on the LPGA Legends Tour, and her 46th win as a professional, earning a first-place prize of $35,000. With more than $14 million in career earnings, Inkster remains the only golfer in LPGA history to win a pair of majors in a decade for three consecutive decades.

Lindley improves on a 10th-place finish from a year ago, posting back-to-back rounds of 3-under 69 to finish one shot back at 6-under 138.

"My goal was 6-under today, so I missed it by three," Lindley said. "I was rolling the ball better and putting much better. I feel like everything is coming together and I'm hitting the ball more solid and hitting my lines."

At left, Juli Inkster won the championship with a 2-round total of 137, 7-under par.

At right, Leigh Klasse finished as low amateur with a 2-round total of 152, 8-over par.

"I've been working really hard the last couple of months gearing up for these big tournaments. It gives me confidence—I know it's there."

Lindley, who ranks among the top-60 in career winnings with over 30 top-10 finishes, began the final round two shots off the lead, but quickly erased the deficit with a pair of birdies over her first six holes to take the outright lead.

Taking advantage of the par-5 10th, Lindley increased her lead to two, but was unable to convert any birdie chances over her final eight holes, shooting a second straight round of 69 to finish one back of Inkster at 6-under 138.

Laura Diaz carded a 3-under 69 to take sole possession of third place at 5-under 139, while Maria McBride carded a final-round 67 to finish in share of fourth with former University of Minnesota women's golf coach Michele Redman at 4-under 140.

Lisa Grimes, a professional from Alexandria, Minn., led a contingent of local golfers in the field this week. Grimes posted a two-day tally of 1-under 143 to place 10th.

Leigh Klasse carded back-to-back rounds of 4-over 76 to earn low-amateur honors.

DISCONTINUED OTHER CHAMPIONSHIPS

3M CHAMPIONSHIP

The 3M Championship was a professional golf tournament in Minnesota on the PGA Tour Champions schedule, played annually at the TPC Twin Cities in Blaine. 3M was the main sponsor of the tournament. It debuted in 1993 as the Burnet Senior Classic, and was originally held at the Bunker Hills Golf Course in nearby Coon Rapids. After eight editions, the tournament moved to the newly built TPC Twin Cities in 2001, when 3M took over as sponsor.

Within the tournament was the "Greats of Golf Challenge," an exhibition scramble on Saturday among teams of former major winners and hall of famers of both genders. Recent participants include Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player, Lee Trevino, and Nancy Lopez. [5]

In 2018, it was announced that the 2018 3M Championship would be the final playing of the event, as it would be replaced by the 3M Open on the PGA Tour starting in 2019. Kenny Perry was the final champion of the event, winning his third 3M Championship on August 5, 2018.
