ROCHESTER GOLF & COUNTRY CLUB

In 1915, an avid group of golfers leased 100 acres of land from Mayo Clinic doctors E.S. Judd and D.C. Balfour. Harry Turple, a Red Wing Course golf professional, was brought in to lay out a nine-hole course – and the Rochester Golf Club was born. The members desired a more challenging golf course and, as luck would have it, a Mayo Clinic physician married the daughter of noted golf course architect Albert Warren (A.W.) Tillinghast. In 1916, the Rochester Golf Club became incorporated and changed its name to Rochester Golf & Country Club. Construction began on Tillinghast's new course in 1924, and it opened the following summer.

In 2016, under the direction of golf course architect Tom Doak, the acclaimed 18-hole golf course underwent substantial renovations to restore the course to its original A.W. Tillinghast design. Long known for its challenging but playable course and views, the course reopened in 2019 offering members and guests alike new and lasting memories as the story of Rochester Golf & Country Club continues.

Rochester G&CC has held several women's state championships including four Minnesota Women's State Amateurs, the predecessor to the MGA Women's Amateur Championship, in 1952, 1976, 1996 and 2006, in addition to two Minnesota Women's Match Play championships in 1938 and 1962, with the former being won by World Golf Hall of Fame member and Minneapolis native Patty Berg.

LAST YEAR'S CHAMPIONSHIP

Following a pair of runner-up finishes over the past three seasons at the MGA Women's Amateur Championship, Sophia Yoemans chipped in for birdie on the final hole at Island View Golf Club in Waconia and survived a two-hole playoff with the 2018 champion Taylor Ledwein for Yoemans first Women's State Amateur title, and her 10th state victory overall.

Yoemans took the opening-round lead by shooting a 3-under 69 and would follow it with a round of 72, trailing Ledwein by one stroke entering the final 18 holes.

Dropping her birdie chance from 20 feet on the opening hole, Yoemans quickly closed the gap and would take the outright lead by sticking her tee shot at the par-3 fourth inside of five feet and converted her birdie chance to move to 5-under.

Even through nine holes following a birdie by Ledwein at the eighth, Yoemans missed the 10th green with her approach and was unable to save par to fall one behind Ledwein. Getting up-and-down from behind the 13th green helped Yoemans draw even with Ledwein, but Yoemans would stumble at the par-4 15th missing her par putt from eight feet.

Needing a birdie at the 18th, Yoemans' approach spun back to the front edge where she would chip in for a final-round, 1-under-par 71, and tying Ledwein at 4-under-par 212 after 54 holes of play.

Both Yoemans and Ledwein reached the back edge of the green on the second playoff hole where Yoemans would clinch the championship with a two-putt par.

Chip-in and Extra Holes Secure Amateur Championship for Sophia Yoemans

Following a pair of runner-up finishes over the past three seasons at the Minnesota Golf Association Women's Amateur Championship, Sophia Yoemans chipped in for birdie on the final hole July 28 at Island View Golf Club in Waconia and survived a two-hole playoff with 2018 champion Taylor Ledwein for her 10th state victory. "I've been up there a few times and this one means a lot," Yoemans said. "This the biggest tournament a college player or amateur player can play in during the summer. I've been so close the past four years, so it feels good. It was a battle, too. Good match with Taylor all week and it was a lot of fun." Yoemans took the opening-round lead by shooting a 3-under 69 and would follow it with a round of 72, trailing Ledwein by one stroke entering the final 18 holes. Dropping her birdie chance from 20 feet on the opening hole, Yoemans quickly closed the gap and would take the outright lead by sticking her tee shot at the par-3 fourth hole inside of five feet and converted her birdie chance to move to 5-under.

Even through nine holes following a birdie by Ledwein at the eighth, Yoemans missed the 10th green with her approach and was unable to save par to fall one behind Ledwein. Getting up-and-down from behind the 13th green helped Yoemans draw even with Ledwein, but Yoemans would stumble at the par-4 No. 15 missing her par putt from eight feet.

