There will be two divisions for play: OPEN and SENIOR. The Senior Division is open to players who are at least 50 years old as of the first day of the Championship. A player eligible for the Senior Division may elect to play in the Open Division. If no division is selected at the time of entry, a player will be assigned to the division according to her age. Open Division: Open division participants will play a qualifying round in the morning of Day 1 to determine the flights for the remainder of the Championship. The Defending Champion and the top 15 qualifiers will compete in the Championship Flight. The remaining players will be placed in flights of 8 based on qualifying score. Ties for the last spot in the Championship Flight will be played off, hole-by-hole, until a winner is determined. Ties for all other flights will be determined by matching qualifying scorecards following the USGA recommendations. The Defending Champion will be the #1 seed. All other seeding will be based on the qualifying scores. All flights will play first round matches in the afternoon of Day 1. On Day 2, all players advancing to Round 2 will play matches in the morning. The Championship flight will play semi-final matches in the afternoon. On Day 3, all flights will play Championship matches. There will be no consolation flights in the Open Division. In the open division only, if the field is oversubscribed or incomplete, (not divisible by flights of eight), entries will be accepted to complete full flights based on the order they have signed up. Players will be placed on an alternate list until a flight is complete. In case openings occur in the last flight due to withdrawals prior to the pairings being released, applicants will be placed on the alternate list.

Senior Division: Senior division participants will be placed in flights of 8, with the Defending Champion seeded #1 in the Championship Flight, according to handicap index as of the revision of June 1 and will play one match per day as follows: Day 1 – Afternoon, Days 2 & 3 – Morning.