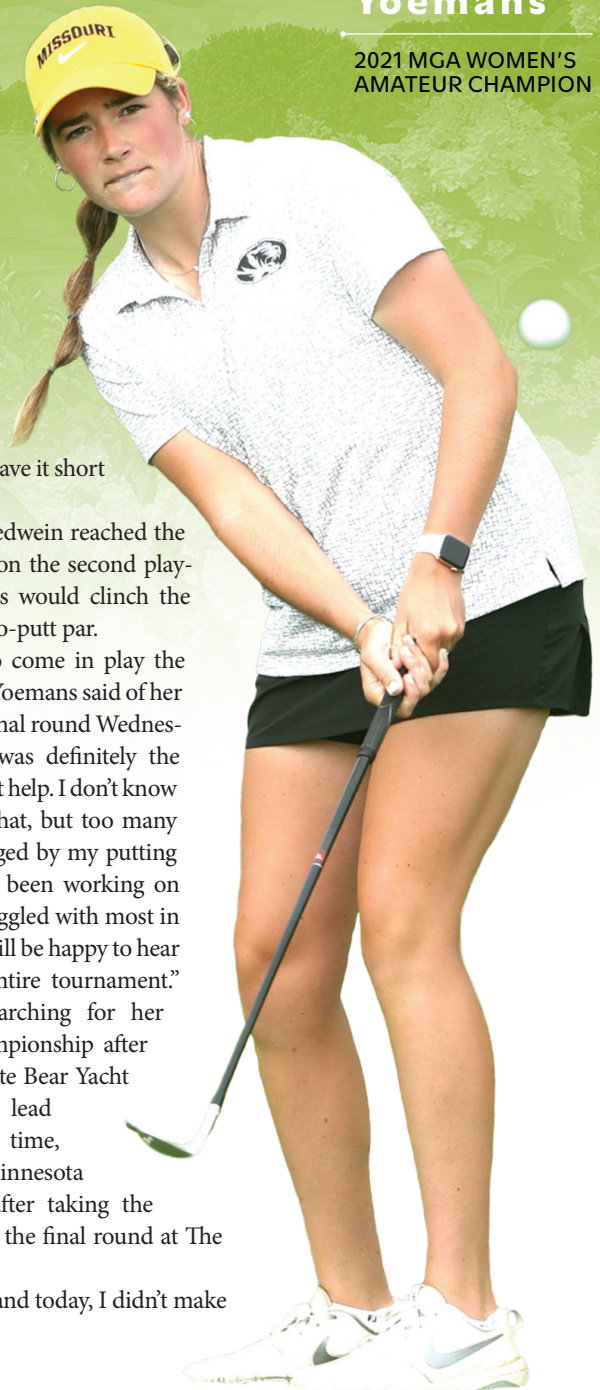

Needing a birdie at the 18th, Yoemans' approach spun back to the front edge where she would chip in to shoot a 1-under 71 and tie Ledwein at 4-under 212 after 54 holes of play.

"I had 102 yards to the pin and didn't hit a good wedge," Yoemans said. "I was in the fringe by two feet and probably could've putted it, but I thought I had a better chance chipping. My dad told me not to leave it short and I went for it."

Both Yoemans and Ledwein reached the back edge of the green on the second playoff hole where Yoemans would clinch the championship with a two-putt par.

"I was just hoping to come in play the same as I had all week," Yoemans said of her slim deficit to start the final round Wednesday. "My ball-striking was definitely the worst today, so that didn't help. I don't know if that was fatigue or what, but too many off shots. [I'm] encouraged by my putting because that's what I've been working on the most. It's what I struggled with most in college, so my coaches will be happy to hear I putted well for the entire tournament." Ledwein, who was searching for her second win at the championship after winning in 2018 at White Bear Yacht Club, let a final-round lead slip away for a second time, falling at the 2020 Minnesota Women's State Open after taking the same one-stroke lead to the final round at The Jewel Golf Club.

"I played pretty solid and today, I didn't make putts like I did the first day," Ledwein said after her final round.

"I had a lot of birdie putts that went in Monday and today I didn't have that. I left a few of them a few rolls short, right in the heart. I make a few of those and it changes it. I had fun this week—I left a few out there, but overall, I was happy with how I played. My confidence was lacking coming in because I haven't been playing really well. I came in wanting to put three solid rounds together, and being right there to win builds your confidence quite a bit." Entering the week as the youngest player in the field at 14 years old, Lauryn Finley carded a 78 to begin the championship, followed it with an even-par 72, and earned a third-place finish with a final-round 73 for a 7-over 223.

The Minnesota State Girls' Junior Championship winner Olivia Salonek fired a 1-over 73 to begin the tournament before shooting a 74 during the second round. Playing in the final group, Salonek finished with a 77 to place fourth at 8-over 224.

"[I'm] encouraged by my putting because that's what I've been working on the most. It's what I struggled with most in college, so my coaches will be happy to hear I putted well for the entire tournament."
